INTERESTING DETAILS OF THE EXPEDITION [Correspondence of the N. Y. Times]

WILLIAMSBURG, VA. Efriday, March 4.—The details of this movement so far as It may be proper, I shall proceed to give nearly in the order in which they transpired. The command left Stevensburg, Va., on Sunday night last, the 28th ult., and crossing Ely's Ford, on the Rapidam-thence by rapid marches to Spottsyivania, Beaver Dam Station, on the Virginia Central Railroad, to the fortifications of hichmond, crossing the Virginia Central Railroad and the Chickahominy river near the Meadows, the White House railroad a little east of Tanstall's Station, thence to New Kent Court House, and williamsburgh Court-House, where the command arrived on Thursday last—having bern in the saddle nearly all the time from Sunday night—a period of four days and during most of the time the men were supplied from rebel larders and their horses from rebel graharies. Nearly three hundred prisoners were captured, several hundred horses were pressed into the service, and hundreds of negroes availed themselves of this opportunity to come within our lines. one within our lines.

As before stated, the command left Stevensburg

As before stated, the command tely is Ford. Forty men, under the immediate command of Mr. Hogan—a well be men well and the advance. The first men, under the immediate command of Mr. Hogan—a well be men well and the advance. The first ford—a picket, to give notice sho or anything filts an enemy approach. The picket, combing like an enemy approach and the reserve on the other side of the river—a force consisting of thirteen men, one Captain, one Lieutenant and eleven privates. Hogan and his party gained the opposite bank, and the night being cloudy, succeeded in enveloping the reserve being the first section of the second New York Cavalry, and a small party of picked men, took the advance after crossing the Rapidan, and, as they had a special mission to perform, some account of it will be given elsewhere. The main command moved along with rapidity, taking the road to Spottaylvania Court House. Tuesday, at 10% o'clock A.M., found the command passing the outer earthworks on the Brook turnplike, within 3% miles of Richmond. The arrival of Yankee troops was entirely unexpected, and the property of the property of the control of Yankee troops was entirely unexpected, and the property of the property of the control of Yankee troops was entirely unexpected, and the property of the citizen soldiery of course, did not know most freedom—they, of course, did not know who their questioners were. Here was obtained a copy of the Extminer and Dispatch fresh from the press that morning announcing some rumors about a briggac of Yankee cavalry having crossed the property of the proper offer was made, but they refused to accept the offer of battle. On this day (Wedassday) several refusees from Richmond came into camp, and reported the presence of Capit. Witson, of the 2d Obto, who has been to come into camp, and reported the presence of Capit. Witson, of the 2d Obto, who has been to form the Richmond between the command. Wednesday, also, Licent work of the command. Wednesday, also, Licent work of the command. Wednesday, also, Licent with the own Railroad, but upon arriving there much to his astonishment, he found the place in flarres. From negroes in the vicinity he accretained that a column of Union cavalry from Gen. Butler's Intimation of insistance being so near at hand. Thursday morred for the color of the color o planting in this part of the State, but it was a rare sight to see a plowed field on the first of March.

At several points white men were seen working in the field, and occasionally a large plowed field could be seen; but as a general rule; however, the farms are running over with weecs, the buildings are out of repair, fences are down, and the Virginia wild hog, heretofore seldom seen, except in the pine forests, overruns the land. Particularly is this the case with the manorial estates to be seen as you approach the Pamunkey.

There is an abiding fath, both with soldiers and citizens, that the war will end this year in one way or the other. The whole country is flooded with a species of paper money so nearly worthless as to scarcely be believed. For a $10 federate scrip large enough to fill an ordinary saddle bag. In the use of this money we had some experience. At a little oyster saloon, about six miles from Richmond, Gen. Davies and a party of friends, numbering eight in all, partook of a supper which cost $53.40 in Confederate money, and the proprietor readily took $22 Confederate and a $2 greenback for the amount. The fare consisted of eggs bacon, honey and bread.

