THE WAR FOR THE UNION

IMPORTANT FROM THE SOUTHWEST. CHATTANOGA, Feb. 19.—Adjutant General Thomas and Staff have returned here from Knoxville. Officers of the party report that Longstreet is in retreat beyond the French Broad River, to avoid a movement of our greatly superior forces. Nashville and Knoxville are connected by railtoad, with the exception of seven hundred yards at Loudon, and passenger trains are running. The bridge at Loudon will be finished before a week. Johnston has concentrated his forces at Oalton, and advanced his picket line to Ringgold, but is fearful of an attack, and cannot spare reinforcements for Polk.

ments for Polk.

The Mobile News says that Polk has been shame. rully outgenerated by Sherman, who had advanced beyond Meridian, between the Bishop and Montgo-mery; and the Marietta Robel has rumors of a hard Eght in Mississippi, on the 13th inst.

A tide of veteran volunteers is being sent to the front, every car on the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad being wanted for their transportation. Everything is quiet here, although we are in a condition to move immediately on orders.

CATRO, Feb. 19.—Reliable information from Southeast Tennessee says that refugees are leaving Tennessee and Georgia by thousands, many of them in a starving condition.

Large numbers of deserters from the rebel army continue to arrive at Chattanooga daily.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The House Military Committee had under consideration to-day the joint resolution which passed the Senate yesterday, allowing persons to be transferred from the military to the naval service. The Committee instructed the Chairman to report against it, for the reason that provision is made for the transfer in the Enrollment bill.

The Committee authorized Mr. Garfield to amend the Senate resolution of thanks to Gen. Thomas has including the name of Gen. Rosecrans.

They also passed a resolution recommending the Secretary of War to appoint a commission of scientific men to examine and report on a machine which, it is claimed, can successfully navigate the air, and thereby be of great service in making reconnoiseances of the enemy's country in conducting the war. the Senate resolution of thanks to Gen. Thomas, by including the name of Gen. Rosecrans.

THE ENROLLMENT BILL.

The Amendatory Euroliment Bill, as it to-day passed both Houses of Congress and now awaits file President's signature, provides that the President of the United States shall be authorized, whenever he shall deem it necessary during the present war, to call for such number of men for the military service as the public exigencies may require. The quota of each ward of a city, town, township, precinct or efection district of a county, where the county is not thus divided, shall be as nearly as possible in proportion to the number of men resident therein liable to render military service, taking into account, as far as practicable, the number which has been previously furnished. THE ENROLLMENT BILL.

In accertaining and filling the quota there is t e taken into account the number of men whave heretofore entered the naval service of the united States, and whose names are already have heretofore entered the naval service of the United States, and whose names are already neturned to the office of the Prevost Marshal General. If the quotas shall not be filled within the time designated by the President, the Provost Marshal is to make a draft for the number deficient, but all volunteers who may enlist after the draft shall have been ordered, and before it shall be actually made, shall be deducted from the number ordered to be drafted in any ward, town, lownship, precinct, or election district, or sounty.

sounty. Precinct, or election district, or sounty.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—The following is the Queen's speech delivered on the opening of the British Parliament:

speech delivered on the opening of the Britian Parliament:

My Lords and Gents: We are commissioned to assure you that Her Majesty has great satisfaction in recurring again to the advice and assistance of her Parliament. Her Majesty is confident that you will share her feelings of gratitude to Almighty God on account of the Princess of Wales having given birth to a son, an event which has called forth from her faithful people renewed demonstrations of devoted loyalty and attachment to her person and family.

The state of affairs on the Continent of Europe has been the cause of great anxiety to her Majesty. The death of the King of Denmark brought into immediate application the stipulations of the treaty of May, 1852, concluded by His Majesty, the Emperor of Austria, the Emperor of Russia and the King of Prussia, the Emperor of Russia and the King of Hanover, the King of Saxony, the King of Wirtemburg, the King of the Netherlands, the Queen of Spain, the King of Portugal and the King of Italy.

That treaty declared that it is conducive to the Wirtemburg, the King of the Netherlands, the Queen of Spain, the King of Portugal and the King of Italy.

