property and in other places immense stores Thousands of bushels of wheat were consumed. He brought in large droves of cattle, several thousand head of mules, 8,000 negroes, and over 4,000 prisoners, with trifling loss of men and material on our side.

In addition to this, by the destruction of very important railroad lines, General Sherman has released General McPherson's corps from guard duty along the Mississippi and restored him to active service.

Gen. Grant, when on his way East, expressed himself entirely satisfied with the situation of military affairs, and spoke in the highest terms of Gen. Sherman's expedition, which had given the rebellion the severest blow since the fall of Vicksburg.

CINCINNATI, March 9 .- The Commercial's Chattanooga despatch of the 6th inst. says all is quiet in front, except the occasional exchange of shots between the advance pickets.

A large force of rebel cavalry appeared 1 fore Nicksjack Gap, and passed our cavalry. Deserters arrive at the rate of thirty per day. A despatch of the 7th says the rebel cavalry had retired, and our forces are now at Nickajack

THE CAPTURE OF THE TITAN. WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Star has the following:-The steamer Baltimore arrived here yesterday from Piankatank, whither she went on Saturday to head off, if possible, the tug Titan, captured near Cherrystone Point.

The Titan, in charge of a Confederate raiding party, was discovered about 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon slowly hugging the shore, but on reaching the mouth of the Piankatank she increased her speed and traveled up the

One of the Federal gunboats, the Tulip, was immediately despatched after her, but she escaped, as the Tulip, on account of shallow water, was not able to follow her. The Titan was taken to a place called Freeport, where she was burned by the rebels on Monday morning, after her machinery had been

The goeds were removed to this place on Monday, and some of the captors were about to have an auction sale, but the gunboats making their appearance the goods were hastily removed inland.

The officers of the Baltimore learned in the Piankatank that the raiders were led by Lieuts. Maxwell and Fitz Hugh, formerly of our navy. For the same reason that the Tulip was unable to overhaul the Titan, the boats of the ex pedition failed to ascend as far as Freeport.

"New Bedford, Mass., Nov. 24, 1863.

Dear Sir.—I have been afficited many years with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet at dhands, and a general disordered system. Physicians and medicines failed to relieve me. While visiting some friends in New York who were asing Plantation Bitters they prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wine glassful a ter dinner. Fee-ing better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished to find the coldness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I have not done for years I feel like another being. My appetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plantation Bitters.

Respectfully,

JUDITH RUSSEL."

"HAVEMEYER MANSION, Ffty-seventh, street New York, Angust 2, 1853.

DR. Drake: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well.

Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

A Blockade Runner Captured and Another Sunk.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE AND THE SOUTH FORTRESS MONROE, March 8 .- The flag of truce steamer New York arrived here this evening from City Point, with 700 Union prisoners, who were exchanged for an equal number taken up. The Richmond Sentinel of March 8th, contains the following despatches:

MERIDIAN, March 6.—Sherman was at Canton last Wednesday. Our cavalry are fighting him on all sides.

There was heavy cannonading at Canton al day on Wednesday. Sherman has taken a large number of negroes He leaves the country perfectly impoverished wherever he has been. WILMINGTON, March 7 .- A blockade steamer was sunk off Cape Fear, yesterday.

CHARLESTON, March 6 .- Two hundred and five shells have been fired at the city since the last report. There is nothing else new. The Richmond Whig of the 7th says: "Eight hundred and sixty-one prisoners arrived here yesterday under charge of Major Mulford, to be exchanged under stipulation of the cartel. It is hoped that the regular exchanges will be resumed for the future. "The body of Col. Dahlgren was brought to this city on Sunday."

COURTS.

SUPREME COURT-Chief Justice Woodward and Justices Thompson, Strong, Read, and Agnew.— Fifield vs. The In-urance Company of the State of Pennsylvania. Cerlificate from the Nisi Prius. This was an action of covernment.

Justices Thompson, Strong, Read, and Agnew.— Frifield vs. The Insurance Company of the State of Pennsylvania. Certificate from the Nisi Prius.
This was an action of covenant brought by the plaintiff upon a policy of Insurance of defendants, issued upon the 24th of November, 1860, for one year, from the 22d Ilecember, 1860, upon the plaintiff sinterest, insured at $3,000, in the brig
John Weish. valued at $2,000. The perils insured against were of the seas, fires, pirates, rovers, assailing thieves, jettisons, barratry, &c.,
and it was provided that the Company should not be liable for any claim for a loss by seizure, capture or detention, or the consequences of any autempt thereat.

The brig was captured on the 6th of July, 1861,
by the Jeff. Davis, which vessel was subsequently captured, brought into the port of Philadelphia, indicted. tried and convicted of piracy in the Circuit Court of the United States.

On the trial in the Nisi Prius, Justice Lowrie directed the jury to find for the Insurance Company, and to this the plaintiff objected and took a writ of error to the Supreme Court, alleging that it was error in the judge in directing the judgment to be entered for the defendants, thereby assuming that the loss was not within the words of the policy. The plaintiff urges that those who captured the John Welsh were pirates, and were held to be so on the trial in the Circuit Court. The Insurance Company contend that the capture of the John Welsh was not a piratical loss in the sense of the policy in question;
that in the meaning of contracts of insurance and of the policy in question it was a war loss, the vessel being aprivateer, commissioned by the rebel government. The defendants also urge that the policy was a peace policy, while the risk now songht to be recovered for is a war risk. The case was fully argued this morning and held under advisement.
