ARRIVAL OF REFUGEES AT HARRISBURG. ERRIVAL OF BEF CORDS

[From the Harrisburg Telegraph, March 3.]

On Thesday morning, seven womes with fourteen children, varying in age from the suckling babe to the boy-of fifteen and the girl of eighteen years old, arrived in this city, wanderers and fugitives from the land of treason, oppression and starvation. sabe to the boyon mired in this city, wanderers and fugitives from the land of treason, oppression and starvation.

These fugitives are the families of men who have been conscripted in the rebel army, but who fied from the conscription officers for the purpose of making their escape to the North. It appears that the husbands of three of the women were marked Union men, who had been conscripted, but who carefully cluded the rebel officers, and managed to make their escape North, with the understanding that their families should meet them at this point. The finglity accordingly left their homes in Rocking; ham county, Va., and proceeded with a two and one-horse wagon, as far as Sperryville, when the wagons broke down. The distance from Rocking ham to Sperryville is about fifty miles, along the bleakest and roughest portions of the Blue Ridge, a region of country which the ravages of the rebels have left perfectly desolate. Unable to proceed from Sperryville, on account of the wrecked wagons, the women here made a contract with a farmer to carry the children as far as the Union lines, about ten miles from Unipeper Court House, for which service they gave the three horses and the wagons. The old man who had agreed to carry the children as far as Culpeper Court House, seeing the utter helplessness of the party when they reached that point, agreed in pity, to carry them as far as Brandy. Station. It must be remembered that this journey was tedious, sad and weary. Two weeks were occupied in reaching Brandy Station. While the party had sufficient tood, the children suffered severely from the cold, the tender babes particularly, with the mothers, suffering intensely. At Brandy Station the party took passage on the regular military train for Washington city, and thence to Baltimore, reaching Harrisburg, as we have stated, yesterday morning.

THE NAMES OF THE FAMILIES.

Mrs. Sidney Morris, with three children, the youngest three and the oldest eighten years old.

It is supposed that the father and a son have enlisted in the Tenth Pennsylvania Cavalry.

Mrs. Sidney Morris, with three children, the youngest a babe, and the oldest four years old.

Mrs. Morris, an aged lady, with a married daughter, Mrs. Cornelia Williams—also two other daughters, young ladies, and three grand-children.

Mrs. Morris had agreed to meet her husband and four sons, (all of whom had been drafted, but escaped the rebel conscript officer) at this city. AMUSEMENTS.

THE GERMANIA ORCHESTRA WIll give their regular public rehearsal at the Musical Fund Hall to morrow afternoon, with the following pro-

DANVILLE, Pa., June 2, 1862.

Dr. Wm. H. Gregg—Bear Sir: In February, 1861, I was afficted with sngar diabetes, and for five months I passed more than two gallons of water in twenty-four hours. I was obliged to get up as often as ten or twelve times during the night, and in five months I lost about fifty pounds in weight. Buring the month of July, 1861, I procured two bottles of Constitution Water, and in two days after using it I experienced relief, and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured; soon after regaining my usual good health.

My wife was attacked with pain in the shoulders, whole length of the back, and in her limbs, with Palpitation of the teart and Irritation of the Bladder. I called a physician, who attended her three months, when he left her worse than he had found her. I then employed one of the best physicians I could find, who attended her for about nine months, and while she was under its care she did not suffer quite as much pain. He finally gave her up and said, her case was incurable. "For," said he, "she kas such a combination of complaints, that medicine given for one operates against some o her of her difficulties." About this time-she commenced the use of the sired effect, and she kept on improving rapidly under its treatment, and now superintends entirely her domesticalfairs. Dr. W. H. Gregg—Dear Sir—Having seen your advertisement of "Constitution Water," recommended for inflammation of the Kidneys and Irritation of the Bladder, having suffered for the past three years, and tried the skill of a number of playsicians with only temporary relief, I was induced to try your medicine. I procured one bottle from your agents at Hartford, Messrs. Lee, Sisson & Co., and when I had used half of it, to my surprise I found a great change in my health. I have used two bottles of it, and am where I never expected to be in my life, well, and in good spirits. I cannot express my gratitude for it; I feel that it is all and more than you recommend it to be. May the blessing of God ever attend you in your hoors of love. Yours, truly,

THESE ARE FACTS ENOUGH.
