Mr. Gillingham succeeded in naking his escape and reached Alexandria. A scouting party of the 1st Michigan Cavalry, under command of Sergeant Maybin, went out on

THE WEST AND THE NEXT PRESIDENCY. [Special Despatch to the Bulletin.]
CINCINNATI, Feb. 25.—The action of the Indiana State Convention, in instructing delegates to the National Convention to cast their votes for Presient Lincoln, is considered decisive as to the West. Had the resolution so instructing gone to the com. nittee room, without debate, and not been put to a re'e of the Convention in mass, it would not have een heard of. Five out of eleven congressional listricts in caucus had voted against instructing. The resolution may, therefore, be considered a trimph of the people over the politicians.

The result of the Louisville Freedom Conven on, so for as President-making is concerned, is ne defeat of the Missouri radical scheme to estab sh a Rad cal National party. The vote stood 69 o 53 against the new party movement, Missourians actusively voting for it. The Arkansas and Tenessee delegates stood with Kentucky against any vision of the Union party.

THE GREAT

CENTRAL FAIR,

FOR THE Sanitary Commission.

Philadelphia, 1307 Chestnut Stree February 20, 1864.

The undersigned, members of the Executive Committee of the GREAT UENTRAL FAIR for the Sanitary Commission, beg to invite the co-operation of all their fellow-citizens, especially of those resident in Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey, in this important enterprise. It is proposed to hold the Fair in Philadelphia, in the FIRST WEEK IN JUNE NEXT, and it is confidently expected that the contributions coming from a popula ion so benevolent and patriotic as that which inhabits the Central States, and repre-senting the most important and varied branches of industry and art, will secure a result in aid of the funds of the Commission, and for the benefit of the Soldier, at least equal to that which has attended sin ilar undertakings in other cities. It is not necessary to say a word to stimulate sympathy for the soldier. We feel for them all as brethren, and the popular heart seeks only the best mode of manifesting that sympathy in the most efficient and practical way. These fairs in other places have been productive of great results. By this means Chicago has recently raised for thi object $60,000, Boston $150,000, and Oincinnati more than $200,000. We appeal, then, with the greatest confidence to the inhabitants of the Central States, especially to those who constitute the great industrial classes, to send as contributions the productions of their skill and workmanship. We appeal to them in the interest of no party, radical or conservative, Republican or Democratic Administration or anti-Administration. We know only this, that to send our national soldiers in the field supplies to supplement those Goverment un der:akes to give them, but which they sometimes fail to receive, and thus to relieve them when sick and in misery, is a work of Christian charity, and that it is a work of intelligent patriotism also, as economizing their life, health and efficiency, on which, under God, the nation depends in this its ime of trouble.

We therefore ask every clergyman to announce this humane undertaking to his people, and to advise them to do what they can to further it. We ask the press to give it the widest publicity and the most earnest encouragement. We call on every workshop, factory and mill for a specimen of the pest thing it can turn out; on every artist, great and small, for one of his creations; on all loyal women, for the exercise of their taste and industry; on farmers, for the products of their fields and dairies. The miner, the naturalist, the man of science, the traveler, can each send scmething that can at the very least be converted into a blanket that will warm, and may save from death, some one soldier whom government supplies have failed to reach. Every one who can produce anyhing that has money value is invited to give a sample of his best work as an offering to the cause of national unity. Every workingman, mechanic or farmer, who can make a pair of shoes or raise a parrel of apples, is called on to contribute some thing that can be turned into money, and again from money into the means of economizing the health and the life of our national soldiers. Committees have been appointed in each department of industry and art, whose business it will be to solicit contributions for the Fair, each in its own special branch. These Committees will place themselves in communication with those persons who may wish to aid us. In the meantime it is recommended that local committees or associations should be formed in every portion of Pennsylva-nia, Delaware and New Jersey, with a view of organizing the industry of their respective neighborhoods, so as to secure contributions for the Fair.

Committees of Ladies have also been organized to co operate with those of the gentlemen in soli-A list of all these Committees will be shortly published and distributed. In the meantime tho who are disposed to aid us, or who may desire any further information on the subject, are requested to address CHARLES J. STILLE, Corresponding Secretary of the Executive Committee of the Great Central Fair, 1307 CHESINUT Street. JOBN WELSH, Chairman
