THE WAR FOR THE UNION

THE ILLINOIS REBELS DISPERSED.

MATTOON, 111., March 31.—Everything seems to have resumed its usual quiet, and the rebels are believed to have dispersed. The 47th Indiana regiment has left and the 4ist Illinois volunteer regiment will remain until the return of Col. Oakes from Gharleston.

The War in East Tennessee.

Knoxville, March 31.—The rebels, after destroying the restle work at Bull's Gap, fell back beyond Greenville and took up the wagon and railroad bridge across Rick creek and carried off a portion of the rails and telegraph wire.

Deserters continue to come in, and report large numbers are trying to make their why into the Union lines.

Parson Brownlow telegraphs from Knoxville as follows:

"General Sherman left this morning for Chattanooga, after retunning from the front. All is quiet at Massey Creek. Knoxville is so fortified that we can held it against Lee's army.

"Longstreet's forces are at Water Gap, more than one hundred miles fr. m here.

"A force of cavalry remains at Bull Gap to protect the retreat.

"I am still of the opinion that the rebels are intending forthwith to make a raid into Kentucky."

The remainder are scattered. No further apprehensions are felt from the attack of Forrest's forces.

Our troops are ready for them in whatever numbers they present themselves.

IMPORTANT FROM LOUISIANA.

IMPORTANT FROM LOUISIANA.

St. Louis, Mo., March 31—The New Orleans
Della, of the 23d, says that official information was received this morning that a reconnoissance was made under General Mower to Natchitoches, seventy-five miles above Alexandria on the 21st. The enemy were met in some force, and a fight ensued, in which we turned the rebels' flank, and captured four pieces of artillery, with their cais-saptured four pieces of artifiery, with their caissons, and two hundred prisoners.

FROM GENERAL STERLE'S ARMY.

FORT SMITH, Ark., March 30.—About ten thousand effective troops have gone South from this district. The whole number in the department under [General Steele now moving southward is from thirty to thirty-five thousand, sufficient to everpower any rebel force opposed to them. A scout from General Price's rebei army reports that General Cabell's rebel force is composed of seven or eight regiments, and is fifteen miles this side of Washington, Missouri The rebel troops were being moved towards Camden. The rebel General Gano has some seven thousand Texans at Tennersport. Gens Marmaduke and Shelby are at Camden. The rebels are well supplied with clothing, and an importation of horses, from England, has just reached them at Camden. A large number of negroes were being concentrated at Camden. Quantrell is south of the Red River.

FROM KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, March 31.—The Lexington Observer says Camp Nelson, owing to a change of base for supplies, has been evacuated, and the military stores removed to Nashville. Rumors prevailed at Lexington on Tuesday that many buildings at Camp Nelson had been destroyed by fire, but the assertion is discredited.

FROM NEW MEXICO.

Denver City, March 31.—Santa Fe papers of the 19th say that on the night of the 14th one wing of the Capirol building was destroyed by fire. Valuable papers in very important cases were destroyed. The Gazette says that letters peak encouragingly of the Arizona gold mines. Another fight was reported to have taken place in Southwestern New Mexico between our troops and the Apaches. Of the latter forty-five were killed. Major McFerrin, Chief of General Carlton's Staff, had arrived.

Major McFerrin, Chief of General Carlton's Staff, had arrived.

He reports the unconditional surrender of the entire Navajo nation, numbering nearly six thousand Indians, who are being collected at Fort Sumner. Some of them have large flocks, but a majority are destitute. To feed them General Carlton has been obliged to put his troops on half rations. Colonel Carson is to have charge of the Indians until they are turned over to the Indian Bureau.

FROM WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, March 31, 1864.—General Grant, accompanied by his personal staff, and General Meade, accompanied by Captain Meade, arrived here at noon to-day. After consultation at the War Department, General Grant and staff took the evening train for Baltimore to go thence to Fortress Monroe to consult with General Butler. General

Monroe to consuit with General Busics.

Meade remained here.
General Ord, who was summoned from the West by General Grant is still here.
The Senate and House Naval Committee were in joint session to-day. They took up the matter of a Western Navy Yard, and agreed to have the Committee go West to locate a site. The Commit-

Jenn ression to-day. They took up the matter of a Western Navy Yard, and agreed to have the Committee go West to locate a site. The Committee will probably leave in the course of a week or ten days.

There is a proposition now to locate two navy yards, one at New London for wooden vessels and one at League Island for iron-clads.

