Brigadier General Hugh Ewing, brother-in-law of Major-General Sherman, has been ordered to this city, probably to supersede General Burbridge in command of the Federal forces in Kentucky. Officers who left Chattanooga day before yester-day report all quiet there and at Knoxville. A despatch from Frankfort, Kv., says, it is un-derstood that Governor Bramlette addressed an earnest remonstrance to the President, respecting the enlistment and enrollment of slaves in Ken-tucky, and bas notified him that the Governor will execute the laws of Kentucky against all who at-tempt to take slaves from their owners without their consent.

He claims that Kentucky has furnished more than five thousand of her sons to defend the Go-vernment, and is willing to furnish still more and all that is allotted to her, and that she has proven her lovalty, and must be treated accordingly, and her loyalty, and must be treated accordingly, and for laws and constitutional privileges must be re-spected.

THE RIGHT OF SOLDIERS TO VOTE. HAR LIGHT OF SOLDIERS TO VOTE. HARRISURG, March 12.—The amendments to the State Constitution which receive the sanction of the Legislature, allowing soldiers to vote, will shortly be submitted to the people. The constitu-tion requires that such amendments (to be made not oftener than once in five years), shall receive the assent of two succeeding Legislatures, and shall be voted upon by the people within three months after publication by the Secretary of the Common wealth. months after publication by the Secretary of the Commonwealth. The original bill, allowing soldiers to vote, was introduced into the Legislature in 1863 (January 22), by Senator Henry Johnson, of Lycoming county. It passed the Senate unanimously on February 11th, 1663, and was held by the House until a few days before the final adjournment, when it was passed by that body, but with the addition of two sections having no reference what-ever to the right of suffrage. The friends of the original bill in the Senate were forced to accept these additions in order, at a late hour, to secure the passage of the more important proposition. The Secretary of the Commonwealth, it accord-ance with law, advertised the amendments during 1663. In the early part of the session of 1864, the organization of the Senate being abso considered by the House. The same Senator has also presented two supplementary bills. One defining the manner in which the amendments are to be submitted to the papele, and one regulating the elections by soldiers when in actual military service. Beth of these will pass the Legislature. There is no doubt whatever but that the soldiers of Penn-sylvania in actual actual will be in abled to vote in the field for the next President of the United States. each. Assistant Secre area and houses to same, the Committee refacing to raise any salaries at present. The Secretary of State has replied to certain in-quiries of the Secretary of the Treasury, saying, in substance that there is no imperial or provincial enactment exempling American vessels from ton-nage or other duites in the ports of Canada. In some of these ports duites are laid on them under the name of light duites, hospital dues and tonnage dues for repair of harbor, etc.; hence there exists no good reason to exempt from Jonnage duites ves-sels belonging wholly or in part to subjects of foreign Powers, including those residing in British North American provinces, on entry into our ports on the northern, northwestern and northeastern fronilers, and from British North American pro-vinces. In view of these facts, and in accordance with a recommendation of the Treasury Depart-ment, the House to-day passed a bill to repeal the second section of the act to regulate the foreign coasting frade on our fronilers, thus taking from Her Majesty's subjects the enjoyment of privileges which were not reciprocated to our own citizens by the British Government.
