OFFICIAL DESPATCH FROM GENERAL KIL-PATRICK.

Washington, March 5 .- The Republican publishes the following: We are permitted to publish the following despatch, received this morning, by the President, from Maj.-Gen. Butler, covering another despatch from Gen. Kilpatrick: HEADQUARTERS, FORTRESS MONROE, March 4.

-To the President: I forward the annexed ac count from Gen. Kilpatrick: YORKTOWN, March 4 .- General: Col. Dahlgren was directed to make a reconnoissance with 500 men on the James river. He attacked at 4 o'clock P. M., on Tuesday evening, and drove the enemy in on Richmond The main attack having failed, Col.Dahlgren attempted to rejoin me near the Meadow Bridge. He and Col. Cooke were with the advance guard. Some fifty men became separated from his main force, since which nothing has been heard from him. The main force reached me with slight loss.

I have hopes he may yet come in. J. KILPATRICK (Signed)

Brig.-Gen. Commanding the Expedition. In addition, a rebel deserter informed one of my aids that a one-legged Colonel and about one hundred men were taken prisoners.

I shall hear by flag of truce on Sunday night and will telegraph again. (Signed)

BENJ. F. BUTLER, Major-General Commanding.

IMPORTANT FROM NORTH CAROLINA. NEW YORK, March 5 .- The following letter has been received from Newbern:

NEWBERN, N. C., Feb. 29 .- The body of Capt. Westervelt, of the late gunboat Underwriter, has been found in the river with a hullet through his head, which confirms the report that he resisted to the last.

The firemen, together with all the citizens from 18 to 50 years of age, are under orders to be ready at a moment's notice to meet the enemy, who are said to be massing a large force for a final attempt to repossess Newbern, Plymouth and Washington. The attack will be of the most formidable character, and may take place at any moment. The report that a large fleet of gunboats were on the way here, accompanied with reinforcements for our army, has encouraged all with the belief that with this aid we can resist successfully any efforts the enemy may make to capture these important points.

The Newbern Times says: We are informed the rebel general in command at Kinston has bung several members of the 2d North Carolina regiment (white), captured by him in the recent movement upon Newbern. The same paper says that an army of 50,000 Union soldiers marching to the heart of North Carolina, giving assurance of protection from Confederate vengeance, would ensure the political conquest of the State. Viewed simply in a military light, an army of 50,000 men here could effect all the Army of the Potomac has been three years attempting to accomplish. We could take and hold both the grand lines of railroad communication through this State, by which the rebel army in Virginia is replenished, and could cut off his supplies from the south and southwest, and Lee must evacuate Virginia or starve.

GEN. SHERMAN'S MOVEMENTS. NEW YORK, March 5 .- The Tribune contains the following from Washington: A despatch from Memphis, March 1, received here this evening, gives some new and interesting details of Sherman's movements. The despatch says that after having reached Meridian, Sherman sent out scouts to feel the ground and to ascertain whether Logan, who had started from Florence to meet him, and Smith and Grierson, on whose cavalry he relied to prosecute his march on Selms, were advancing. Three days elapsed before he received any answer. But as his army had but a limited number of rations, he, by a rapid movement which disconcerted the rebels, suddenly turned toward Aberdeen and Columbus in the richest part of Eastern Mississippi, where his army was sure to find an abundance of provisions. By this movement he turned his back upon Selma and Mobile, marched toward Logan, who had already advanced to meet him, and, by an audacious stroke of strategy, placed himself at a distance of about one hundred miles from Johnston's flank, now menaced by his advance. The despatch says that the rumor spread concerning the attack upon Mobile and Selma by Sherman was simply meant to divert public attention from the real object of the expedition, which aims at an invasion of Georgia somewhere between Trenton and Lafayette.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Up to noon to-day the Government has not received any recent official information in relation to General

GEN. MEADE IN WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, March 5.— Yesterday afternoon, according to a city paper, Gen. Meade was in consultation for an hour or two with the Secretary of War. A morning print announces that Col. Streight has left for Fortress Monroe for a brief period.

XXXIIITH CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION: WASHITTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION:
WASHINGTON, March, 5, 1864.
SENATE.—The Senate is not in session to day, having adjourned over till Monday.
House.—The proceedings in the House to day are confined to general debate.
Mr. Baldwin (Mass.) spoke of the doctrine of State Rights as a mere instrument to break down our nationality and substitute a plantation despotism.

CAPTURE OF GUERILLAS. CARO, March. 5 .- The notorious guerilla Richardson and several others were captured vesterday by a scout sent out from the force of General Hobson on the Cumberland river.

DECISION OF THE COURT OF CLAIMS.
WASHINGTON, March 5.—The United States
Court of Claims, Judge Loring only dissenting, has given an opinion in the case of Wm. S. Grant vs. the United States, being a claim brought against the Government for the recovery of certain property destroyed by United States troops in the territory of Oregon, in July 1861, in order to prevent said property from falling into the hands of the insurgents. Under these circumstances the Court holds the claimant as entitled to just compensation for private property taken for public use, and they have accordingly adjudged the claimant to receive $41,500 from the United States, to be paid in due course of law, Congress having first to make the appropriation.

FROM TRENTON
[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.]
TRENTON, March 4, 1864.—Senator Scovel's resolutions, thanking every soldier of New Jersey who has reenlisted in the armies of the Union, and eulogizing their valor and endurance, have passed both houses of the Legislature.

MARINE DISASTER.

HALIFAX, N.S., March 5.—The bark Queen of the Fleet, from Cardiff for New York, with a cargo of railroad iron, has put in, leaking badly and must discharge a part of her cargo. The steamship Canada has not yet sailed for Boston, but will leave at noon to-day. FIRE AT BOSTON.

Boston, March 5.—The extensive drug store of Weeks & Potter, No. 170 Washington street, was burned this morning. The loss is $150,000.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

NEW YORK, March 5.—Arrived, bark Columbia, from Palermo for Philadelphia, leaky and pumps useless. The City of London took out $121,000 in specie.

GYMNASTIC EXHIBITION.—The sixth annual exhibition of the pupils of Hillebrand & Lewis's Gymnasum, will take place at the Academy of Music, on Tuesday evening next. The programme includes Introductory Remarks, Light (or Calisthenie) Exercises and Gymnastics on Apparatus, by children of both sexes. Gymnastic Exercises, Single Bar, Rings, Ladders, Parallel Bars, &c. Drilling by the Broad Street Cadets of Prof. Roth, under Capt. Hillebrand, School of the Soldier, Company Drill, and Skirmieh. Trapeze and Dumb-Bells, Fencing and Sparring, Acrobatics. This subject of Gymnastics, and Calisthenics (which means the best possible development of strength, health, and grace, and of all the advantages that flow therefrom) is beginning to attract the notice it deserves, and the gentlemen under whose auspices this exhibition is to be given are among the best and most successful demonstrations of the excellencies of the science. To those who take an interest in the poetry of exercise, and in the manner of calisthenics and gymnastics best calculated to accomplish their object, the exhibition will be interesting and instructive. NOT A FEW of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all discoveries that have been made to purge is out, none can equal in effect

EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the blood, instills the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It sumulates the healthy functions of the body and expels the disease orders that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for. and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit certificates to show its effect, but the trial of a single bottle will show to the sick that it has virtues surpassing anything they have. that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ever taken. Two tablespoonsful of the Extract of Sarsaparil.
