EVENING BULLETIN WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1864.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION. If there is one State at the North which the Democrats could pretend to hope to carry, it is New Hampshire. They counted on it especially this year, but they have heen grievously disappointed. Governor Gilmore has been re-elected by about 6,000 majority; ten of the twelve State Senators are Republicans, and in the House there will be a Republican majority of about eighty. Last year the Union men had two candidates in the field, but the combined Union vote was only 574 heavier than the Democratic vote. So there is a positive Republican gain, this year, of over five thousand. Thus nobly does the old granite State lead off in the campaign of 1864. Thus emphatically does she express her approval of the course and the policy of President Lincoln, and her increasing confidence in him as the head of the nation. Such an expression of the popular will is worth a thousand secret circulars and newspaper articles meant to prove that Mr. Lincoln ought not to be renominated.

There is something wicked, and almost treasonable, in the efforts now making in certain quarters to destroy the confidence of the people and the army in Major-General Meade. The trumping up, at this late day, of charges relating to the battle of Gettysburg, which occurred eight months ago, should be sufficient to satisfy the country that the charges are groundless. But even if they were well-founded, they should not be published while General Meade is in command. The success of his army depends, in a great measure, on his retaining the confidence of his troops; and this cannot be if such publications are made. The Committee on the Conduct of the War is not fit for the trust confided to it if it cannot keep such charges secret until they are either proved or refuted. It is plain that the President, the Secretary of War and the deny thememphatically. We are quite sure | GRAND CELEBRATION that General Meade will be amply vindicated; but, in the meantime; the efficiency of his army may be greatly damaged by the mere circulation of the malicious reports started by his enemies.

CLEANSING THE CITY. The rare spectacle of a body of scavengers at work was witnessed in Walnut street this morning. It is many months since such a thing has been presented to the eyes of Philadelphians, and there was something grateful even in the sight and smell of the huge piles of filth that rose under the scrapers of the men. Even in Walnut street, one of the cleanest of our thoroughfares, the accumulations are so enormous that it will take an army of laborers and an army train of carts to bring it to a condition of decency. In other streets, especially in some near the Delaware, the work will be still more herculean. But Mr. Commissioner Dickinson has made a beginning, and we rejoice to chronicle the fact. We ask for him the indulgence of our citizens, for he has undertaken a mighty labor, under embarrassing and disadvantageous circumstances. Give him a little time, and he will soon have Philadelphia restored to her former state of cleanliness

SIGNS OF PROSPERITY. Judging from the crowds at the places of amusement, last night, there is no immediate probability of those "bread-riots" in the loval States so confidently predicted by Secession orators, at the commencement of the rebellion; nor is there a likelihood of "grass-grown streets" in this locality. All the theatres were full, Gottschalk had a crowded house at Concert Hall, the Academy of Music was filled by the admirers of Calisthenics, who went there to witness the performances of the pupils of Messrs. Hillebrand & Lewis; the Actors' Order of Friendship had a brilliant ball at Musical Fund Hall, and the inferior places of amusement were all well patronized. Crowds of promenaders filled the streets, the city railway cars were thronged, and life and gaiety were to be seen upon all sides. The Copperhead oracles deem this condition of things an omen of inflation and of an approaching collapse of public ciedit; of course they charge it all to "Black Republicanism," just as they would hold Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Chase responsible if an entirely different condition of things existed. For ourselves, we are willing to see public and private prosperity, and to experience our share of it, and we shall not imitate the philosophy of the damsel who in the midst of comfort would be eternally bursting into tears lest she might get married and have a baby, and that the baby, wearing a light blue dress, should creep into a red hot oven and get roasted alive. EXTENSIVE PEREMPTORY SALES OF REAL ESTATE.

I am happy to add my testimony to the greavalue of the "London Hair Color Restorer," three bottles of which restored my Hair, which has very gray, to its criginal dark color, and the hue appears to be permanent. I am satisfied that the preparation is nothing like a dye, but operates upon the secretions. It is also a beautiful Hair-dressing. I purchased the first bottle from Mr. Garrigues, Druggist, Tenth and Coates streets, who can also testify my hair was very gray, when I commenced its use.
