DAVIS TO HIS SOLDIERS.

Jefferson Davis has found it necessary to publish an address to the troops of the rebel army. The wholesale desertions that are .eccurring among them, in every part of the South, must have seriously alarmed him, or he would not have felt called on to make such an appeal as that we lay before our readers to-day. Of course, he says nothing about the thousands of desertions, but makes a great parade of the fact that some of his troops are re-enlisting. Then he goes on to call the Union soldiers "mercenaries," the Union people "corrupt," and the Union press "pensioned." We should like to have this address widely circulated at the North as well as at the South. It will excite the loyal people to new indignation at this ringleader of the Southern traitors, and the loyal seldiers whom he insults to new determinaand yet every one who rides frequently in a tion to fight against him and his armies.

LEAGUE ISLAND. If the new Navy Yard be not located at League Island, there is the strongest reason to believe that it will be because the citizens of Philadelphia do not exert themselves with sufficient heartiness, but allow the friends of the Chester site to retain possession of the ear of the Navy Department and of the ride inside. I am happy to add my testimony to the great value of the 'London Hair Color Restorer,' three bottles of which restored my Hair, which was very gray, to its original dark color, and the hue appears to be permanent. I am satisfied that the preparation is nothing like a dye, but operates upon the secretions. It is also a beautiful Hair-dressing. I purchased the first bottle from Mr. Garrigues, Dragist, Tenth and Coates streets, who can also testify my hair was very gray, when I commenced its use. MRS. MILLER,
