early part of the present week Mr. Joseph Bar-ker, recently the celebrated advocate of Secularism, has been delivering sermons and lec. tures in the Working Men's Institute, West-gate, in favor of Christianity. On Sunday he preached two sermons, and on Monday evening the subject of his lecture was, "The Bible, it. worth, and how to use it." The speaker showed, that the Bible was the only boo adapted to all the requirements of man's mental and spiritual nature, and showed that it had been the means of doing more good than any other book in existence. On Tuesday evenin his subject was, " Christianity, the best Socularism, and something more and better than the best Secularism." He compared the per-sonal appearance, health and mental ability of the Christians with those of infidels and showed the former to be vastly superior in all. He spoke of the elevating tendency of Chris-tianity, and the demoralizing effect of infi-delty, and showed that Christians had done more to advance education, natural philosophy geography, and every other branch of know-ledge, than the so-culled Secularists, and were also more happy and contented in their secular pursuits in the hope of a life of bliss hereafter whilst he stated, and he spoke from experience that the life of an infidel was a life of continua uneasiness, discontentment, and fear. On Wednesday night he took for his subject, "The teachings, the experiences, and the lessons had learned in his journey through which ho life." He reviewed his own history-entered into an account of the reason which had in duced him to become separated from the Church, and what had induced him to return. and exhorted his hearers to remain steadfast The lecturer was favored with good audiences on cach occasion .- Bradford (Eng.) Review, Jan. 28.

LECTURE BY JOSEPH BARKBE .-- During the

ARRIVAL OF REBEL PRISONERS .- Four hun. dred rebel prisoners, commissioned officers, who have been confined on Johnston's Island opposite Sandusky City, arrived here yesterday afternoon, by railroad, in charge of a detachment of one hundred men belonging to the 129th Ohio volunteers. The Provost Guard were in waiting at the depot for their reception, and kept them from holding any communica-tion with the citizens during their stay here. They were soon transferred to the cars on the Pennsylvania Railroad, and left for Harrisburg and Baltimore. They were comfortably clothed, with a few exceptions, and nearly all of them wore grey coats. The noted guerilla chief, Gen. Jeff. Thompson, and Captain Breckin ridge, a son of the renegade general, are among the number. We understand that, on the arrival of the prisoners at Baltimore they will be transferred to Annapolis, and placed under the charge of Gen. Butler, who is very com-petent to attend to them.—Pittsburgh Gazette, Feb. 12.
