[Special Despatch to the Bulletin.] CINCINNATI, March 24.—A despatch from Cairo says we have good news from the Red River Expedition, which comes from undoubted authority. General A.J. Smith landed his forces from transports a few miles below Fort DeRussey. The rebel General Dick Taylor promptly marched against him with his whole force, and attacked him in his rear. General Smith, instead of attempting to keep up communication with the River, preceded, by forced marches, towards the

When Taylor saw the trick, he started for the same destination, and for a time the race seemed doubtful. But finally the Yankees came in about three hours ahead, capturing the fort and eleven guns, four of them parrots, one eleven inch and several thirty-two pounders: also, 200 prisoners. This gives Gen. Smith a strong foothold in the country, and will enable the Admiral to proceed to Alexandria with his gunboats without opposi-

CINCINNATI, March 24.-From the Memphis Bulletin we learn that a fight took place on the 16th of March some twelve miles east or Fort Pillow, between sixty federals, commanded by Lieutenant Porter, of the 12th Tennessee cavalry, and one under Captain Superson, C. S. A., resulting in the complete rout of the rebels with one half of their number killed and wounded, while the loss on our side was but one killed. A despatch from Cave City, Ky., March 23d. says that Colonel Weatherford, of General Hobson's command, captured the rebel Major Mc-Henry and five men, killing the rebel Captain

The steamer Baltimore, Acting Master Mitchell, which left here on Monday morning with Admiral Dahlgren, who went down to Fortress Monroe expecting to receive the body of his son, arrived up this morning with the Admiral on board, he having been again unsuccessful in his mission. The flag-of-truce boat which was due at Old Point on Tuesday afternoon did not arrive until yesterday afternoon on account of the storm which obliged her to lay to off old Jamestown Island during Tuesday night. She brought down a number of wounded soldiers, but did not bring down the remains of Col. Dahlgren, as expected. Colonel Ould, the Confederate agent for ex-

The second ballot was narrowed down to Ranney The second ballot was narrowed down to Radney and Vallandigham, all the other candidates withdrawing. The excitement was tremendous. The vote closed: Ranney 216: Valandigham 212. The latters friends demanding a reading of the vote by counties after the announcement of the result had been made, the Chair ruled it out of order. This created an indescribable scene. Vallandighamers threatening to belt, the Ranneyites telling them to go, but they did not The vote was read by common consent, and the difficulty was got over.

SAN FRANCISCO March 23.—Sailed, ship Skylark, for Baker's Island.

A letter dated Manzanilla, Feb. 20th, states that Consul Blake was there exercising consular functions, and would continue to do so unless relieved by the United States Government. This renders it probable that the account of the circumstances attending the homicide, his conviction of murder, death-sentence and escape from Collima prison, were exaggerated reports. Blake's friends say early in the winter he made enemies of one of the rival wrecking parties for the Golden Gate treasure, and also became obnoxious to Mexican officials, who favored frauds against the under writers.

Mexican Mustang Liniment.

The parties in St Louis and Cincinnati, who have been Counterfeiting the Mustang Liniment under pretence of proprietorship, have been thoroughly estopped by the Courts. To guard agains further imposition, I have procured from the U.S. Treasury, a private steel plate revenue stamp, which is placed over the top of each bottle. Each stamp bears the fac simile of my ignature, and without which the artice is a Counterfeit, dangerous and worthless imitation. Examine every bottle. Thus Liniment has been in use and growing in favor for many years. There hardly exists a hamlet on the habitable Globe that does not contain evidence of its wonderful effects. It is the best emollient in the world. With its present improved ingredients, its effects upon man and beast are perfectly remarkable. Sores are healed, pains relieved. Iives saved, valuable animals made useful, and untold ils assuaged. For cuts, bruises, sprains, rheumalism, swellings, bites, outs, caked breasts, strait of horses, &c, it is a Sovereign Remedy that should never be dispensed with. It should be in every family. Sold by all Druggists. felfs-tuth s 6my D. S. BARNES, New York.
