NEW PUBLICATIONS.

We have received from Mr. Carleton, of New York, a neat volume, entitled "The Art of Conversation." The work gives some important hints upon self-education that will be valuable to the young, and, in fact, the most refined and intelligent might peruse its pages with advantage. The author's suggestions and illustrations, whether treating of dress, courtesy, literature, or morals, are happy in manner and matter. The course of reading which the writer marks out for those whose pursuits have led them aside from the world of books, is as judicious as could be conceived. The opening chapter on Conversations, Puns and Anecdotes, and the carefully compiled vocabulary of "Americanisms" in the appendix, are worthy of special attention. The book is excellently printed, and bound uniformly with Carleton's publications. It is for sale by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, in this city.

The purposes and works of the United States Sanitary Commission have been made the subject of a work from the press of Little, Brown & Co., of Boston. The book, which is very neatly printed on tinted paper, gives a history of this noble enterprise from its first inception, with statistics of the great work which the commission has already accomplished. The volume will serve in the future by way of af. fording an insight into the great humanitarian teatures of the war for the Union. Its publica. tion is most opportune at a time when the claims of the Commission for public support and sympathy are receiving such substantial re-... cognitions in the great cities of the loyal North and West.

"How's Ladies' Book of Readings and Recitations" is an excellent work from the press of E. H. Butler & Co., of Philadelphia. The volume is filled with admirable extracts from the best authors, and the compiler of the work has shown consummate taste in the selection of poetic and prose extracts to enrich the pages of his book. Mingled among the gems of Milton, Tasso, Byron and Schiller we find choice selections from such modern favorites as Tennyson, Mrs. Browning, Longfellow, G. H. Boker Charlotte Bronte, and T. Buchanan Read. The work is a ladies' book, but either sex might read it with equal profit.

"A Popular Hand-Book of the New Testament," by George Cumming McWhorter, has been published by Harpers, New York, and is for sale by J. B. Lippincott & Co. It is intended for the use of instructors of the young, and those who cannot spare the time and labor necessary to consult the works of Alvord, Trench. Wordsworth and other commentators on the New Testament. It condenses into a brief space the results of the toil of scores of scholars, and will be found extremely useful among those students for whom it is intended.

"The Parlor Magician" is the title of a little volume published by Dick & Fitzgerald, of New York, which is designed to give an insight into magical tricks and mysteries which have hitherto puzzled the uninitiated. Those who aspire to out-do Blitz, or to unmask the "Davenport Boys," will perhaps be aided in their laudable endeavors by studying this brochure.

FOREIGN GLEANINGS. An ice machine has been erected at Bombay, which can make three tons of ice daily. A statue of the Empress Eugenie, attired in crinoline, is to be erected in the market-place of Puebla. The Thames Tunnel has been sold to the East London Railway Company for £173,600.

It is stated that eighty three religious papers are issued in Paris, viz: Sixty-two Romanist, eighteen Protestant, and three Jewish.

A small herd of nine oxen and cows, brought over to La Plata in 1555, has multiplied to such an extent that the number of horned cattle now existing in the country amounts to fifteen millions of heads, living at full liberty, with plenty of natural pasture ground at their disposal, and only guarded here and there hy herdsmen living in huts at a distance of several miles from each other.

COLONEL DAHLGREN .- The following is an extract from a letter from a lady in Washington, dated March 12, 1864:

"Was ever anything so dreadful as poor Ulric Dahlgren's fate? H——saw his servant to-day, who escaped when his master was shot, and hid himself in a ditch where he saw it all. He says they stripped the body, cutting off the little finger for the ring, and carrying off his artificial leg. When they left, the negro servant came out of the ditch, and dragged his master's body some distance, hoping to hide it and bury it, but another party appearing, he had to hide again. The second party pitched the body over a fence, and digging a shallow trench, thrust it in naked, and stamped the earth down. The next day they returned and put the body of the poor boy in a box, and carried it to Richmond."

'At the battle on Roanoke Island, Governor Wise's son Jennings was shot, while leading the Confederate troops, and mortally wounded. He was laid in the tent of one of General Burnside's staff. He did not know he must die, and sent to ask Burnside if he would let him go on parole. The General sent him word, that when he was able, he should go on parole. He died in four hours, with one of our officers and an English officer with him, who gave him water, and did what little could be done to alleviate his sufferings. When two days after the Governor sent for Jennings's body, it was given him. Rather a contrast in the two stories. I can't rejoice enough that poor Ully was shot dead in his saddle. If he had lived to suffer, in the power of such fiends, it would have been fearful. I have known him from a child, and a finer fellow never lived."

'NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 24, 1863.

DEAR SIR—I have been afflicted many years with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. Physicians and medicines failed to relieve me. While visiting some friends in New York who were using Plantation Bitters they prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wine glassful atter dinner. Fee ing better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished to find the coldness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I have not done for years I feel like another being. My appetite and strength have also greatly improved by too use of the Plantation Bitters.

Respectfully.

The "GETTYSBURG BATTLE-FIELD ME-MORIAL ASSOCIATION" was instituted for the purpose of securing, forever, the principal points upon the great bat le-field of the war, in the exac condition in which they were left in July, 1863 when the rebel hordes of the invader Lee were driven back from the free soil of Pennsylvania and when the gallant soldiers of GENERAL MEADE remained in possession of the field which they had secured the purchase of CEMETERY HILL, CULP HILL, GRANITE SPUR and ROUND TOP, with the entrenchments thrown up just upon the eve of the great conflict which was the turning point in the career of the rebellion. The field, with its redoubts, wonderful stone defences, its timber breast-works isferest heights, with the trees torn by shells and countless builets, and its long lines of earthwork defences, have all been preserved intact, and to so continue to preserve them, as to be a monum n forever of the greatest of American Battle-fields, is the object of the formation of the Association To enable a large number of persons to join in this atriotic work, the projectors of the plan placed the subscriptions at ten dollars each. The payment of this sum makes each subscriber A member of the association, and part owner of the GLOB OUS FIELD OF GETTYSBURG.

What Loyal and Patriotic Citizen of Pennsylvania would not gladly embrace the privilege of re-cording his name upon this rol of honor, and of inking himself directly with the field where the ofty heroism of his countrymen vindicated the ntegrity of the Union and the principles of Freetom? DANVILLE, Pa., June 2, 1562.

Dr. Wm. H. Gregg—Dear Sur: In February, 1861, I was afflicted with sugar diabetes, and for five months I passed more than two gallons of water in twenty-four hours. I was obliged to get up as often as ten or twelve times during the night, and in five months I lost about fifty pounds in weight. During the month of July, 1861, I procured two bottles of Constitution Water, and in two days after using it I experienced relief, and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured; soon after regaining my usual good health.

Yours truly,

J. V. L. DEWITT.

Hoston Corners, N. Y., Dec. 27, 1861.

Wm. H. Gregg & Co. —Gents—I freely give you liberty to make use of the following Certificate of the value of Constitution Water, which I can recommend in the highest manner:

My wife was attacked with pain in the shoulders, whole length of the back, and in her limbs, with Palpitation of the Heart and Irritation of the Bladder. I called a physician, who attended her three months, when he left her worse than he had found her. I then employed one of the best physicians I could find, who attended her for about nine months, and while she was under inis care she did not suffer quite as much pain. He finally gave her up and said, her case was incurable. "For," said he, "sak has such a combinatio of complaints, that medicine given for one operates egainst some other of her difficulties." About this time she commenced the use of the Constitution Water, and, to our utter astonishment, almost the first does seemed to have the desired effect, and she kept on improving rapidly under its treatment, and now superintends entirely her domesucaffairs. She has not taken any of the Constitution Water for about four weeks, and we are happy to say that it has produced a permanent cure. WM.M. VAN BENSCHOTEN.

WETHERSFIELD, Conn., March 2, 1863.

Dr. W. H. Gregg—Dear Sir—Having seen your advertisement of "Constitution Water," recommended for inflammation of the Kidneys and Irritation of the Bladder, having suffered for the past three years, and tried the skill of a number of physicians with only temporary relief, I was induced to try your medicine. I procured one bottle from your agents at Hartford, Messrs. Lee, Sisson & Co., and when I had used half of it, to my surprise I found a great change in my health. I have used two bottles of it, and am what a I never expected to be in my life, well, and in good spirits. I cannot express my gratitude for it; I feel that it is all and more than you recommend it to be. May of love. Yours, truly,
