VALUABLE FARM. FOUR HUNDRED ACRES, CHESTER COUNTY.—A valuable and productive farm in Chester county, four and a half miles from Oxford, the present terminus of the Baltimore Ceatral Railroad, one and a half mile from the Buttonwood station on the same road. The land is in a high state of cultivation, having been owned, farmed and improved by one of the most thorough farmers in the country for many years. It has been manured with lime and bonedust, and is in fine condition. About one hundred acres are heavy woodland, and very valuable, divided into good sized fields, in all but one of which there is running water. Big Eld Creek runs through the farm, a never failing stream and first-rate water sewer. The improvements are a substantial two-story brick dwelling, about fifty by forty feet, with large barn about fifty-five feet square, overshot, large cattle sheds, wood, ice carriage and wagon houses; stabling for fourteen horses and fifty cows; four excellent tenant houses, well located. Will be sold on easy terms. Survey and draft at the auction store.

This discovery for the preservation of the human hair is taking the lead of all hair preparations; besides restoring the color and making hair grow on bald heads, it is a beautiful dressing, keeps the hair soft, smooth and flexible, removes any eruptive disease, Itching, Scurf, Dandruf, &c. Many who were bald and gray have had their hair permanently restored. Only one preparation.

Soft GRAY HAIR RESTORED WITHOUT DYEING.

DYEING.

BY BALDNESS PREVENTED.

I am happy to add my testimony to the greavalue of the "London Hair Color Restorer," three bottles of which restored my Hair, which was very gray, to its original dark color, and the hue appears to be permanent. I am satisfied that the preparation is nothing like a dye, but operates upon the secretions. It is also a beautiful Hairdressing. I purchased the first bottle from Mr. Garrigues, Druggist, Tenth and Coates streets, who can also testify my hair was very gray, when I commenced its use. I commenced its use. MRS. MILLER,

It cleanses and renovates the blood, instills the receases and renovates the blood, installs the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body and expels the discorders that grow and rankle in the blood. Such a remedy, that could be relied on, has long been sought for, and now, for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not admit certificates to show its effect, but the trial of a single bottle will shew to the sick that, it has wittness surpassing anything that here that it has virtues surpassing anything they have that it has virtues surpassing anything they have ver taken.

Two tablespoonsful of the Extract of Sarsaparilia added to a pint of water, is equal to the Libson Diet Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to agallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the Decoction as usually made.

For THESE EXTRACTS HAVE BEEN ADMITTED TO USE IN THE UNITED STATES ARMY, and are also in very general use in all the STATE HOSPITALS and PUBLIC SANITARY INSTITUTIONS throughout the land, as well as in private practices and are considered as invaluable remedies.
