To-Day's Proceedings in Congress.

FROM GEN. GRANT'S ARMY. CINCINNATI, Feb. 27 .- The Gazette's Tunnel Hill despatch of the 26th says:

On Thursday night our troops fell back to Tunnel Hill, which place is to be held. The reconnoissance was entirely successful, and developed the fact that the enemy was in force at Ealton. Claiborne's division, which had been sent to reinforce Gen. Polk, was recalled, and got back in time to participate in the fight. This was one important result accomplished. Our entire loss was 300, but the rebels suffered more severely. The Commercial's Huntsville (Ala.) despatch says that reliable information shows that Longstreet is falling back to Atlanta. Part of his force reached there en the 25th. large portion of his forces are without shoes, and many nearly naked. Wheeler has been relieved of the command of the rebel cavalry by Breckinridge and Buckner, who are preparing for a raid in Kentucky.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

NEW YORK. Feb. 27.—A correspondence passed between Generals Peck and Pickett, in relation to the death of Oolonel Shaw, and the subsequent execution by the rebels of a negro soldier for his alleged murderer. General Peck says, "The Government of the United States has wisely seen fit to enlist many thousand colored soldiers to assist in putting down the rebellion, and has placed them on the same footing, in all respects, as her white troops." He encloses a copy of the President's order on the subject, that for every soldier of the United States killed in violation of the laws of war, a rebel shall be executed, etc., and adds, Believing that this atrocity has been perpetrated without your knowledge, and that you will take prompt steps to disavow this violation of the isages of war, and to bring the offenders to justice I shall refrain from executing a rebel soldier until I learn your action in the premises.

General Pickett replies under date of Peteraburg, Va., Feb. 16th, that had he caught any negro who had killed either officer, soldier or citizen of the Confederate States, he would have caused him to be immediately executed, and states that he has in his possession four hundred and fifty officers and men of the United States army, and for every man General Peck executes he will hang ten of them.

FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.]
WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Senate will pass the resolution extending the time of giving bounties to April 1st. The draft is not to be postponed. .The whiskey bill may fail entirely; for the Ways will introduce a new one into the House. The House meets to-day, but only buncombe speeches are in order: No business will be done. No important military news has been received at the War Department this morning.

IMPORTANT FROM FRANCE. NEW YORK, Feb. 27 .- The Paris correspondent

of the Times says that since the arrival of M. Mercier from Washington he has joined his efforts with those of Mr. Dayton in setting the government right on the state of the war in America, and used his influence to prevent any breach of international law in connection with the Confederate shins in French ports. The decision of the government in the case of the Rappahannock has therefore been changed, and she will probably be detained Washington, February 27.

House.—To-day is specially set apart for speech making.

Mr. Harding (Ky.) argued against the President's plan of reconstruction, characterizing the scheme as mapped out by the master builder with a pencil dipped in blood. He assumed that the secession ordinances were void, and on the termination of the rebellion the revolting States have a right to return with all their privileges under the Constitution.

under the Constitution.

Mr. Deming (Conn.) maintained that though the President's plan is not beyond cavil, it is as complete and comprehensive as the intricacies of the subject will permit, and possesses the rare merit of the justice of the Government to the insurgent States and to the slave.

THE RE-ORGANIZATION OF TENNESSEE. CAIRO, Feb 26—From the Memphis Bulletin I learn that the adjourned meeting of the convention of the loyal people of West Tennessee, which met on the evening of the 23d, was a large and enthusuastic affair. Mr. Morgan, the President, congratulated the Convention on the unanimity of sentiment displayed, and boped that the emancipation platform adopted would continue to gather strength and adherents till the last vestige of slavery should be abolished from the State.

Mr. Brown was about sixty-nine years of age, and during his long career was an enterprising citizen and a successful business man. He was identified with several of our puolic institutions, among others as one of the Managers of the Pennsylvania Insane Asylum, and as one of the trustees and principal owners of the Laurel Hill Cemetery. He leaves a widew, three sons and a daughter.

The quots of the Ward will be filled, and the Ward exempted from draft, if the citizens of the Ward will place sufficient funds at the disposal of the Bounty Fund Commi tee. The Committee will sit from seven to nine, at the Hall, for that purpose.

methods of ordinary "Commercial Colleges" is unquestioned.

The advantages of this institution are in all respect of a superior order. The rooms are furnished in the best and most substantial manner, and arranged with business offices, countinghouses, stationery, store, telegraph offices, and a bank, supplied with elegantly engraved lithographic notes, to be used by students in the practical routine of business which is carried on as systematically as in the best regulated commercial and financial establishments.

The patronage which this institution is now enjoying, equaling, it is believed, that of any two other commercial schools in the city, is sufficient evidence of its standing among business men, and of the prestige its graduates will have in obtaining good situations.

IMPORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS .- One of the

IMPORTANT TO HOUSEKEEPERS.—One of the most attractive stores to housekeepers in quest of bargains is that of Mr. Granville B. Haines, No. 1013 Market street. Go there when you will, this store is always crowded with customers; at times some are obliged to leave unable to get waited on. The secret of the success is now no longer a secret. Every lady knows that at this store she can buy muslins, sheetings, napkins, table cloths, linens and staple goods generally, at prices below the regular rates. Those who are about to replenish their household stock, should read his advertisement in another column, and cut it out for future reference.

COURTS. NISI PRIUS—Chief Justice Woodward.—The Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company vs. The Beaver Meadow Railroad Company. This morning Mr. George W. Wharton concluded the argument on behalf of the complainants, and the Court held the case under advisement, MUTUAL

PERSONAL.

Wallace De Witt, Esq., has entered his bond as Prothonotary of the Supreme Court for the Middle listrict of Pennsylvania. Mr. De Witt acceeds R. E. Ferguson, Esq, who died on the 14th inst., having only beld the place since November, when he succeeded Hon. W. H. Miller. Mr. De Witt received the votes of all the Judges of the Supreme Court except that of Judge Agnew. Of this we have official information, and we are only surprised at the blunder of the Harrisburg Telegraph in announcing that Judge Agnew had voted for him. The Telegraph should correct its error, and it might add that one rea on v hy Mr. De Witt received the votes of all the judges who had been longer in office than Judge Agnew, was that they were acquainted with him while he held the post of Assistant State Librarian, and his duties requiring his constant attendance on the court during its Harrisburg sessions.

The funeral of the late Chief Justice Whelpley, at Morristown, New Jersey, on Thursday, was very largely attended, the Second Presbyterian Church, in which the ceremony took place, being crowded to excess by the friends and neighbors of the deceased, and by representatives from all the leading interests of the State.

The 163rd Pennsylvania Regiment, Col. McLean, passed through Alexandria on Thursday, on the way to the front.

Many do not insure from fear of becoming unable to meet their premiums, and thereby lose all they have paid. This need not happen in this Com-pany, as the cash value of the policy will be given the Company, after the second year's premium has been paid; or the dividend may be taken in reduction of premium, instead of adding to the sum insured, so that in a few years, THERE WOULD BELITTLE OR NOTHING TO PAY.

A gentleman in this city, insured in 1846, under Policy No. 2,088, for $10,000. Being unable to pay the premium due last month, he has so applied his dividends that he has nothing more to pay on his policy of ten thousand dollars, but will annually receive from the Company $81 39 in cash, and his policy of ten thousand dollars will still participate in future dividends during the remainder of his life.

In other words, the Company continues the Policy, free of expense to him, and contributes to the support of himself and

It cleanses and renovates the blood, instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body and expels the disorders that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit certificates to show its effect, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken.
