THE TWENTY-SECOND.—Up to six o'clock last evening, the following were the only military organizations which had reported to Captain C. S. Baldeman, to participate in the parade on the anniversary of the birth of Washington, on Monday: 1st Pennsylvania Volunteers, Lieutenant-Colonel Flynn commanding; 28th Pennsylvania Volunteers, Colonel Ballier; 75th Pennsylvania Volunteers, Major Ledig, 73d Pennsylvania Volunteers, Major Cresson; University Light Artillery; Company of Engineers from Polytechnic College; Washington Greys, Lieutenant Ralston; Grey Reserves, Colonel Charles S. Smith; 30th Pennsylvania Militia, Colonel Wm. B. Thomas; Company G, 72d Regiment Reserve Brigade, Capt. G. W. Blake; Invalid Corps from Chestnut Hill, Nicetown and Summit House Hospital, with colors and music; Captain Durborrow's Company of Invalids; Scott-Legion Post, Lieut.-Colonel Frink; Arsenal Guard, Captain Charles Fair; Battery I, Pennsylvania Artillery, Capt. Nevin; Companies B. and L, 20th Pennsylvania Cavalry.

This morning the Blue Reserves, Col. W. W. Taylor, Battalion of 147th P. V., Capt. Mackey, and Henry Guards, Capt. John Spear, reported.

There are no other organizations in the city, and as it is the desire of General Ferry to have the demonstration as imposing as possible, they should report to-day, so that the official designation in the line of procession may be properly made. It is expected that the procession will be reviewed by Major General Hancock and staff.

ARMY CONTRACTS AWARDED.—The award of the following contracts were announced this morning at the Army Clothing and Equipage Office in this city: Jackson Leidy, Philadelphia, 5,000 pairs sewed boots, at $2 13; 10,000 do., $2 15; James Matthews, Philadelphia, 4,000 pairs hand sewed bootees, $2 14; 4,000 do, $2 15; Harmer & Co., Philadelphia, 20,000 pairs machine sewed bootees, $2 14; 30,000 do., $2 17; 20,000 do., $2 19; Seth Bryant, Jappa village, Mass., 2,000 pairs machine sewed boots, $2 15½; 2,000 do., $2 16½; 6,000 do., $2 18½; S. FREE MILITARY SCHOOL.—The result of an examination at Washington, of students of the Free Military School for applicants for command of colored troops, Col. John M. Taggart, Preceptor, No. 1210 Chestnut street, was as follows:—Edward O. Geary, sergeant of Company E, 149th N. Y. regiment, on duty at West Philadelphia Hospital, passed as Lieutenant-Colonel; Wm. A. Burke, civilian, as Captain; Chas. Criasy, civilian; as Captain; Chas. McGinley, corporal, Company L, 15th Pennsylvania (Anderson) cavalry, as First Lieutenant; Albert Henry, private, Company G, 145 Pennsylvania regiment, as First Lieutenant, and John Reed, late private, 72d Pennsylvania regiment, as Second Lieutenant. All the students sent to Washington from this school were passed. The average attendance at this school was about one month.

MR. MURDOCH'S READINGS.—The first of the course of Mr. Murdoch's Scriptural and other selected readings was given last evening, at Musical Fund Hall, to a large and appreciating audience. As he read select portions of Scripture, together with the "Sleeping Sentinel," selections from the "Wild Wagoner of the Alleghenies," and other favorite pieces, he held them in unsurpassed and enchained attention until, unable longer to restrain their feelings, they would break forth in rapturous applause. The second reading of the course will be given to-morrow evening at the same place, at a quarter before eight o'clock, the programme for which will be announced in to-morrow's edition. Tickets, with reserved seats, may still be had at Ashmead & Evans's.

