XXXVIIITH CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27, 1864. HOUSE HOUSE. - No in the ving been agreed that nothing sent resterday, it having been agreed that nothing should be done to-day except the making of speeches Mr. Dawes occupied the chair, and the Presi-dent's annual messinge was announced as the themeson discussion. Mr. Harding (Ky.) referred to a former declara tion of the President, that the Union was unorokea, ord thet all secession ordinances are unli and void.

Mr. Harding (Ky.) referred to a former declara ston of the President, that the Union was unorosea, and that all secession ordinances are null and void. In this view he concurred, and, therefore, whod-inger the rebellion shall be supprised, whod-ing States are thereby restored with all their rights and privileges in the Union under the Federal and State governments. This view was sound, and was acquiesced in by conservatives and Damo crats. But the President had changed, aud, and presented a scheme for reconstruction more de-structive than the old doctrine of State Rights. The scheme was mapped out by the master builder with a pencil dipped in blood. Persons are to voteljust as the President may direct. The effect was, the iron tread of despotism was coushing out the last vestige of constitutional liberty, and leaving noth-ing but desolation. It would establish the imost odious abolition oligarchy of a savaze and crael character, and it was enough to fire any man³, versing in which runs a' drop of Revolutionary blood. Fanaticism and sectional hate had plutged the nation into bloody horrors, the joint work of abolition and secession—twin herethere in guilt and crime. Mr. Deming (Conn.) said the President's scheme like all reargades, they denounce those who have always been consistent on the subject of emancipation. For himself, he was always willing to ac-cept gradual emancipation, and when the people of that State cestred immediate emancipation he would the more than ready to accopt it. Us en-tered upon an exposition of the subject, charging that these radicals had sough to deceive the Union men by misrepresentations and were not, as the

that these radicals had sough to deceive the Union men by misrepresentations and were not, as the record shows, in favor of immediate emancipation, having refused to vote for it in convention when they had the power to carry it. He repeated tha they were fails to their proclaimed principles. Mr. Blair replied to the remarks formerly de-livered by Wr. Davis (Md.) saying the latter was brought into pointcal life by as secret Know Nothing organization which wars degainst in par-ticular white man, and who was the most rancor-ous and malignant of its leaders; and this was the man who has assailed the colonization scheme, mean while pretending to be a friend of the Admin-istration. As to the recent convention in Balti-mo e, it was compelled to uominate Mr. Lincoln, as the people of the State were for him. But dark lattern associations still exist in Maryland, and hence is ome delegates were elected professediy for Mr. Lincoln, but to be tray their frust—one of Sa-cretary Chase's assessors declaring he would vote for whom he neared Wr. Bust aver each bit is a sociation who who he here the would vote for whom he neared Wr. Bust ark Mr. Lincoln, but to betray their trust—one of Sa-cretary Chase's assessors declaring he would vote for whom he plezsed. Mr. Blair 'expressed his surprise that representatives from Indiana and other States had been caught in a trap by signing a paper asking for the rejection, by the Senate, of Schoffeld as Major General. "Mr. Wilson (Ind.) denied that the delegation of That State was caught in a tran. He knew what the paper was, and that't fold the trath "Mr. Grinnell (Ind.) said the Missouri militia came from Northern Missouri into the southern portion of his district, stealing horses and plun dering ben-roosts. They threatened to blow no the court-house and to unite themselves with Knights of the Golden Circles. Mr. Blair replied that was not sufficient ground

Knights of the Golden Circles. Mr. Biair replied that was not sufficient ground against Schoffeld, while a few such men may have been passed over, the attention of the commanding ollicer was directed to another quarter. Mr. Grinnell repeated, Schoffeld was not as true to his trust as he ought to have been, and was results in figurene to degrade radical men.

The bo his trust 25 he ought to have been, and was using his influence to degrade radical men. Mr. Bhir said enemics sought to rely of mis-reprepresentation to injure Gen. Schofield, and thus make an issue against the President. The Navy Department courted investigation, but not so with the Treasury Department. A more profligate al-ministration than that of the latter never existed in any country. The country was redolent with the fraud and corruption of the agents. Ag in and again permits to trade were sold to the flighest bid-der; and recently in Baltimore, a permit was given to a notorions blockade runner, whose vessels had more than once been seized. If Mr Chuse's friends had thought these tilings could not be proved they would doubtless have voled for an in-vestigation. In alluding to Mr Pomeroy's recent secret circular, he spoke of its design as an in-fied every day Chase remained in the caoinst maie a portfolio, but the President was doubless satus-fled every day Chase remained in the caoinst maie him sink deeper in the contempt of every honora-ble man. Mr. Blair gave notice of his intention-to introis influence to degrade radical men. ble man. Mr. Blarr gave notice of his intention to intro-dice a resolution on Monday, to inquire into the affairs of the Treasury Department in connection with trade regulations in Mississippi. Mr. Donnelly (Min.) addressed the committee for an hour, on the importance of encouraging foreign immigration and an advocacy of a bill foreign immigration, and an advocacy of a bill heretofore introduced by him to establish a bureau of immigration