As to the question of food, every family seemed to have a little. At nearly every occupied house was to be found a lot of chickens, and occasionally more of less turkeys, ducks, geese and drakes, and not unfrequently small granters were to be seen roaming through the fields at will. It was quite evident that there was no superabundance of food, but a good supply of apple-jack somehow could always be obtained at $125 per gallon.

Much has been said of the publicity given to this raid before the movement was commenced or immediately thereafter. It is undoubtedly true that a great many people knew that there was a movement on foot of some kind, but what kind, owhich way it was to go, or its destination, it seem the field and at Washington, from the differen publications in the papers, it is quite certain knew but little more than the rebels. The the movement.

Capt. Armstrong, of the Commanding-General's staff, besides his regular duties, had charge of the distributing of the President's Amnesty Proclamation. Printed in small pamphlet form, this production was scattered broad-cast everywhere. It was placed in the hands of the people, left in their charges, abunches, and should save in the course. tion. Printed in small pamphlet form, this production was scattered broad-cast everywhere. It was placed in the hands of the people, left in their houses, churches and shops; stowed away in books and in every conceivable nook and corner, so that if any large portion of the people are disposed to suppress the only public document emanating from Mr. Lincoln which has not been repreduced in the Richmond papers, they will hardly be able to accomplish their purpose.

The negroes everywhere, as usual, manifested reat delight at seeing a column of Yankees, and acted unreservedly, as though they expected to find them all friends, and aided the expedition in various ways. They could always tell where corn could be found for the horses, and where provisiong and horses had been concealed. They frequently gave valuable information as to the location of the eneighborhood, and could tell when the last Confederate soldier passed along the road. Their services were brought into requisition in destroying railroads, and in one instauce, at least, continued the spot, saying as the column moved of, "We'll catch up." Nearly all asked permission to come along, and many did so without asking the privicate up." Nearly all asked permission to come along, and many did so without asking the privicate up." Nearly all asked permission to come along, and many did so without asking the privices; seeming to take it as a matter of course they were expected to join the command. Only about one million dollars worth of this kind of property was brought away. Many of the negroes and nestesses gave out on the long marches, and were left on the road.

Ieft on the road.

The expedition upon which Col. Dahlgren went to create a diversion was one of the most desperate undertakings of the war. The officers with him were selected for their well-known daring and invincibility in desperate circumstances. The second in command was Major Cook, of the 2d New York Cavalry, and next came Captain Mitchell, of the same regiment—officers well known in the service for their gallant conduct.

Several prisoners taken in front of Richmond.

ourned all the boats in this river, so that if it had been desirable to cross, such a movement was entirely impracticable. Gen. Kilpatrick therefore decided to move across the White House Railroad, and down the Peninsula. During the day, Capt. Golonel Dahlgren s command, rejoined the main column, and great was the rejoicing thereat, for Sunday night. The enemy, Tuesday night and column, and great was the rejoicing thereat, for Sunday night. The enemy, Tuesday night and wednesday and Wednesday night, hoskirmishing was almost constantly going on at about the command, and picker in different directions. THE GETTYSBURG BATTLE- 1864. FIELD MEMORIAL.

AN APPEAL TO LOYAL PENNSYLVANIANS.

The "GITTYSBURG BATTLE-FIELD ME-MORIAL ASSOCIATION' was instituted for the purpose of securing, forever, the principal points upon the great bat le-field of the war, in the exact condition in which they were left in July, 1863. when the rebel hordes of the invader LEE were driven back from the free soil of Pennsylvania, and when the gallant soldiers of GENERAL MEADE remained in possession of the field which they had won by their vaior. The Association have already secured the purchase of ORMBTERY HILL, CULP's HILL, GRANITE SPUR and ROUND TOP, with the entrenchments thrown up just upon the eve of the great conflict which was the turning point in the career of the rebellion. The field, with its redoubts. wonderful stone defences, its timber breast-works, isforest heights, with the trees torn by shells and countless builets, and its long lines of earthwork defences, have all been preserved intact, and to so continue to preserve them, as to be a monument forever of the greatest of American Battle-fields. s the object of the formation of the Association To enable a large number of persons to join in this patriotic work, the projectors of the plan placed the subscriptions at ten dollars each. The payment of this sum makes each subscriber a member OF THE ASSOCIATION, AND PART OWNER OF THE GLOR OUS FIELD OF GETTYSBURG.

