GENERAL GRANT'S ARMY. CINCINNATI, March 7 .- Despatches to the Gazette from Chattanooga indicate that the rebels are pressing our lines. Our advance has been withdrawn from Tunnel Hill to Ring-

The rebel furnaces at Atlanta, Ga., have stopped running for want of coal. Advices from Knoxville, dated the 5th, say that Longstreet is supposed to be at Greenville. His forces held Bull's Gap. It was thought that only a small part of his army had gone to Georgia. Onr advance is near Morris-

REBEL RAID ON CHESAPEAKE BAY.

BALTIMORE. March 7 .- There are exciting rumors on the streets to-day of an extensive rebel raid on the Chespeake, that the steamer Louisiana, of the Norfolk line, had been captured by a party of rebels while on her downward trip to Fort Monroe, and had been taken into one of the rivers of the western shore of Virginia. It was stated that the rebels were in an armed tug. As far as can be ascertained, this rumor is false; but three other small boats have been captured, one of them the side-wheel steamer S. P. Thomas, Captain Webster, employed as despatch steamer between Fort Monroe and Cherrystone Inlet. The other two were tugs employed between the same points. The party making the capture were in a schooner, supposed to have come out of the Rappahannock. They boarded the steamer and compelled Captain Webster to give bonds to the amount of $20,000, and then released him. They stole $11,000 from the captain. Information was yesterday received at the military headquarters in this city that the wires was doubtless done by the same party who made the captures. The two tugs were the Titian and Iola. The latter was burned and her crew paroled. The Titian was taken up the Rappahannock. These are the facts as far as they can be gathered.

FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

NEW CREEK, VA., March 6 .- The cavalry scouting expedition sent out to Pendleton county, under command of Lieutenant-Colonel Root, of the 15th New York cavalry, returned to-day. He reports that no enemy appears to be in force in that county or neighborhood. Several small guerilla parties fled on the approach of our forces.

The expedition effectually destroyed the saltpetre works south of Franklin, in Pendleton

Another scouting party had a slight skirmish near Moorfield, capturing some few of Mc-Neil's guerilla cavalry. Five of our men are yet missing.

Everything seems to be quiet in the Shenandoah valley.

SAFETY OF COLONEL DAHLGREN AND HIS DETACHMENT.

New York, March 7.—The Washington correspondent of the Tribune, under date of yes-

The President received a despatch from Fortress Monroe, this afternoon, stating that Col. Dahlgren, with his hundred men, had safely arrived within our lines. The Colonel was at Fortress Monroe. The President and Secretary Stanton immediately called upon Admiral Dahlgren, to convey the glad tidings and congratulate him upon the safety of his gallant son. BALTIMORE, March 7 .- Our Fortress Monroe letter says that Colonel Dahlgren is safe. FROM WASHINGTON.

[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.] Washington, March 7.—Gen. Grant will soon be here, and some important military changes will take place soon after his arrival.

Gen. Meade's friends are much pleased with his vindication of himself before the Committee on the Conduct of the War on Saturday. His accusers assert that other Generals will sustain the charges against him, but there is no longer any doubt among intelligent men on the subiect. Gen. Meade's simple denial of the charge against him is considered sufficient.

Senator Fessenden, who has been quite ill, is better to-day, but will not be able to be in the Senate before to-morrow.

EFFECTS OF KILPATRICK'S RAID ON THE REBEL ARMY. New York, March 7 .- The army correspondent of the Herald sends the following despatch: Three deserters came inside our lines yesterday who report that the rebel supplies are entirely exhausted, and the army is receiving nothing from Richmond, owing to the destruction of the railroad. Large details are made daily from the rebel army to forage in the country south of the Rapidan, and the greatest difficulty is experienced to subsist the troops. These deserters belonged to the 48th Mississippi regiment, in Ewell's corps. They state that on Tuesday a report was read to their brigade on dress parade that Butler's cavalry had joined Kilpatrick at Hanover Court House. The next day another report was read to them that Kil- Kong, Exchange is quoted at 5s. 03d.

patrick had made an attack upon Richmond, but was repulsed with a great loss in killed and wounded and over 1,200 prisoners, who had already arrived in Richmond.

A most intensely feverish anxiety pervades all classes in the rebel army in view of the pros pect of suffering in the future. Kilpatrick had destroyed the principal mills upon which they relied for their subsistence.

A CANABO FROM NEW ORLEANS. NEW YORK, March 7 .- The World has rumor, via New Orleans, that Gen. Sherman was defeated on the 16th ult. at Chunky river, near Meridian, with the loss of 15,000 men, and the army totally broken up. The rebel cavalry under Lee, Adams and Forrest are reported in bis rear. This story is without doubt a canard, as Richmond papers of a much later date than the 16th, have no mention of such an engage-

FROM GEN. GILLMORE'S DEPARTMENT. NEW YORK, March 7 .- The World's Hilton Head letter says that General Gillmore has sent orders to Florida that in future only Jacksonville will be held by our troops, and no effort whatever made to occupy other towns.

