AFFAIRS AT MOBILE.
The Mobile Register, of Feb. 27, notifies the public that supplies of cooked provisions, bread, meats, poultry or "suppling most convenient" furnished for the men in Fort Powell will be sent SPRING FLOWER SHOW down daily from the city. The day previous the gunboats fired 470 shots and shells at the fort, 'doing it no damage,''

Three mutineers, who were to have been executed at Mobile the 27th, were respited to the middle of March.

The Register advies those who revel in high prices to make the most of their time, which is short. 'The day when a supper for a dozen at a restaurant only brings $1,000, and a landford obliges you with poor food and worse lodging at $20 per day: of all such extravagances is nearly over.'' The Congress has applied a remedy for this perilons plethora, "short, shurp and decisive," and a collapse is to succeed, which will be sudden enough for the financial health of the country, 'Yet,'' says a Georgia cotemporary, 'the medicine will cure, if the patient has a good constitution. Thirty or forty days will suffice for the diagnosis and the treatment.''

The Register advises the farmers, that 'the recent military excitement and suspension of transit on the Mobile and Ohio Railroad' has created a scarcity in the city of butter, eggs, chickens and farm produce generally, and that there is a good market for good things in Mobile.

The theatre is in successful operation. On the night of Feb. 27th, Mr. W. H. Crisp, 'tby desire,' would appear as the Duke of Gloucester. Mr. Sam Hubbard proposes to do Paddy Miles in the 'Limerick Boy' the same evening.

A grand military and civic dress ball for the benefit of Hays's Louisians brigade was announced for March 3d; tickets only $10.

A bookseller announces in press Dickens's Christmas story, 'Mrs. Lerriper's Lodgings,' 'treceived through the blockade' and offered at $2 per copy.

FIELD MEMORIAL. AN APPEAL

TO LOYAL PENNSYLVANIANS, The "GETTYFBURG BATTLF-FIELD ME-MORIAL ASSOCIATION" was instituted for the purpose of securing, forever, the principal points upon the great bat le-field of the war, in the exact condition in which they were left in July, 1863 when the rebel hordes of the invader LEE were driven back from the free soil of Pennsylvania. and when the gailar t soldiers of GENERAL MEADE remained in possession of the fill which they na wor by their valor. The Association have already secured the purchase of Cemateur Hill, Culp HILL GRANITE PUR and Ro ND FOR, with the en renchments thrown up just upon the eve of the great conflict was the turning point in the career of the rebellion. The field, with its redoubts. wonderful stone defences, its tember breast-works. i sh rest heights, with the trees torn by shells and countless bullets, and its long lines of earthwork defences, have all been preserved intact, and to so continue to preserve them, as to be a monum in forever of the greatest of American Battle-fields. is the object of the formation of the Association To enable a large number of persons to oin in this patriotic work, the projectors of the plan placed the subscriptions at teradollars each. The payment of this sum makes lace subscriber a member of the association, end part owner of the GLOB OUS FIELD OF GETTYSBUIG. What Loyal and Patriotic Citizen of Penusylva-

nia would not gladly embrace the privilege of recording his name up n this rol of honor, and of ninking himself directly with the field where the lotty heror-m of his con trymen vindicated the integrity of the Union and the principles of Free dom? And who would not desire to hand down as a precious heir-loom to his children the evidence of his part in the good work, bearing, as the certificate will, a view of the field which will rank in hi-tory with Thermopyles, Marathon and Wa-I here are no salaried officers in this Association

no, are there any objects in view in its creation other than those already stated. The grounds were purchased from their original owners at the exact price to be paid for them by the Association, and the points selected, and the prices to be paid for them, met the unqualified approval of a committed of the HISTORICAL . THE GREAT

Sanitary Commission.

Philadelphia, 1307 Chestnut Street. February 20, 1864.

The undersigned, members of the Executive Commissee of the GREAT UENTRAL FAIR for the Sanitary Commission, beg to invite the co-operation of all their fellow-citizens, especially of those resident in Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey, in this important enterprise. It is proposed to nold the Fair in Philadelphia, in the FIRST WEEK IN JUNE NEXT, and it is confidently expected that the contributions coming from a popula ion so benevolent and patriotic as that which inhabits the Central States, and representing the most important and varied branches of industry and art, will secure a result in aid of the funds of the Commission, and for the benefit of the Soldier, at least equal to that which has atended sin ilar undertakings in other cities. It is not necessary to say a word to stimulate sympathy for the soldier. We feel for them all as brethren, and the popular heart seeks only the best mode of manifesting that sympathy in the most efficient and practical way. These fairs in other places have been productive of great results. By this means Chicago has recently raised for this Object $60,000, Boston $150,000, and Cincinnati more then $200,000. We appeal, then, with the greatest confidence to the inhabitants of the Centiel States, especially to those who constitute the great industrial classes, to send as contribution the productions of their skill and workmanship. We appeal to them in the interest of no party, radical or conservative, Republican or D-mocratic, Administration or anti-Administration. We know only this, that to send our national soldiers in the field supplies to supplement those Government underiakes to give them, but which they semetimes fail to receive, and thus to relieve them when sick and in misery, is a work of Christian charity, and that it is a work of intelligent patriotism also, as economizing their life, health and efficiency, on which, under God, the nation depends in this its time of trouble.

We therefore ask every clergyman to announce this humane undertaking to his people, and to advise them to do what they can to further it. We ask the press to give it the widest publicity and the most earnest encouragement. We call on every workshop, factory and mill for a specimen of the best thing it can turn out; on every artist, great and small, for one of his creamons; on all loyal women, for the exercise of their taste and industry; on farmers, for the products of their fields and dairies. The miner, the naturalist, the man of science, the traveler, can each send scmething that can at the very least be converted into a blanket that will warm, and may save from death. some one soldier whom government supplies have failed to reach. Every one who can produce anything that has money value is invited to give a sample of his best work as an offering to the cause of national unity. Every workingman, mechanic or farmer, who can make a pair of shoes or raise a barrel of apples, is called on to contribute something that can be turned into money, and again from money into the means of economizing the health and the life of our national soldiers. Committees have been appointed in each department of industry and art, whose ousiness it will be to solicit contributions for the Fair, each in its own special branch. These Committees will place hemselves in communication with those persons who may wish to aid us. In the meantime it is recommended that local committees or associations should be formed in every portion of Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey, with a view of organizing the industry of their respective neighborhoods, so as to secure contributions for the Committees of Ladies have also been organized to co operate with those of the gentlemen in soll-citing contributions. A list of all these Committees will be shortly published and distributed. In the meantime those who are disposed to aid us, or who may desire any further information on the subject, are requested to address CHARLES J. STILLE, Corresponding; Secretary of the Executive Committee of the Great? Central Fair, 1307 CHESTNUT Street. JOHN WELSH, Chairman,
