Much correspondence has been had through the Adjutant-General, with the authorities at Wash ington, on this subject, since the date of the report of the Adjutant-General, and I am informed by Col. Francis Jordon military agent of the State at Washington, that on the 22d inst., an order was made on Major Brice, chief Paymaster at Balti-more, to take charge of the payments, to estimare the amount of fundsrequired, to report the number of Paymasters necessary, and make the payments at as early a day as practicable. Major Brice made a requisition on the Adjutant. General of Penns lvania for the rolls, which were promptly furnished him by that officer.
