NEXTHITH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION.

CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS. CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

FENATE.—Mr. Cowan (Pa.) introduced a bill to establish a Navy Yard and Naval Depot on the Delaware river. It provides for the selection of the location by a commission of seven scientific men, none of whomshall own land within fifty miles of the Delaware river, the decision of a majority of whom, when approved by the Secretary of the Navy and the President, shall be final. Referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

Mr. Ramsey (Minn.) presented a bill appropriating a sum of money, no exceeding one hundred and twenty thousand dollars, for the payment of further expenses in suppressing Indian hostilities during 1662. Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

tary Affairs.
The proceedings and resolutions of the House in reference to the death of the Hon. Owen Lovejoy, late a member of that body, were communicated to hate a member of that sody, the Senate.

Mr. Trumbull (III.) paid a brief tribute to the character of the deceased in life, which, he said, would be endorsed by the people of Illinois, not only or account of his consistency on the question of anti-slavery, but onother vital questions. Mr.
Lovejoy did not live long enough to see the great object of his life accomplished, viz: the entire acolition of slavery; but long enough to see the initiative steps taken for the accomplishment of this great end. Like the great Jewish captive, he lived long enough to catch a glimpse of "the promised orgenough to catch a glimpse of "the promised land." Mr. Lovejoy was a true Christian, a genial companion, an able statesman, and an affectionate husband and father. What more could be compared to the country of the nial companion, an able statesman, and an attectionate husband and father. What more could he say of him? There was no other consolation for his bereaved family and friends except that which came alone from the Hand above.

Mr. Trumbull, in conclusion, offered the usual solutions of sympathy and condolence:

Mr. Pomeroy (Kansas) said he would pay a brief Mr. Pomeroy (Kansas) sain the would pay a other tribute to the memory of one he learned to love long ago. He was the valued and tried friend of the people of his State during a period when such friendship was invaluable. During the long and trying years of 1855 and 1856 his hands, and others like his, sustained the people of Kansas in their friendship was invatable. During the long and trying years of 1835 and 1856 his hauds, and others like his, sustained the people of Kausas in their struggle for freedom.

Mr. Sumner (Mass.) said it was proposed to adjourn now in respect to the memory of the deceased, but could the wishes of the latercpresentative prevail, the Senate would sit and perfect measures for the abolition of slavery. Such an act would be more accepable to him, if living, than any words of compliment, for he was a man of deeds, not words; and in the language of an Oriental writer, "Words are the daughters of earth, deeds the sons of Heaven." It would be in vain that we passed tributes to Mr. Lovejoy if we did not heed his advice and pass resolutions against slavery. The deceased was a positive man, and a faithful legislator. When other men were timid he was unhesitating. Though he hated slavery he was a steadfast liver of his whole country. The place occupied by the lamented deprived will be hard to fill.

The resolutions were then adopted, and the Senate adjourned until to morrow.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union on the bill amendatory of the national banking law.

Mr. Boutwell offered an amendment to strike out the authority proposed to be given to banks to buy and sell gold and silver coin and bullion, and loan money on real and personals: curity. These banks, with a circulation of $300,000,000, would be able to fix the standard of value, which was the very thir g the House had bing endeavoring to prevent.

Mr. Stevens opposed the amendment. The section left these banks to buy gold the same as State banks and individuals. The time has passed when we consider gold as currency. —It was a cammo-

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Brooks (N. Y.) offered an amendment the object of which was to prevent banking on real estate, which in New York had been found unsafe. It was useless for him to protest against a wrong principle of banking, and he referred to the fact that on a bill of such was importance they were acting without the presence of a quorum. His amendment was rejected.

THE GETTYSBURG BATTLE-FIELD MEMORIAL.

AN APPEAL TO LOYAL PENNSYLVANIANS.

The "GETTYSBURG BATTLE-FIELD ME-MORIAL ASSOCIATION' was instituted for the purpose of securing, forever, the principal points upon the great bat le-field of the war, in the exact condition in which they were left in July, 1863 when the rebel hordes of the invader LER were driven back from the free soil of Pennsylvania, and when the gallant soldiers of General Meads remained in possession of the field which they had won by their valor. The Association have already secured the purchase of CEMBTERY HILL, CULP HILL, GRANITE SPUR and ROUND TOP, with the entrenchments thrown up just upon the eve of the great conflict which was the turning point in the career of the rebellion. The field, with its redoubts, wonderful stone defences, its timber breast-works. itsforest heights, with the trees torn by shells and countless builets, and its long lines of earthwork defences, have all been preserved intact, and to so continue to preserve them, as to be a monument forever of the greatest of American Battle-fields, is the object of the formation of the Association To enable a large number of persons to join in this patriotic work, the projectors of the plan placed the subscriptions at ten dollars each. The payment of this sum makes each subscriber a member OF THE ASSOCIATION, AND PART OWNER OF THE LORIOUS FIELD OF GETTYSBURG.

What Loyal and Patriotic Citizen of Pennsylvania would not gladly embrace the privilege of recording his name upon this rol of honor, and of inking himself directly with the field where the lofty heroism of his countrymen vindicated the integrity of the Union and the principles of Free dom? And who would not desire to hand down as a precious heir-loom to his children the evidence of his part in the good work, bearing, as the certs ficate will, a view of the field which will rank in history with THERMOPYLE, MARATHON and WA-TERLOO?

There are no salaried officers in this Association no: are there any objects in view in its creation other than those aiready stated. The grounds were purchased from their original owners at the exac price to be paid for them by the Association, and the points selected, and the prices to be paid fo them, met the unqualified approval of a committe of the HISTORICAL LOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA, appointed for the purpose of visiting the field. The following are the names of the general officers of the Association, and of the Local Committee in Philadelphia: OFFICERS.
