Attorney-General Bates closed his argument for Uncle Sam to-day in the Quictsilver case, before the Supreme Court, and was followed by Judge Black for the Fosset claim, owned by the Company. Owing to Judge Black's being unwell he was compelled to cut off his argument and go home and the Court adjourned until to-morrow Mr. Bradley, before the House Military Committee, to-day, closed his argument against making the Raritan Bay Railroad a military and postal road. Clarence Seward was then heard for the Raritan Bay Railroad. The committee will report next week perate against Richmond.

As some controversy exists in Tennessee concerning the test oath prescribed by Governor Johnson in his late proclamation, and as questions have been raised as to its incompatibility with the President's Amnesty proclamation, it is proper to say that it is known in Washington beyond any doubt, that the President and Governor Johnson are in perfect accord in the matter of providing for a general election in that State, with the view of restoring Tennessee to her former position in the Union, and that the President does not consider the Govnors, form of eath on the qualification of voters as incongruous with that which he himself has prescribed to be taken as preliminary to pardon, but rather as an oath which should be respected and enforced, and of this fact there is reason to believe the people of Tennessee will be duly informed.

The bill supplementary to the loan act having passed both Houses now only awaits the President's approval to become a law. Several days ago the House of Representatives called upon the President to furnish a statement showing the number of re-enlisted veterans from each State, and other information in that connection. To this the President replied, inclosing a letter from the Secretary of War, who says that in his opinion it would prove prejudicial to the public service to transmit to the House at the present time the information requested.

AN ELOQUENT DENUNCIATION OF TREASON.

ADDRESS OF HON. P. C. BRINCK IN THE NEW JERSEY LEGISLATURE.

A bill proposed by the Copperheads is before the New Jerrey Legislature, in reference to soldiers ttending elections. It is ostensibly to protect the ballot box against military interference, but is really intended to insult and injure the National Government.

The main advocate of the bill appears to be Thomas Dunn English, one of the most notorious Ucpperheads in New Jersey. He was ably replied to on the 25th air by Hon. P. C. Brinck, Union of Camden county. The reporter of the New York Daily News borrowed Mr. Brinck's MS. , and subsequently refused to return it, evidently hoping thus to suppress himeloquent and loyal utterances. Mr. B., however, re-wrote his remarks, and we present them to our readers with great pleasure. They are as follows:

They are as follows:

Mr. Speaker—I hope the gentleman will not withdraw his motion. So far as objections to the bill are concerned, it is its sure condemnation. As we pass along the great highway of life, we occasionally meet with much that appears to be made up of opposites, not unlike "Nebuchadnezzar's image" composed of gold, silver, brass, iron, and its base of non and clay mixed—parts of each complete within itself, presenting upon the whole a very luderous figure, and effaiting nor itself attention at a very hopportune moment. At a timperhaps, when a slow-moving funeral procession is bearing one to its last resting place, the attention of the spectators are called off by a loud laugh as some harleouin presseus itself, with all its anders, and, no withstanding the solemnity of its antics, and, no withstanding the solemnity of the occasion, such is its riviculousness as to c nthe occasion, such is its riviculousness as to onvulse all with laughter. If it be found, however, that the guilty trifier is not only outraging all the finer feelings of the human heart, but that it contained elements of the most inflammable and incradiary character, and that from out of it, are ready tospring elements of evil and danger—like the fabled Trojan Horse or Pandora's Box. scatering death and destruction among the hapless triends and spectators; I think it would be found that the joke had raised a storm and kindled a fire which would require more power than he coald grace upon their own State, in its endeavors to crush out the war 'raging in that same year, as it had been for these years previous.

Or may I venture even to 'hope against bope', that gentlemen will pause before they sink their State further into disgrace by such an act of legislation as this iniquitous bill calls for; that they will discover that, although at first glance this bill may appear innocent and harmless, yet, 'hop a further examination, 'it is evil, and only evil, as I assume Gentlemen will re-dily secthatif-this bill is passed and becomes the law of the land, it will of necessity be inoperative, and become as a dead letter, for it will be remembered that American soldiers will go where and when they please, and not submit to treatment as outlaws, at the dictum of a splirt-perhaps under the influence of such as are in the pay of the Rebels themselves. Do not be startled, for I have long been of the opinion that such are to be found among the Copperheads of the State of N. Jersey. This will become platings, sir, when I ask.—What has not been done, or attempted to be done by 4 opperheads in our midst that would have been done by rebels if they had the opportunity? And allow me to ask.—Will you submit to such leadership, by being whipped into the line at this time, while the blessings we are now mit to such leadership, by being whipped into the line at this time, while the blessings we are now enjoying are only ours from day, to day, as the richest blood is being poured out which ever steined our sin-cursed earth? or will you throw of the trammels, and thus consign this bill, with its Copperhead originators, to that infamy and contempt which it so richly merits? The answer is with you.

THE WARD BOUNTY COMMITTEES.

An adjourned meeting of the Representatives of the Ward Bounty Committees was held last night at the Board of Trade Rooms.

Mr. Isaniel Steinmetz presided. The Chairman stated that the object for which the meeting was called was to endeavor to raise a fund for volunteeing purposes. It was proposed to solicit the various places of amusements in the city to contribute the proceeds of one night to the Bounty Fund Committee; and a proposition was also presented to make a similar application to the different Passenger Railway Companies. A number of the employes of the theatres and of the railway companies have similar depressed to give a day's labor to that purpose.

The different wards then reported on the condition of their respective districts. THE WARD BOUNTY COMMITTEES.