ALLEGED FALSE PRETENCES.—Wm. McLellan, No. 138 South Third street, was before Alderman Wheeler yesterday charged with obtaining money under false pretence. He is alleged to have swindled some twelve persons, representing that he could teach them cigar-making in ten days, and charging them ten dollars. A number of the prosecutors at the hearing yesterday stated that they had to pay him five dollars before he would commence to teach them, and then, after losing with him a few days, he would raise a quarrel with them and send them off. Others whom he professed to teach, said that after leaving his place they were unable even to commence a cigar. The accused was committed.

AN ENTERPRISING PUBLISHING HOUSE.—We take pleasure in referring to the enterprise of the Messrs. Peterson, of this city, whose frequent intercourse with the public through the medium of detailed advertisement enables them to maintain their accustomed liberality in the public service by the supply of literature at minimum prices, and at the same time to augment their business and prosperity. Their establishment is now one of the most comprehensive in the United States, and may be fairly regarded as an indispensable institution of our literary world, and an adjunct of public instruction and entertainment universally appreciated. Their mammoth Catalogue will be sent to any address on application.

DIVORCES.—During the past year 156 applications for divorces were made in this city. This is an increase of two over the previous year. Of the whole number there were ninety-one in which desertion was the alleged ground; forty-one in which adultery was the cause; nine seen for ill treatment; two for bigamy, and three for habitual drunkenness. In ninety-one of the above cases the suits were brought by the wife and in sixty-five by the husband.

There have been fifty-four petitions for divorce granted by the Court of Common Pleas during the year. The others are still pending and undisposed of.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CONFERENCES.—The Annual Conference of the Philadelphia District will be held in Wilmington this year, commencing on the 9th of March. The principal subject before the Conference will be the proposed division of the Philadelphia District. It is contemplated to separate the Delaware portion of the Conference, and establish a separate district.

On the 2d of May the General Conference of the Church in the United States meets in this city, holding its sessions in Union Church. There will be several important matters brought to the notice of the body.

THE TWENTY-NINTH REGIMENT, P. V.—The 29th Regiment, Penna. Volunteers, under Colonel Rickards, will join in the great parade on the 22d instant. This veteran regiment re-enlisted a Waubatchie, while serving in the great Western army, to which it had been transferred during the last campaign. We learn that after much difficulty the colonel has been enabled to get the men credited to this city, and that he has arranged the matter of their bounty. The regiment is now about seven hundred strong.

ATTEMPTED ESCAPE.—George Mason, who was arrested upon the charge of being a deserter from Harper's Zouaves, attempted to escape from the Central Station last evening, by boring a hole through the wall of the cell with some implements which had been passed into him by some means. A guard was procured and Mason was taken to the Provost barracks, where he awaits a requisition from the New York military authorities. Mason is known to the police as a burglar, and some months since was under arrest for being concerned in the heavy robberies of the stores of Eyre & Landell, Yard, Gillmore & Co., and others.

THE "DAVENPORT BOYS."—A correspondent at Erie, Pa., sends us the following notice of the impudent impostors known as the "Davenport Boys:"

"The 'Davenport Boys' spoken of in the EVENING BULLETIN, belong in Buffalo, N. Y., where they have been several times detected in their humbuggery; and Fay, their accomplice, was not long ago fully exposed in Erie. A Mr. Dobbs, a Methodist, of Titusville, after witnessing Fay's performance, had a box made, entered it, and found himself able to far surpass him in all his slight-of-hand."

THE TWENTIETH REGIMENT.—The Twentieth Regiment P. V., Colonel Wm. B. Thomas, will parade on the coming anniversary of the birthday of Washington. The return of the Twentieth will present an honorable attestation from the fact that about one half of the regiment has enlisted for the war. The Twentieth did good service during the memorable days which immediately preceded the Battle of Gettysburg, and the members of the organization have given further evidence of their patriotism by enlisting freely.

ASSAULT WITH A BRICK.—Michael Mulherring was before Alderman Ilevlin, this morning, charged with assault and battery. It seems that the accused and another man went into Coleman's brew factory, at Twentieth and Ann streets, a day or two since. They were drunk, and were ordered out. They were then alleged to have struck Mr. Coleman upon the head with a brick, inflicting a wound
