SPECIAL NOTICES. THE UNION BENEVOLENT ASSOCIA-TION-The Poor and the Season. -On behalf of the poor of the city the managers of the Union Benevolent Association are compelled to make a second appeal for the season for funds. It was hoped that the mildness of the winter and the activity of trade would have made a second sppeal unnecessary; but the enormously increased cost of every article of living and especially of fuel, has laid burdens upon the poor which calls for greater liberality towards them; and our treasury is empty. Notwithstanding the appa-rent prosperity abroad there is an under current of suffering which is eur duty to search cut and relieve. The labor of working-men is well remunerated; but that of poor sewing women is not, except in special cases. We know of those who, working late and early, earn but S2 00 per-week; who make common shirts for S1 25, and drawers for S1 00 per dozen. Hen control their wages by banding together and demanding an in-crease of pay, but there seems to be no redress for women, who are wholly in the power of their em-ployers. When it is asserted, therefore, that labor is abundant, &c., we point to this class of sufferers, and ask for them and those de-pendent upon them the sympathies of the public. The public must be reminded, however, that it is not for those who are able to labor that our charity is intended, but for those who are incapacitated by not for those who are able to labor that our charit is intended, but for those who are incapacitated h eason of sickness or infirmities, and upon who the high prices work an immense amount of suffer ing. This class 'we have always with us,'' no matter how mild the winter or favorable the times They are mostly women, often with families o small children. It costs them from $5 to $10 for s small children. It costs them from 55 to 510 to ton of coal, or rather sixteen to twenty dollars, for small children. It costs them from Si to Sil for a ton of coal, or rather sixteen to twenty dollars, for they are compelled to buy it by the basket, at double the common price. Our society has one hundred and forty female visitors who discover more of this kind of suffering than they have means to relieve, and it is for them that this appeal is made. Our whole receipts in money per annum is not over Sil, 0:00. (A similar society in New York recrees S70,000.) (More than half of this is ex-pended for coal, leaving less than S5,000 to be di-vided among one hundred and forty ladies, making the among one hundred and forty ladies, making the among one hundred and forty ladies, making the dolars, or two dolars per month. With this these ladies relieved last year 4,050 fami-lies. They made 11,013 visits to the poor. They found employment for 5:9 persons. They minis-tered to 5:91 sits. They sent to school 1:39 chil-dren. They distributed 1,224 tons of coal, 1,477 carments, 300 stores, and kept 30 women in sewing for their store, besides a distribution of over SH000 in money. This winter the demand is greater and the receipts is moller. The Society therefore makes this appeal for further aid, at the close of the season, when suffering is always greatest. The collectors of the Society, Messrs. Cooper and Evans will make an early call upon the citizens and they are earnestly commended to the attention of the charitable; or contributions may be sent to the Treasurer, Edmund Wilcox, Esg., 404, Chestnut street, or to the agent of the Society at the office, northwest corner Seventh and Sansom streets. The sixty-seventh regiment Chio Volunteers, under com-mand of Major L. Butler, was on board. The British ship-of-war Petrel arrived off Charleston bar on the evening of Friday, the 5th inst., wishing to communicate with the British Consu. at Savannah, Georgin. She also brought extensive despiratches to J. P. Benjamin, rebel Secretary of War. State messages were sent to Admiral Dahlgren, who was then at Port Royal, to get permission to enter the harbor. HBADQUARTERS, HILTON HEAD, S. C., Feb. 5, 184. —On Tuesday morning last, at daylight a large Ciyde built iron steamer, scheoner rigged, and with two smoke-stacks, was discovered by our troops at Battery Strong, Cummings's Point, Mor-ris Island, apparently schorer m Maffiitt's channel, of Kort Monluris, Sullivan's Island. —When firs; discovered a large number of men were observed on her discharging cargo and hansporting it to the beach. In a short time one three-hundred-pounder Parroit and other beavy rifles was trained upon her discharging cargo and tanseporting it to the beach. In a short time one three-hundred-pounder Parrott and other heavy rifles were trained upon and soon opened firs. The first shell from the huge rifle struck near her and dashed immense volumes of spray in the air. A second shot fol-lowed quickly after, and the rebeis began to desert the vessel and hurry ashore in the most excited manner, which was not at all queted by the third shot, which crushed through the iron sides of the steamer and sent the fragments flying in all direc-tions. The steamer was instantly deserted by the loiterers, who jumped overboard, took to the shore, and then to their heels in an amusing manner. The firs was still maintained from the heavy guns, and eight shot and shell put through the vessel, which sank as the idd came up and rashed through the gaping holes in her hall. The work was so well don that it was apparent that no possible effort on the part of the rebels could float her up to the city. During the day the batteries on Gummings's Point would play upon her at intervals, for the purpose of preventing the rebels in an aton of the cargo. On the following day the Monitors ran up to-

