FROM WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON. March 29, 1864.—A joint meeting of the House and Senate Naval Committee will be held on Thursday next, to consider the question of the location of the new Navy Yard for Iron clads. The friends of the New London, League Island and Chester locations are all sanguine of favorable reports. Brandegee closed his arguments in favor of New London this morning.

The Housd Naval Committee, with a portion of the Military and Ways and Means Committee, will start in about two weeks on a tour of inspection down the Ohio rayer and up the Mississippi tion down the Ohio river and up the Mississippi to St. Louis, to select a location for a Western

The fellowing order has just been issued by the Secretary of the Navy:
NAVY DEPARTMENT, March 22.—General Order No. 31.—Ensigns R. O. Chew and H. J. Blake having been reported to the Department for going having been reported to the Department for going below in their watch, without being regularly relieved, while on duty on board the United States steam-frigate Niagara, (Commodore T. T. Craven Commanding, and Lieutenant-Commander Henry Reuben Executive Officer,) their appointments to the grade of Lieutenants, for which they were recently nominated to the Senate and confirmed, have been suspended. For the same offence, the appointments of Acting Ensigns W. S. Dana, E. F. Harrington, William B. Hoff and C. Rathbone have been revoked, and they have been ordered to return to their studies at the Naval Academy at Newport, R. I., as midshipmen. Acting Ensign B. C. Irvin, who was also attached to the Niagara, and was guilty of the offence of overstaying his leave, has been ordered to the United States steamer Glaucus, (third mate,) with directions that he shall Glaucus, (third mate,) with directions that he shall not for six months be permitted to go out of that not for six months be permitted to go out of that vessel.

The Department cannot admit the plea of ignorance, or that of usage on board the vessels at the Naval Academy, on the part of these officers, who, however young, have been long enough in the service to aspire to and expect promotion. If they had no other source of information, they should have learned from the "act for the better government of the navy," with which all persons in the service must be supposed to be familiar, that to eleave his station before regularly relieved" is an offence which subjects the person guilty of it to the punishment of death. It must, indeed, be obvious to the most ordinary intelligence, that if an officer cannot be trusted in his watch, he has yet to learn the simplest practical duties of his profession, and is unfitted for a station where the lives of others, as well as the honor of his country, may depend on his vigilance and fidelity.

The lenient course which the Department has adopted in this case, has been induced by the consideration that, although the severe punishment which a court-martial would adjudge, might be more effectual as a warning, yet the young officers in fault may, with comments.

aucpted in this case, has been induced by the consideration that, although the severe punishment which a court-martial would adjudge, might be more effectual as a warning, yet the young officers in fault may, with some reason, plead in extennation of their offences, that they were not duly admonished by those whose duty it was to impress them with a proper sense of discipline, of the serious nature and inevitable consequences of their misconduct. It is not probable-that so many of them would have erred habitually on board the Niagara except from this cause.

GIDEON WELLES,

Secretary of the Navy.

The President to day communicated to Congress the report of C. B. Stewart, Consulting Engineer, upon the improvements to pass gunboats from tide water to the Western Lakes. The Engineer assumes that upon the connection of those takes with tide water depends our common defence as well as general welfare, and that the Mississippi River should likewise be connected with the lakes. He argues that the great food-producing region uses this chain of lakes for transit of exports and imports, which is a line of communication at present utterly defenceless, leaving the lake cities to destruction by English gunboats on a declaration of war by Great Britain, thus inflicting damage to which the cost of these proposed improvements would be utterly insignificant.

He makes various recommendations and gives us total estimates for improved gunboat locks for the Erie, Oswego, Champlain and Cayugaand Seneca Canals, with seven feet of water, ever $18,000 000, and with eight feet of water, $20,500,000, and the cost of a canal around Niagara Fall at from ten to thirteen millions of dollars.

Representative Grinnell, of Iowa, has been appointed a member of the Committee on Territories, and Representative Beaman, of Michigan, a member of the Committee on the District of Columbia, both in the place of Mr. Lovejoy, deceased.

Lieutenati-Commander Samuel Magaw has been ordered to the command of the United States steamer Cambridge.