That treaty declared that it is conducive to the preservation of the balance of power and the peace of Europe that the integrity of the Danish monarchy should be maintained, and that the several territories which have hitherto been under the sway of the late King of Deumark should continue so to remain, and for this purpose it was that upon the death of the late king and of his uncle, the Prince Frederick, without issue, his majesty King Christian should be acknowledged as succeeding to all the cominions then united under the sceptre of his majesty the King of Denmark.

Her Majesty, actuated by the same desire to preserve the peace which was one of the declared objects of all the powers who were parties to that treaty, has been unremitting in her endeavors to bring to a peaceful settlement the differences which in the matter have arisen between Denmark and Germany, and to avert the dangers which might follew from the beginning of warfare in the north of Europe; and Her Majesty will continue her efforts in the interest of peace.

The barbarous murders and brutal assaults committed in Japan upon subjects of Her Majesty rendered it necessary that demands should be made upon the Japanese Government, and upon the Daimics, by whose retainers some of those outliness were committed.

Daimios, by whose retainers some of those outrages were committed.

The Government of the Tycoon complied with all the demands made upon them by her Majesty's Government, and full satisfaction laving been made, the friendly relations between the two Governments have continued unbroken; but the Daimio Prince Satsuma refusing to comply with the just and moderate demands which were made upon him, his refusal rendered measures of coercion necessary, and her Majesty regrets that while the measures have brought the Daimios to an agreement, they led incidentally to the destruction of a considerable portion of the town of Kagosima. The papers on the subject will be laid before you.

an agreement, they led incidentally to the destruction of a considerable portion of the town of Ragosima. The papers on the subject will be laid before you.

The insurrection which broke out last year among some portion of the native inhabitants of New Zealand, still, unfortunately, continues, but there is now reason to hope that it will, before long, be put down.

Her Majesty commands us to inform you that she has concluded a treaty with the Emperors of France and of Austria, and the King of Prussia, by which her Majesty consents to give up the protectorate of the Ionian Islands, and also agrees to the annexation of the Islands to the Kingdom of Greece. This treaty shall be laid before you. Her Majesty is also negotiating a treaty with the Kingdom of Greece.

Gentiamen of the House of Commons. Her Majesty has desired the estimates for the ensuing year to be laid before you. They have been prepared with every attention to economy and with a due regard to the efficiency of the public service.

My Lords and Gents.: Her Majesty commands us to inform you that the condition of the country is, on the whole, satisfactory. The revenue hasfully realized its expected amount

The commerce of the Kingdom is increasing and the distress in the manufacturing districts has been forward to an increased supply of cotton from vasuppy down manufacturers with the material for their industry.

Her Majesty has directed that a commission shall be issued for revising the various forms for subscription required to be made by the Established Church. A copy of that commission will be submitted for your consideration.

subscription required to be made by the Established Church. A copy of that commission will be laid before you.

Various measures of public usefulness will be submitted for your consideration.

Mer Mujesty commits with confidence the great interests of the country to your wisdom and care, and she fervently hopes that the blessing of Almighty God may attend your deliberations, and prosper your councils for the advancement and the welfare and happiness of her people.

London, Feb. 4.—The Times seems inclined to cast upon Parliament the task of deciding the policy of the Cabinet. It says the future course of British policy rests with the House of Commons.

Great anxiety is felt throughout England for the meeting of Parliament, to learn the policy of the Government on the Uanish question.

The Morning Herald asserts that the Government will do nothing for Denmark. The Peace Society has memorialized Lord Russell against any intervention on the part of England.

it is rumored that Lord Derby and D'Israeli will make a strong attack on Earl Russell's policy, and also that the Cabinet, with the exception of Russell and Gladstone, are prepared to support

An embargo would be placed on the German shipping at Copenhagen on the 3d.

The Times says that the question whether a state of war on the part of Austria and Prussia against Denmark, now definitely existing, is such as to imperit the ships of those nations at present in por in this country, if they should put to sea and meet Danish cruisers, has been the subject of anxious discussion on the part of Prussiae interests. There is apparently little doubt upon the subject, and German commerce will likely soon pass into the hands of neutrals.

Field Marshal Wranzel, in a proclamation to the Schleswigers, says he is there to protect their rights and that the Civil Commissioners of Austria and Prussia will assume the administration of the duchies of Schleswig and Helstein.

It is asserted that Napoleon is more resolved than ever to take no active part in the Danish question, but to leave the difficulty to England.
