SENATE. The following peticons among others were presented:
Mr. Connell, from the Board of Trade for in-crease in the rate of legal interest from 6 to 7 per cent.

Mr. Johnson, from the State Agricultural Society against any change of the investment of the land scrip from the Centre County Agricultural College.
Mr. Connell introduced an act relative to the Mr. Connell introduced an act relative to the Fulton Coal Company, as follows:

Whereat, The capital stock of the Fulton Coal Company, is follows:

Whereat, The capital stock of the Fulton Coal Company, formerly the Northumberland Improvement Company, originally amounted to three millions of a liars; and whereas, the same was from time to time reduced until, by virtue of an act of Assembly. approved March 17, 1859, the said capital stock was reduced to three hundred thousand dollars; and whereas, the said company have lately given out leases for certain veins of their coal lands which have hitherto not been mined, and it is proper that a portion of their capital should be restored to said company.

Therefore, be it enacted, &c., That the capital stock of said company is hereby increased to one million eight hundred thousand dollars, and new certificates of stock shall issue to the present stock-holders of the same number of shares that they now hold at the par value $30 per share. Provided, That the same company shall pay to the State Treasurer one half of one per cent. on such increase of capital stock, in five equal annual payments, the first to be paid within one year after the passage of this act.

SEC. 2. That the Fulton Coal Company is hereby empowered to purchase and hold not exceeding one thousand acres of land in addition to that which it is now authorized to purchase and hold anywhere in the middle anthracite coal field.

SEC. 3. This act shall not take effect until its coal field.

SEC. 3. This act shall not take effect until its provisions are accepted by a majority of the stock-holders of the company present at a meeting to be called for that purpose, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, of which at least ten days' notice shall be given, by publication in two daily newspapers in Philadelphia, each snare of stock to be entitled to one vote, and if a majority of the stock is voted in favor of the acceptance of this act, a certificate to that effect shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.

a certificate to that effect shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State.