St. Paul to the head of Lake Superior, in Minnesota.

Mr. Howe (Wis.) opposed the bill at length, and on motion of Mr. Wilkinson, the special order was postponed for the consideration of this bill.

House.—Several weeks ago a resolution was passed ordering 1,500 copies of Lennman's Dictionary of Congrees at $2 apiece. This resolution was afterward repealed.

To-day Mr Spalding (N. Y.) offered a resolution to remove the doubts which had risen as to the linding force and efficacy of either of those resolutions and affirming in all particulars the one which heretofore passed providing for the printing of the Work, save only that the price shall be limited to $1 per copy.

Afteran hour spent on this subject, the resolution was passed by 16 majority.

Mr. Cox (Uhio) offered a resolution calling apon the President, if compatible with the public interest, to inform the House what steps he has taken or is about taking for an exchange of prisoners, and that he communicate all the unpublished correspondence in relation to the said exchange.

PROGRESS OF THE DANISH WAR.

A Conference of the Great Powers Reported.

NEW YORK, March 7 .- The steamer City of New York arrived at this port this morning, with later advices from Liverpool.

The City of New York sailed from Liverpool on the 24th, via Queenstown on the 25th ult. The steamship Hibernian arrived out on the st, and the America at Southamnton on t 24th.

England has proposed a Conference on the Danish Difficulties on a new basis, and Austria and Prussia have given their assent to it. The Times hopes that a pacific solution of the question will be arrived at.

The House of Commons has debated the question of the Mersey rams. A motion for the production of the papers was rejected by 25 majority for the Government.

The Morning Post's City Article says that the reports from Paris are still more positive that confidential negotiations are progressing between France and England for a joint recognition of the Confederates, and if England refuses. France will act alone.

The Post declines to vouch for these reports. In the House of Commons, Mr. Fitzgerald denounced the government for seizing Laird's rams, and asserted that the action was in contravention of the law. In moving for all the correspondence on the subject, he said he deplore a war with America, but would rather go to war than that the law of England should be infringed in consequence of the threats of foreign Ambassadors. The Attorney-General defended the Government and explained the legality of their action. He claimed for the Government the merit of acting from a sense of justice and no other motive. Several speakers denounced the course of the Government and charged it with pusillanimity. Finally the motion was rejected, by a vote of 178 against 153—a majority of 25 for the Go-

The announcement of the vote was received with loud cheers from the Ministerial side. Mr. Layard said that it was true that, with the consent of the British and American Governments, tobacco had been passed through the blockade from Richmond for the Austrian and French Governments. England had made no similar application for cotton, because the case was altogether different. An immense meeting at Dublin to protest against the erection of the Albert memorial on College Green, was broken up by riotous proceedings of the Fenian brotherhood. A desperate fight took place, but resulted in nothing serious. It is asserted that some of the combatants wore the American uniform.

THE VERY LATEST.

[Per the City of New York via Queenstown.]

The Confederate loan has declined to 52 a The rate of discount of the Bank of England has been reduced to 6 per cent. The Jura, from Portland, arrived out on the 24th. Affairs in Schleswig are unchanged. The report is confirmed that Austria and Prussia have agreed to a conference in London, but they will not discontinue hostilities in the mean time. The Danish Minister of Foreign Affairs, in a speech, distinctly asserts that "not until the former state of things is reinstated in Schleswig, will the Danish Government renew its efforts for terminating by means of negotiations our conflict with the Germans." The London Times thinks it is probable that Additional particulars of the Prussian repulse at Düppeln are conflicting. One account looks disastrous for the Prussians; but the Prussian official account is the reverse, only admitting three killed and twenty wounded. It is asserted that an entente cordiale between France and England is no longer doubtful. The Emperor agrees to co-operate. The Bourse is firmer, and Rentes 66f. a55c.

NEWS BY THE STEAMER SIDON. The following is a synopsis of the news sent out per the Sidon on the 22d:

The ship destroyed by the Alabama was the Enima Jane. In the House of Lords, Earl Grey said the Government did not intend to send Commissioners to report on the operations of the An erican armies, but three officers had been sent to report on the iron-clads. For obvious reasons, no officers had been sent to the Confederate States.

In the House of Commons, Disraeli made a sarcastic attack on the policy of the Government relative to Denmark. He complained of the absence of Lord Palerston and the delay in producing the corespondence. Several members expressed strongly their went of confidence in the Ministers, and Mr. Osborne moved, in view of the unsatisfactory position of affairs, that the consideration of the ravy estimates be postponed for three weeks.

After a general debate the motion was lost by a vote of 47 to 220. The papers say that the fate of the ministers for a few minutes trembled in the balance; but there was an unwillingness to condemn without a fair hearing. Official returns show that the exports in 1863 were £22,000,060, about those of 1862. Five of the pirates of the ship Flowery Land were executed together at Newgate.

It is reported that the Mexican financial plans are natured. They include a loan of twenty millions sterling.

A telegram from Hamburg announces that the Prussians had evacuated Jutland, but the Berlin papers say they retained possession of Kolding, with orders not to advance beyond that point.