THE MAJOR GENERAL AND THE DRUMMER The President has recently appointed to the The President has recently appointed to the Naval School at Newport a little drummer boy of the 55th Illinois Volunteers, whose case was brought before him by Major-General W. T. Sherman, in the following letter. Truly, the letter does as much honor to the distinguished Major-General, who could pause, in the midst of the duties of a great campaign, to pay such tribute to adrummer boy, as it does to the little hero whom at calebrates:

HEADQUARTERS 15TH ARMY CORPS, CLAMP ON BIG BLACK RIVER, Aug. 8, 1863.—Hon. E. M. Stanton, Secretary of War. Sin: I take the liberty of asking through you that something be done for a lad named Orion P. Howe, of Wankegan, Ill., who belongs to the 55th Illinois, but at present at home wounded. I think he is too young for West Point, but would be the very thing for a midshipman.

where we stood the shot fell thick, and I told him to go to the reer at once, I would attend to the cariridges, and off he limped. Just before he disappeared on the hill, he turned and called as loud as he could, "Calibre 54." I have not seen the lad since, and his Colonel (Malmborg), on inquiry, gives me the address as above, and says he is a bright, intelligent boy, with a fair preliminary education.

What arrested my attention then was—and what what arrested my attention then was—and what renewed my memory of the fact now—is that one so young, carrying a musket ball through his leg, should have found his way to me on that fatal spot, and delivered his message, not forgetting the very important part, even, of the calibre of his musket, 54, which you know is an unusual one. I'll warrant that the boy has in him the elements of a man, and I commend him to the Government as one worthy the fostering care of some one of its national institutions.

I am, with respect, your obedient servant,

CENTRAL FAIR, FOR THE

Sanitary Commission.

Philadelphia, 1307 Chestnut Street February 20, 1864.

The undersigned, members of the Executive Committee of the GREAT CENTRAL FAIR for the Sanitary Commission, beg to invite the co-operation of all their fellow-citizens, especially of those resident in Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey, in this important enterprise. It is proposed to hold the Fair in Philadelphia, in the FIRST WEEK IN JUNE NEXT, and it is confidently expected that the contributions, coming from a popula ion so benevolent and patriotic as that which inhabits the Central States, and representing the most important and varied branches of industry and art, will secure a result in aid of the funds of the Commission, and for the benefit of the Soldier, at least equal to that which has attended similar undertakings in other cities. It is not necessary to say a word to stimulate sym-pathy for the soldier. We feel for them all fas brethren, and the popular heart seeks only the best mode of manifesting that sympathy in the most efficient and practical way. These fairs in other places have been productive of great results. By this means Chicago has recently raised for this object $60,000, Boston $150,000, and Cincinnati more than $200,000. We appeal, then, with the greatest confidence to the inhabitants of the Central States, especially to those who constitute the great industrial classes, to send as contribution the productions of their skill and workmanship We appeal to them in the interest of no party radical or conservative, Republican or Democratic, Administration or anti-Administration. We know only this, that to send our national soldiers in th field supplies to supplement those Government undertakes to give them, but which they sometime fail to receive, and thus to relieve them when sick and in misery, is a work of Christian charity, and that it is a work of intelligent patriotism also, as economizing their life, health and efficiency, or which, under God, the nation depends in this its time of trouble. We therefore ask every clergyman to announce this humane undertaking to his people, and to advise them to do what they can to further it. W ask the press to give it the widest publicity and the most earnest encouragement. We call on every workshop, factory and mill for a specimen of the best thing it can turn out; on every artist, great and small, for one of his creations; on all loyal women, for the exercise of their taste and indus try; on farmers, for the products of their fields and dairies. The miner, the naturalist, the man of science, the traveler, can each send scmething that can at the very least be converted into a blanket that will warm, and may save from death come one coldier whom government supplies have failed to reach. Every one who can produce any. thing that has money value is invited to give a sample of his best work as an offering to the cause of national unity. Every workingman, mechanic or farmer, who can make a pair of shoes or raise a barrel of apples, is called on to contribute some thing that can be turned into money, and again from money into the means of economizing the health and the life of our national soldiers.

Committees have been appointed in each department of industry and art, whose business it will be to solicit contributions for the Fair, each in its wn special branch. These Committees will place hemselves in communication with those persons who may wish to aid us. In the meantime it is recommended that local committees or associations should be formed in every portion of Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey, with a view of organizing the industry of their respective neigh orhoods, so as to secure contributions for the Fair.

to co operate with those of the gentlemen in soliciting contributions. A list of all these Committees will be shortly published and distributed. In the meantime thou who are disposed to aid us, or who may desire any