What Loyal and Patriotic Citizen of Pennsylvania would not gladly embrace the privilege of recording his name upon this rol of honor, and of linking himself directly with the field where the lofty heroism of his countrymen vindicated the ntegrity of the Union and the principles of Freedom? And who would not desire to hand down as a precious heir-loom to his children the evidence of his part in the good work, bearing, as the certificate will, a view of the field which will rank in history with THERMOPYLE, MARATHON and WA-TERLOO?

There are no salaried officers in this Association, nor are there any objects in view in its creation other than those already stated. The grounds were purchased from their original owners at the exact price to be paid for them by the Association, and he points selected, and the prices to be paid for them, met the unqualified approval of a committee of the HISTORICAL COCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA, appointed for the purpose of visiting the field. The following are the names of the general officers of the Association, and of the Local Committee in Philadelphia :

There is another class of symptoms arising from IRRITATION OF THE WOMB, which physicians call nervousness, which word covers up much ignorance, and in nine cases out of ten the doctor does rotreally know whether the symptoms are the disease or the disease the symptoms. DANVILLE, Pa., June 2, 1862.

Dr. Wm. H. Gregg—Dear Sr: In February, 1861, I was afflicted with sugar diabetes, and for five months I passed more than two gallons of water in twenty-tour hours. I was obliged to get up as often as ten or twelve times during the night, and in five months I lost about fifty pounds in weight. During the menth of July, 1861, I procured two bottles of Constitution Water, and in two days after using it I experienced rehef, and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured; soon after regaining my usual good health.

Yours truly,

Respon Converse N. H. Dewitter

Wm. H. Gregg & Co. —Gents—I freely give you liberty to make use of the following Certificate of the value of Constitution Water, which I can recommend in the highest manner:

My wife was attacked with pain in the shoulders, whoie length of the back, and in her limbs, with Palpitation of the heart and Irritation of the Bladder. I called a physician, who attended her three months, when he left her worse than he had found her. I then employed one of the best physicians I could find, who attended her tor about nine months, and while she was under nis care she did not suffer quite as much pain. He finally gave her up and said, her case was incurable. "For," said he, "she has such a combination of complaints, that medicine given for one operates agains: some of her of her difficulties." About this time she combenced the use of the Constitution Water, and, to our utter astonishment, almost the first does seemed to have the desired effect, and she kept on improving rapidly under its treatment, and now superintends entirely her domesticaffairs. She has not taken any of the Constitution Water for about four weeks, and we are happy to say that it has produced a permanent cure. WM.M. VAN BENSCHOTEN.

WETHERSFIELD, Conn., March 2, 1863.
Dr. W. H. Gregg—Dear Sir—Having seen your advertisement of "Constitution Water," recommended for inflammation of the Kidneys and Irritation of the Bladder, having suffered for the past three years, and tried the skill of a number of physicians with only temporary relief, I was induced to try your medicine. I procured one bottle from your agents at Hartford, Messrs. Lee, Sisson & Co., and when I had used half of it, to my surprise I found a great change in my health. I have used two bottles of it, and am where I never expected to be in my life, well, and in good spirits. I cannot express my gratitude for it; I feel that it is all and more than you recommend it to be. May the blessing of God ever attend you in your labors of love. Yours, unly,

THESE ARE FACTS ENOUGH.

We present the Constitution Water to the public with the conviction that it has no equal in relieving the class of diseases for which it has been found so eminently successful in curing; and we trust that we shall be rewarded for our efforts in placing so valuable a remedy in a form to meet the requirements of patients and physicians.