The Germans were busily engaged in demolishing the Dannerwerke at Schleswig.

On the 22d the Prussians attacked the whole Danish lines at Duppeln. The Danes were driven in, but finally reoccupied their former position. It is asserted that Denmark is about to announce the blockade of all the Schleswig-Holstein ports.

BY TELEGRAPH. LATE FROM CHARLESTON:

Progress of the Bombard-

Further from Florida

Terrific Rebel Loss in the Late Battle

Military Affairs in the West.

FROM HILTON HEAD AND CHARLESTON. NEW YORK, March 7.—The steamer Arago has arrived from Hilton Head and Charleston Bar, with dates to the 4th inst. She brings detachments of the 47th, 54th and 115th New York, 8th Maine, and 85th Pennsylvania Volunteers and 3d Rhode Island Battery. Also some twenty officers, wounded in Florida, and fifty-four rebei deserters. Colonels Reist, Moore, Sammons, Meyer, Slidell and Jackson are among the passengers, the total number of whom is 950.

Nothing new from Charleston except tha the bombardment was still continued with good effect. The rebels replied at intervals, but scarcely doing any injury.

The supply steamer Bermuda is reported to have captured a rebel privateer in sight of Fort Pickens, after an exciting chase. The rebels had just put a prize crew on board a captured trading vessel, which was not overtaken.

INTERESTING FROM FLORIDA. NEW YORK, March 7 .- By the steamer Arago, which has arrived from Hilton Head, we have interesting news from Florida. All was quiet at Jacksonville. Reinforcements were rapidly arriving, and General Seymour's position was sufficiently formidable to repel any attack.

Our troops are outside of the town, some of them at a distance of eight miles. The fortifications in front of Jacksonville are of an extensive character. Flags of truce had communicated with the rebels for the purpose of endeavoring to obtain our wounded, who had fallen into their hands, but the request was refused.

The main body of the enemy is encamped between Ten-Mile Run and Baldwin-with a considerable force at the former place. The rebels admit their loss to be enormous, some even stating it as high as two thousand. On the 27th a small skirmish occurred between our cavaly and the rebels near Camp Finnegan. The rebels had five wounded. None of our men were hurt.

General Gillmore arrived at Jacksonville on the 29th.

FROM CHATTANOOGA.

[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.] CINCINNATI, March 7.—A despatch from Chattanooga dated the 4th says, that our army has returned from its late reconnoissance, and now holds a position in advance of its old lines. We have closed Parker's and Hooker's Gaps, and the army is in splendid condition. Colonel Harrison, who from Baldface Ridge had a full view of Dalton, states that the rebel force there on Friday was from 20,000 to 30,000 men, nearly all of whom came up from the rear on Thursday afternoon.

Lieutenant-Colonel Slocum, of the 82d Indiana, who was wounded in the reconnoissance, is dead. The 111th Pennsylvania passed through In dianapolis on Saturday for home, having reenlisted. Judge Moulder, one of the most influentia citizens of Mississippi Co., Mo., and a staunc

Unionist, was murdered by the guerillas in hi own house, on Thursday night last. FROM KNOXVILLE. [Special Despatch to the Bulletin.] CINCINNATI, March 7.—A special despatch from Knoxville reports Longstreet still retreating. The rebels lately shot seven deserters, and are relentlessly hunting down conscripts. They have sent forty pieces of artillery to the Great Virginia Salines, which place they will doubtless stubbornly hold, under Buckner and Breckinridge, and from it threaten Kentucky.

They are not fortifying Bull's Gap. Gen. Cox has been appointed chief-of-staff to Gen. Schofield. For the army in the field Gen. Potter remains chief-of-staff.

FROM THE WEST. [Special Despatch to the Bulletm.] CINCINNATI, March 7 .- Gen. Negley left this city for Louisville and the front yesterday. Lieutenant-Gen. Grant left here this morning on the way to Washington. There will be little opportunity for demonstration on the way, as he will travel rapidly and seeks to avoid all

R. M. Forbes, western agent of the New York Central Railroad, died suddenly at the Burnet House here, on Friday night.

THE REPORTED SAFETY OF COL. DAHL-

GREN. WASHINGTON, March 7 .- It is understood that subsequent despatches received here throw doubt upon the correctness of the information of the arrival of Col. Daldgren in our lines at Fortress Monroe. Nothing official, however, can be learned about the matter.

IMPORTANT RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED IN THE SENATE.

Washington, March 7 .- In the Senate today Mr. Sherman introdued the following important resolutions, which were referred to the Committee on the Judiciary:

Resolved, That a quorum of the Senate consists of a majority of the Senators duly chosen and qualified. and quained.

Resolved, That if a majority of the Presidential Electors, duly appointed and qualified, shall vote for one person, he is the President.

Resolved, That if the election of President devolves upon the House of Representatives and the votes of a majority of the State represented in the House be cast for one person, he is the President. MARKING WITH INDELIBLE INK, EM BROIDERING, Braiding, Stamping, &c. M. A. TORREY, 1990 Filbert street
