Mr. Seymour Fitzgerald called attention to the circumstances attending the capture of certain British vessels by Federal cruisers, and the murder of one of the orew of the barque Saxon by a Federal lieutenant, &c. He asserted that Earl Russell had not done enough in the matter, and moved for the correspondence.

The Attorney-General opposed the motion and said the principle of prize adjudication in A nerical was the same as mlEngland and that the disposition of the American Government was very fair and just. During the general debate several speckers charged the Government with a trucking poticy towards the American Government.

Lord Palmerston said it was due to the American Government to say that they invariably received England's representations in a spirit of equality and justice. He quoted the Trent case as an evidence of a desire to do right. It was prejudicial to the good understanding between powers to accuse foreign Governments of act. of which they were not will to the good understanding between provents.

The resolution was withdrawn.

It is questionable if the report be true that two first-class English houses, sufferers by rebel cruisers, are about to despatch one of the fast-st stemmers allout, in pursuit of the pirates. It is suggested that this may be another rebel dodge.

is suggested that this may be another rebeit dodge.

It is confirmed that England has proposed an armistice on the basis of the evacuation of Schres wig by the Danes. Russia, France, and Sweden support the proposition, and it is stated that Austria assents. The result is not yet known.

Nothing but a mere skirmish is reported from the seat of war. The Germans were receiving large reinforcements, and were making preparations against Alsen. The Prussians occupied Attona in spite of the Federal protests.

The Bank of France gained thirteen and a half millions of specie during the month.

Mazzin has been indicted as an accomplice in the late plot against the life of Napoleon.

AATION OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN.

An enthusiastic meeting of the soldiers connected with the Citizens' Volunteer Hospital, Broad and Prime streets, was held in the clining hall, on Saturday evening. The room was tastefestoons, forming a canopy over the speakers. In the back-ground was the motto: Let us sustain the Government by our voices which we have defended in the field," which was displayed in bold letters the width of the room.

Eloquent speeches were delivered by the worthy Chaplain, F. W. Olmstand; Sergeant Matthews, of Michigan; Corporal Taylor, of New Hampshire; Privates Ela, of Maine; Eaton, of Minnesota; Ewart, of Pennsylvania; and others, after which the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The approaching contest for the Presidency is one fraught with weal or woo to our beloved blood-bought land; involving—the mighty question whether we shall treat with treason and admit that for three years we have pursued a myth; that the monuments erected to the memory of the brave and honored dead have been reased in vain. Listlighe, millions of money so freely expended be but a nation's tribute to the base ingratitude of the South, whose pampered leaders have heaped insuit and contumely upon ourselves and comrades? Or shall we press nooly forward to victory, and crush the unnatural rebellion now desolating our land by a determined projecution of the war, and show all enemies that we are determined fossupport the Government, and to maintain unimpaired the glorious privileges of free institutions handed down to us by our fore-athers? Therefore, the soldiers who, by reason of wounds received in battle, are now in the ('itizens' Volunteer Hospital, having assembled in maks meeting for the interchange of opinion on the political aspect of affairs, do Resolve, That in reviewing the course of the present Administration we do not perceive what more could have been done than has been accomplished by our able President in advancing the objects for which the war is waged, and that we deem it impolitic in the present national crisis that any change should be made in the administration of the Government, except such as may be shown to be necessary by the subsequent course of events. Resolved, That we recognize in Abraham Lincoln the runding star of our hopes—one whose wisdom, aided by sage counsellors, will eventually bring us from under the lowering cloud that now, shadows our national prospects to the more perfect day of glorjous peace; and his re-election to his present position will best accomplish the objects for which the war is waged, and be a just tribute to his wisdom, integrity and patriotism.

Resolved, That we carnestly recommend Abrariotism.

Revolved, That we earnestly recommend Abraham Liucoln for re-nomination, and call upon our friends at home, and companions in the field, to aid us by voice and vote to secure his renomination aid us by voice and vote to secure his renomination and re-election, believing by such a cours, we shall show the rebels we are determined to cruth their internal schemes and to maintain the integrity of our free institutions.

Resolved, That the officers of the meeting be directed to publish the proceedings, signed by a delegate form cach State represented.

The resolutions having been adopted, the meeting adjutined. JOS. H. HICKS, President. Jos. S. EATON, Secretary.

Ship Harpswell, from Philadelphia, at Montevideo Dec 15, was struck by lightning the day after her arrival, during a territic thunder storm, which carried away the main and mizzen topgallant masts, splitting the mizzen mast and foretepmast, and sprung head of foremast. The lightning came down the mizzenmast into the cabin, tearing everything to pieces and going through the cabin into the hold, starting off a number of planks on the outside of the vessel, causing her to leak two inches of water per hour. It also rented the mainmast, but nothing serious. Capt Rogers says: It seemed to mis that, after I came to my senses, the ship was torn entirely to pieces, I am now waiting to get out my cargo, so as to estimate the damages, which will be heavy, but I shall do the best I can.
