> XXVIIITH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION. WASHINGTON. Feb. 12. SENATE -Mr. Trumbull (III.) presented a petion from Judges of Illinois, Wisconsin, Iewa and SIMATE.—Mr. Trumbull (III.) presented a petition from Judges of Illinois, Wisconsin, Iewa and New Jersey, setting forth the inadequacy of their salaries, and asking an increase.

Mr. Harding (Oregon) introduced a resolution anstructing the Committee on Post Offices and Roads to inquire into the expediency of establishing a postroad from Salt Lake city to Oregon.

Mr. Riddle (Del.) moved that 10,000 additional copies of the report of Gen. McCletlan, without the accompanying maps and documents, be printed for the use of the Senate. Referred to the Committee on Printing.

the use of the Senate. Referred to the Committee on Printing.

On motion of Mr. Lane (Ind.) it was resolved that the Committee on the Judiciary be directed to inquire him the expediency of so amending the present laws regulating the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the United States as shall confine the Court to the consideration of questions of law alone, except as is provided by the 19th section of the act to establish the judicial courts of the United States, passed September 21th, 1783, and to report by bill or otherwise.

On motion of Mr. Fessenden (Me., ) all-prior orders were postponed, and the Senate proceeded to consider the House Deficiency bill, as reported with amendments by the Senate Finance Committee. The committee's amendments, with a few mittee. The committee's amendments, with a few slight exceptions, were agreed to. The Senate committee's amendment strikes out all the House provisions for an increase of the clerical force of the Department, and authorizes the appointment in the various bureaux, for a term not exceeding one year after the close of the rebelion, of about one thousand clerks and employes of various

Senate's amendment appropriates the The Senate's amendment appropriates the amount necessary to pay the salaries of these additional employes to the 30th of June, 1864, and provides for the employment of females instead of males, at a salary not exceeding — hundred dollars per annum. It also repeals the act limiting the office of Assistant Register of the Treasury to one year.

Certain amendments from the Naval Committee were concurred in. They appropriate $150,000 for repairs at the Norfolk Navy-Yard; $144,000 for works at Port Royal, S.C., and $17,000 for repairs to the Brooklyn Navy-Yard.

Mr. Fessenden presented amendments, which were closed, a way-yard. Mr. Fessenden presented amenoments, whose were adopted, appropriating about $50,000,000 for deficiencies in the Quartermaster's Ordinance and Commissary Departments. These amendments were based upon the estimates of the Chiefs of the Bureaus; as transmitted with an explanation of the Scarce of t ory letter from the Secretary of War.

Mr. Wilson broved an executive session.

Mr. Fesgenden thought the bill could be passed to-day.
Various minor amendments were offered, Warious minor amendments were offered, when the Senate adjourned until to-morrow.

House.—Mr. Wassburne (III.) from the Committee on Commerce, reported the Senate bill which was passed, re-establishing the principal port of entry for the District at Champlain at Plattsburg, New York.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the Senate Enrollment bill, as amended by the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union.

Mr. Cox (Ohio) suggested that the bill should lie over till Monday, in order to give further time for examination, the amendment being much confused.

Tused. Mr. Schenck (Ohio) replied that the public exigencies were so pressing that he could not give an hour. He moved the previous question and then explained the amendments and substitute, concluding by an appeal to the friends of the country to pass this bill that the army may be re-cruited and the government sustained. Mr. Harding (ky.) desired to address the

Mr. Garfield (Ohio) proposed that the gentleman from Kennucky should, by general consent, be allowed half an hour for that purpose, but Mr. Schenck objected.
Opposition to further proceedings on the bill was mannested.

Mr. Rogers (N. J.) moved to reconsider the vote by which in the earlier stage of the proceedings the House had asked to adjourn till Monday. The motion was laid on the table—yeas 100, nays 40. Mr. Harding (Ky.) moved that the House adjourn.

No quorum voting the question was taken by yeas and nuys, and determined in the negative yeas 12, nays 90. It was now 41% o'clock. Mr. Clay (Ky.) asked leave of absence till Mon.

day, but afterwards withdrew his request.
Mr. Wadsworth (Ky.) moved that the bill and amendments be laid on the table.
The question was determined in the negative—

The question was determined in the negative—yeas 45, nays 67.

The House then proceeded to act on the amendments to the Senate bill.

The Honse then voted on the following amendment adopted by the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union:

"All able-bodied male persons of African descent, between the ages of twenty and forty years, whether citizens or not, resident in the United States, shall be enrolled according to the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, and shall form part of the national forces; and when a slave of a loyal citizen shall be drafted and mustered int in the service of the United States, his mas-ierod into the service of the United States, his master shall have a certificate therefor. The bounty of $100 now payable by law for each drafted man shall be paid to the person to whom such drafted person owes service or labor at the time of his muster into the service of the United States, on freeing the person. The Secretary of War shall appoint a commission in each of the slave States represented in Congress, charged to award a just compensa. iom, not exceeding $300, to each loyal person to whom the colored volunteer may owe service, who may volunteer into the service of the United States, payable out of the commutation money upon the master freeing the slave."

The above was agreed to by the following vote: YEAS—Messrs. Alley, Allison Anderson, Arnold, Asbley, Baldwin (Alass.), Baxter, Beaman, Blair (West Va.), Boutwell Boyd, Brandegee, Brown (West Va.), Cobb., Cresswell, Davis (Md.) Any person drafted into the military service of the United States may, before the time fixer for his appearance for duty at the draft rendezvous, furnish an acceptable substitute, subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War, if such substitute is not liable to draft. The person furnishing him shall be exempt from draft during the time for which such substitute is not liable to draft, not exceeding the term for which he was drafted; and if such substitute is liable to draft the name of the person furnishing him shall be liable to draft in filling future quotas; and if any drafted person shall he reafter pay money for the procuration of a substitute under the provisions of the act to which this is an amendment, such payment of money shall operate only to relieve such person from draft during the time for which the person was drafted, unless the names placed in the box become exhausted; in which case the names shall be returned to the wheel. Members of religious denominations who shall, by oath or affirmation declare that they are conscientiously opposed to the bearing of arms, and who are prohibited from doing so by the rules not articles of faith and practice of said religious enominations, shall, when drafted into the miliary service, be considered as non-combatants, and shall be assigned by the Secretary of War to duty in the hospitals, or to the care of freedmen, or hail flay the sum of $300 to such persons as be Secretary of War shall designate to eccive it, to be applied to the benefit of sick and woulded soldiers; provided that no person shall remitted to the benefit of the provisions of this ection unless his declaration of conscientious cruples against bearing arms shall be supported by satisfactory evidence that his deportment has been uniformly c master's mate, having an appointment or acting, appointment as such, and being actually in the naval service, shall be subject to a military draft while bolding such appointment. The following persons are exempted and excepted from the enrollment and draft, namely:

Such as are rejected as physically or mentally unfit for the service. All persons actually in the military or naval ervice of the United States at the time of the light draft.

All persons who have served in the military or naval service two years during the present war, and who have been honorably discharged from the service, and no persons but such as are herein excepted shall be exempt. The two clauses heretofore provided for in the enrollment are consolidated. In all cases where colored persons have been heretofore enlisted in the military service of the United States, all the provisions of this act, so far as the pay ment of bounty and compensation are provided, shall be equally applicable, as well as to those who may be hereafter recruited.

The bill also contains the section for enrolling all able-bodied persons of African descent, upon able-bodied persons of African descent, upon which a separate vote was taken, before the bill was passed.
