A message was received from the Mayor, vetoing the bill making an appropriation for grading and bridging Fith street, from Nicetown lane to Fisher's lane. The Meyor says: "The act of April 21, 1855, makes it the duty of the Mayor to withhold his signature for all new bridges, among other constructions, until the ordinary and necessary expenses of the city shall be adequately provided for, and without his signature no ordinance therefor shall go into effect. DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION-DELE GATES TO THE NATIONAL CONVENTION ELECTED AND PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS The Democratic State Convention continued its

The Democratic State Convention continued its session yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Wm. H. Witte, who had just been elected President when we closed our report made a speech, in which he said that the object of the present convention was the annunciation and maintenance of the true principles of the Democratic Party, and to say to those administering the Federal Gowernment: "You have mistaken our form of government; we do not derive our rights from you, but from the States and the people." We made the power that Mr. Lincoln uses, or which he is abusing and treacherously applying you, but from the States and the people." We made the power that Mr. Lincoln uses, or which he is abusing and treacherously applying. [Cheers.] If you take the people as you find them here, they would lead you to believe that Pennsylvania is a mere province, existing by the royal will and pleasure of Abraham Lincoln or his satellites and satraps, both civil and military. [Cheers.] If you say anything of them, you are disloyal. Disloyal to whom? Disloyal to the power that has invaded the Constitution and broken down every barrier that has been erected to protect our rights. If that be treason, then am I traitor. [Cheers.] But if to be true to every duty to the Federal Government, ay, to lMr. Lincoln, in the exercise of every proper function under the law and the Constitution; if to be true to my own Commonwealth and her laws, and to resist invasion to matter from what quarter, be loyalty, then am I not a traitor. Our purpose is to reconstruct the Democratic party, and to bring about harmony; to forget and to forgive. Then we reconstruct the Democratic party, and to bring about Power must be reconstructed, the Federal Union must be restored; and it is quite clear, that if their is any power under Heaven by which it can be restored it will be the power, because of the theoir, of the Democratic party.

That the Committee on resolutions be instructed to report sentiments for the sanction of this Convention endorsing and approving of the course of the Democratic members of the State Senate during the present session, and tendering to them the thanks of the law-abiding people of the State, for the firmness, zeal and ability with which they resisted and finally overthrew the arbitrary and revolutionary doctrines set up by the Abolition members of that body, to the effect that the Senate is a permanently organized body, and that the election of a Speaker at the organization of the Legislature is a useless formality.

It was announced that the Committee on Resolutions was not ready to report, and while waiting for it a number of Delegates addressed the Convention on the topics of the day, and at every mention of the name of Geo. B. McGlellan there was great enthusiasm. Mr. Witte, one of the speakers, expressed his regret that a feeling seemed to prevail, here and elsewhere, that there was no prospect of success in the coming campaign. This was wrong. It was the duty of the Democracy to teach the people the true theory of government, without reference to success or faultee.
