FURTHER FROM EUROPE BY THE AUSTRALASIAN.

Lord Palmerston has made explanations as to England's proposition for a conference on the Danieh question. The only basis would be the treaty of 1852. Denmark desired to postpone an answer for a short period, from local considerations.

Mr. Cane asked whether the Government would Mr. Cane asked whether the Government would station cruisers off Cuba to assist in carrying out the slave trade treaty with the United States. Lord Palmerston expressed a great desire to put down the infamous traffi. The treaty with the United States had done much, but France had lent but a broken arm support. He thought it more prudent and humane to station cruisers off the coast of Africa than off Cuba.

The United States Christian Commission has seized the present goiden opportunity of rest for seized the present golden opportunity of rest for the Army to extend its work for the good of the Soldiers.

STATIONS have been multiplied, each with its chapel and store tents, free writing tables, and clothing, comforts and reading matter for gratious distribution.

VOLUNTARY DELEGATES, in numbers greater than ever before, have been sent to preach the Gospel at the stations and in regiments, bat-teries and camps without Chaplains, distribute reading matter and stores, and labor for the good f the Soldiers.
A PERMANENT FIELD AGENCY has been sufficiently extended to establish stations and superintend the work.

THE BLESSING OF GOD rests signally on all THE BLESS ING OF GOD less signally on an apparts of the work. Many thousands have been cheered, benefited and saved.