display was very creditable DRAFT MEETING IN THE NINETEENTH WARD-A spirited draft meeting was held last eve-ning in the Temperance Hall, in York street, below. Frankford road. There was a large attendance of the citizens of the vicinity, and the proceedings throughout were harmonious and satisfactory. From the reports of the various committees appointed to canvas the Ward for contributions, it was ascertained that the amountaiready subscribed is about eleven thousand dollars, of which nearly eight thousand doilars have been psid in. It is estimated that not more than eighteen thousand dollars will be required to exempt the Wart. from the draft, and judging from the progress already made no trouble will be experienced in securing that amount at an early date. This fact speaks well for the liberality of the residents of this district, who are mostly working people of limited means, and also for the preservering energy of the different canvassing committees. The dis-bursing committee reported that they are holding daily sessions, from i to 5 o' clock in the afternoon, at the Military Hall, in Third street below Green, and that thus far they have obtained nearly two hundred men. who have received their bounty and will be accredited to the quota of the ward. Dur-ing the evening short and forcible addresses were delivered by Dr. Curran, Mr. Hoff, Mr. Jamas Tagert, and others. DRAFT MEETING IN THE NINETEENTHWARD-

Sr. VALENTINE'S DAY .- To-morrow will be ST. VALENTINE'S DAT.—To-morrow will be St. Valentine's day, and the 'dads and kasses' are sending around their loving missives to day by wholesale. The custom of celebrating this fes-tival per postman has fallen greatly into disuse of late years, in consequence of the vulgar and scur-rilous caricatures called Valentines which have hitherto been circulated for the purpose of enabling the mean and spiteful to vent their spicen upon those whom they wish to wound.

A HOUSEHOLD BLESSING .- If it were in our A HOUSEHOLD BLESSING.—If it were in our power to dispense the greatest possible mundane blessing to every honeehold in the land, we could not do so more effectnally than by supplying every family with a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine. In other words, the highest good that we could have it in our power to bestow would be to give every family an order on the agent of the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Company, 730 Chestnut street, to get one of those inimitable instruments. The next best thing that we can do is, to advise all who are about purchasing sewing machines, to give the Grover & Baker the preference over all others.

LUBRICATING OILS .- We have already had LUDERICATING OILS.—We have already had occasion to speak approvingly of the excellent Lubricating Oils sold by Messrs Hulburt & Co., No. 240 Arch street, as being in many respects superior to any others in use, while their cost is moderate. They have been tested, and are now in use by most of our city railroads, and are found to answer better than any other lubricator in the world. They ought to be universally adopted. Messrs. Hulburt & Co.'s Signal Oils for illumina-ting purposes. are also unsurpassed by any others in existence, and their prices are unusually low.

