THE NATIONAL UNION CONVENTION. MEETING OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE-BALTI-MORE THE PLACE-JUNE 7, THE TIME.

Washington, Feb. 22 .- The National Executive Committee, appointed at the Chicago Convention which nominated Abraham Lincoln for President, met to-day at one o'clock P. M. at the residence of Senator Morgan, Chairman of the Sub-Committee. Senator Morgan called the Committee to order, and Hon. E. McPher son, of Pennsylvania, was unanimously chosen Secretary. A general discussion was had as to the form of call, the time and the place. The attempt to have it called at Columbus, Ohio was abandoned. Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore were taken into consideration, and it was finally agreed to call it for Baltimore, upon

An earlier day was wanted by some of the members, while others wanted it after the Democratic Convention, to enable them to take advantage of any weakness exhibited by them. A proposition was adopted in the shape of a resolution to allow no States to send delegates except such as were represented in Congress. The following was adopted:

Resolved That while this committee has not the authority to decide that the territories and District of Columbia may be represented in the National Convention, it would nevertheless invite said territories and district to send delegates, subject to the decision of the Convention as to their rights in the premises.

The following resolution was adopted, and will be issued at once:

THE UNION NATIONAL CONVENTION. The undersigned, who, by original appointment, or subsequent delegation to fill vacancies, constitute the Executive Committee created by the National Convention held at Chicago on the 16th of May, 1860, do hereby call upon all qualified voters who desire the unconditional maintenance of the Union, the supremacy of the Constitution and the complete suppression of the existing rebellion with the cause thereof, by a vigorous war and all ant and efficient to send delegates to a convention to assemble at Baltimore, on Tuesday the seventh day of June, 1864, at twelve noon, for the purpose of presenting candidates for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States. Each State having a representation in Congress will be entitled to as many delegates as shall be equal to twice the number of electors to which each State is entitled in the electoral college of the

THE MARYLAND UNION STATE CONVEN

TION.
'BALTIMORE, Feb. 22:—The Maryland Union State Convention met this morning, at Temperance Temple, and was called to order by Collector Hoffman. There was a full attendance of delegates, and from some counties two sets of delegates contesting their rights to seats. Sebastian F. Streeter, of Baltimore, was called to the chair, and George M. Russum, of Caroline county, was appointed secretary. The following resolutions were adopted by the Convention: Resolved, That the delegates elected by this Convention to the National Convention, be, and they are hereby instructed to vote for

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, first, last, and all the time. Resolved, That this Convention is in favor of the entire and immediate abolition of slavery in this State, and in the States in rebellion, and is opposed to any reorganization of State Governments in those States which do not recognize the immediate and final-abolishment of slavery as a condition precedent; that this Convention expresses its sympathy with the radical emancipationists in Missouri and Arkansas, Tennessee and Louisiana, and regrets that influences in the Cabinet have, in Maryland and those States, depressed the efforts of the radical friends of the Administration and of emancipation, and given prominence to those who are the unwilling advocates of eman-

Resolved, That this Convention fully approves of the proclamation of amnesty of President Lincoln, and regards it as calculated to weaken and destroy the rebellion, restore the Union and give harmony to the country, and make us a great and prosperous nation.

H. H. Goldsborough, J. A. J. Cresswell and H. W. Hoffman were elected delegates at large.

All the counties of the State were represented with the exception of Charles county. LAST EVENING AT THE UNION LEAGUE. The hall was illuminated early in the evening, while over the main entrance, in letters formed of gas jets, blazed the name of "Washington." Banners and battle flags, dating from Lundy's Lane to Gettysburg, draped the front of the house, and out into the darkness of the night gleamed the cheery illumination from the massive chandeliers in every apartment of the spacious edifice. A very handsome collation was served, and distinguished guests in considerable numbers poured in. Major General Hancock, General Gibbons, Lieut. Col. West, of the 22d Wisconsin, just escaped from the Libby Prison, and C. William Hoffman, whose regiment brought on the general action at Gettysburg, were among those present. There were also a number of clergymen and invited guests. The tables were magnificently spread and decorated, dotted at intervals with bouquets of rare exotics, while the same beautiful objects depended in hanging baskets overhead. Ample justice was done to the entertainment; but the sociality was such that no speaking was required. Colonel West gave a narrative of his escape from the Libby, and that was the only exception. An effort was made to extort a speech from Colonel Hoffman, but he declined really wonderful display of fireworks, occupying fully an hour in their "delivery." The pieces of pyrotechnics were very handsome, some of them covering many square feet in extent. A vast multitude of people witnessed the display. So densely thronged was Chestnut street that the passenger cars could not pass.

The festivity of the evening closed with a

Our report of the Flag presentation at the Union League, yesterday, was necessarily hurried. We now add to the addresses of Messrs. Dougherty and Baker, on that occasion, the speech of Morton McMichael, Esq., with which the ceremonies were opened. The speech was as follows:

"In behalf of the Union League, Ladies, I bid you welcome. Under any circumstances your presence here would be a source of gratification to the managers and members, and it is especially so this day, as well on account of the associations connected with it, as of the purpose to which, in part, you propose to de-"The birth of Washington-inaugurating, as

But the rebellion, which—grim, and gaunt, and gory, carrying before it desolation, and leaving behind it tears—now stalks abroad through the Southern portions of the land, inflicting upon those who evoked it the fiercest and most terrible retribution, has roused us to the renewed performance of a neglected duty; and the long lines of citizen-soldiers which are at this moment sweeping in stately procession through our densely crowded streets, enlivened on their march by the roll of drums and the

To other voices than mine belong the agreeable and grateful offices of presenting and accepting this superb token of your favor; and I congratulate you on the felicitous choice you have made of a representative in the person of him whom we, as well as you, claim as our orator, my accomplished friend, Mr. Dougherty. While endeavoring, so far as we might, to equal your good fortune in this respect, we have seected as the recipient of your gift our poet, the poet of our country, my no plished friend, Mr. Boker. And, ladies, when I recall the frequent occasions since this mad war-now happily and rapidly, let us hope, hastening to its close—was begun by wicked traitors, on which the clarion tones of the one have rung out clear, and loud, and strong in the assertion and vindication of the right; and how
