GEN. SHERMAN'S EXPEDITION. CINCINNATI, March 10 .- The Gazette's Cairo despatch says that passengers by the steamer Sultana report that General Sherman's Expedition penetrated thirty-five miles beyond Meridian, destroyed all the railroads in that vicinity, with 32 locomotives and a large number of cars.

There was no rumor of any fighting after leaving Canton, where Wirt Adams's rebel cavalry was encountered. Gen. Sherman's loss in killed, wounded and missing is about 500. A large number of plantations were destroyed.

All is quiet at Chattanooga and Knoxville. GENERAL SMITH'S CAVALRY EXPEDITION. NASHVILLE, March 7.—General Smith, commanding the late cavalry expedition from Memphis through Mississippi, reached here yesterday. The following particulars are reliable: The main purpose of the expedition, seven thousand strong, was to destroy railroads and army stores. It was not essential to join Sherman, although desirable. The expedition was delayed ten days by heavy freshets. The Mississippi State forces under General Gholson, reported at 11,000 strong, began to surround us in a region traversed by vast swamps, and General Smith determined to return. He fell back slowly, ambuscading the pursuing rebels. The Fourth Regulars routed a rebel brigade three times at Okalona. Aka heavy skirmish at Joy's farm, Col. Forrest, brother of Gen. Forrest, was killed, and Col. McCullock, severely wounded. The rebels were completely routed. Our return was deliberate. The rebel loss in various engagements was not less than 600.

Our loss was not over 150, chiefly stragglers. Gen. Grierson is highly commended for his ability. The 2d brigade, Col. Hepburn, composed of Iowa and Illinois cavalry, distinguished itself. The expedition was a very decided success, though it did not accomplish all that was desired. The damage done to the enemy's railroads is irreparable, and the destruction of Government stores very great.

WITHDRAWAL OF SECRETARY CHASE. CINCINNATI, March 10 .- The Commercial's Columbus despatch says that Mr. Chase has written a letter to the Hon. Jas. C. Hale, State Senator, withdrawing his name from the Presidential canvass.

A CASE OF DYSPEPSIA OF SIX. TEEN YEARS' STANDING CURED BY ONE BOX OF T. M. SHARP'S CELE

BRATED PILLS.

Dear Sir-I have been a sufferer from that most horrid disease, "Dyspepsia," for sixteen years, but after using the one box of T. M. SHARP'S Pills which I purchased of you some three weeks ago. I feel as if I have entered into a new life-my general health has improved, my appetite has increased, and altogether I feel like a new man. I take pleasure in recommending them to the public