Endeated to us by a companion-ship that was fruitfal of every pleasure, by a rare nobility of character that was insate, and by an in-tercourse of the warmest affection, causing us to approach our sad duty with grieved hearts, we feel this to be but a feeble effort to bear testimony to his goodness, his great purity of character and our abding and earnest to own grief we turn still more sadly to the family of our departed comrade, and with feelings almost too painful for expres-sion, tender our sincere condolence and sympathy in their sudden bereavement. Resolved, That the Company wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days. Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to com-municate the proceedings of this meeting to the family of our decased brother. *Capt. would play upon her at intervals, for the purpose of preventing the rebels ti in saving the balance of the cargo. On the following day the Monitors ran up to-wards Moultrie and finished the work of desiruc-tion mast effectually, by knocking the Anglo-rebel to pieces with their iffteen inch shells. Pernaps some of the cargo may float sahore from the wreck, but the great balk of it is undonbiedly lost. The steamer was evidently inward bound, and came very near effecting a successful corn.' She had run by the fivral cordons of blockaders, and run ashore nearly under the guns of Moultris. A few days since a sergeant of the rebel army and seven men came into our lines at Fort Pulaski from Savannah. They speak rather gloemly of affairs in the Confederacy, the burden of their story being the old one-of discontent, starvation and a merciless conscription. They represent the present supply of provisions for the army as only sufficient for one month's censumption. The rebels have been dreading an attack on Sa-vannah, and have reinforced General Mercer by six thousand men from the coast line. They have, as a further defence, planted a large number of torpedoes in the Savannah and Wilmington rivers, and in short, in all the water and land approaches to the city. They hops to make a successful de-fence against our attack, if one is attempted. Nearly all the soldiers are anxious to desart, and either retarn to their homes or come under our flag again. One or two regiments have mutinied, and were ealy compelled to return to duty by the most summary proceedings. The troops think the jfg is about up. They are fully posied on the President's amonesty proclamation, a.d desire to avail them-selves of its provisions. selves of its provisions.

SWRETMEATS WHOLESOME.-Some simple people have an idea in their heads that sugar is not wholesome. Perhaps not in some forms, for there is nothing to which the old adage that Providence is nothing to which the old adage that Providence' sends victuals and the other parts the cock, applies better than to sugar. But sugar of itself is whole-some, as is proved by the fact that the men, women and children upon sugar plantations all become as fat as butter, and they almost live upon sugar. To obtain sweetments that have all the native whole-somenees of the sugar, with all the dainty combi-rations with other good and delicious things, which superior skill can produce, go to the popular slore of E. G. Whitman & Co., No. 316 Chestaut street, below Fourth. GERMAN OFFRA. - The first performance of Richard Wagner's opera of Tannhaüser drew a very large audience to the Academy of Music. People listened to it in a condition of perplexity. The overture made a good impression; but then the scene on the Venusberg was dull and wearisome. The chorus of Pilgrims, in the next scene, pleased every one; but it occurs half a dozen times in the opera and, of course, was not relished so much at the end as at the beginning. The second act is decidedly grand. The march and chorus in the tournament scene are splendid. No one who listens to that scane can deny that Wagone who listens to that zeene can deny that Wag-ner possesses the gitt of melody in a rare degree. That he is a thorough master of harmony, also, is proved by every other part of the opera. The finale of the second act is another fine piece of mu-sical vriting, and it is as effective as some of the grand finales of the moderi I alian stage. The last act, which should be the best, is so full of leng dreary recitatives, and fragmentary, un-formed melodies, that it proves thresome, except to those who have a critical curiosity to study queer intervals in the singing and fantastic modu-latiors in the instrumentation. It is hard to say that a majority of the andence, at the end of the opera, would not have voted it a bore. But a work of such fame is not to be condemned on a single hearing. The simplest opera is not appreciated first. Tannhailser is so very elaborate and severe, that it must require numerous hearings to enable one to comprehend it thoroughly. The artists en-gaged in it acquitted themselves very well, and the orchestra did its very difficult part of the work-much better than we had expected. This afternoon-fas Merry Wirzs of Windsor is to be played, and on Monday evening, for the first time in America, Spohr's opera Jessonda.