The recretary of the Navy, in response to a Senate resolution of inquiry, says no transfers of seamen from the army to the navy have been effected under the recent law of Congress, and thirty-five vessels are now awaiting their complements of men. Not only are these vessels awaiting crews, but the terms of many seamen now in the service have expired, and the men are detained to man our ships, though justly entitled to their discharge. Were they not detained, many of the vessels now on blockade duty would go out of service. This state of things is to be depored, and is in great measure, if not entirely, attributable to unfortunate legislation, the enroliment act of last Congress having so utterly ignored the naval service that enlistments in that service were not permitted to be credited on the quotas of those communities from which they were drawn when the draft came to be enforced. In addition to these circumstances, the distribution of extraordinary bonnties for army enlistments, while not a dollar was paid to the sailor, operated to discredit the mayal service, and held out strong inducements for the military service. Earnest appeals were made by the executives of maritime States, and many of the municipal authorities on this subject, claiming that naval recruits ought justly to be stedited on their quotas under the draft, but it was not allowed, and, consequently, the local influences became adverse to naval enistments, and the navy itself sogn began to feel the effects of the policy. Vessels which were interded for foreign the navy itself soon began to feel the effects of the policy. Vessels which were intended for foreign service, to protect our commerce, some of which should have sailed last autumn, are yet without their complements of men. A complement for our whole force is required for the blockade. The Secretary says there is undoubtedly a re-luctance on the part of the military officers to part with any portion of their commands, but the true luctance on the part of the military officers to part with any portion of their commands, but the true interest of the country is the paramount consideration, and should govern on that question. The Secretary recommends, in order to supply the existing deficiency in the navy, that mariners, of not less than two years' service, should be transferred from the army to the navy, without having any reduction from the prize money to which they may become entitled; that so much of the amendatory enrollment act as withholds bounty from sailors transferred to the army be repealed. If legislation, as he believes to be the case, has carried mariners into the military service, they should be taken out by the most summary process, and transferred to the navy, where their nautical education makes them indispensable, but which education renders them no more valuable than landsmen for the duty of a soldier.

There are 162 Colonels now commonding Brigades, without including those temporarily commanding in the absence of proper Brigade commanders. They are thus distributed: In the Army of the Potomac, 33, Department of the Cumberland, 26; Department of the South, 7; of West Virginia, 11; of Tennessee, 23; of Arkansas, 12; of Kansas, 1; of the Gulf, 16; of Washington, 12; of Ohio, 14; of Virginia and North Carolina, 7.

Captain M. J. Asch, for some months past Chief of Cavalry in the Department of the Northwest, has been ordered to Washington to serve in the Cavalry Bureau.

Cavalry Bureau. It appears from an official communication of the Secretary of War that the strength of our army in Kansas and the Indian Territory, subject to the orders of Gen. Curtis, is about 16,000 men.

people of Kensington in the supply of pure water.

Mr. Wetherill took strong grounds in opposition to the ordinance. He stated that a careful analysis of the waters of the Delaware by Ohief Engineer Cassin proved that the water in the Delaware was impure. He thought that for less money than that asked for to complete the improvements suggested in the Kensington Water Works, the people of Kensington could be supplied with pure and wholesome water from the Schuylkill River.

Mr. Davis thought that the time occupied in making the castings and laying pipe, &c., from Fairmount to the Kensington Water Works, would consume a period of eighteen months or two years. He proceeded to show from the reports of different Chief Engineers, that it was not practicable to carry water from the Fairmount Works to Kensington. In view of the fact that the people of Kensington bave been afflicted with disease and death in consequence of the impurity of the water, we should at least make the experiment, and see whether the proposed plan of improving the Water Works at Kensington will not meet the end desired. Let it be tried, even if the $30,000 are expended in vain.

Dr. Uhler made some statements regarding the vain.

The people of Kensington are suffering, and $30,000 is a small amount to give the people of Kensington their rights, as far as a supply of pure water is concerned. Mr. Wetherill moved that the ordinance be referred back to the Committee on Water, with instructions to request the Chief Engineer to report a plan whereby the Kensington Water Worksmay be supplied with water from the River Schuylkill, Agreed to. The ordinance from Select Council authorizing the purchase of League Island for public purposes, was called up and was read.

Mr. Loughlin moved to postpone the further consideration of the bill. He said that the matter is now in the hands of the Finance Committee, and he was not willing to vote such a large appropriation for the purchase of League Island, unless it is to be used for the purpose intended.

Mr. Stokley stated that the time fixed upon by the owners of the property for its sale to the city expires upon the first of April, and it is important that this ordinance should be passed at this session.

Mr. Briggs said that theowners of League Island that this ordinance should be passed at this session.

Mr. Briggs said that the owners of League Island are net legally bound to hold the property for the city after the 1st. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company have actually offered a much larger sum for the Island. The Navy Department is in favor of locating the Navy Yard there, and if the influence of the Secretary of the Navy has any weight, there the Navy Yard will go.

Mr. Harper supported the ordinance. He said that the city had offered their property to the General Government and as there is every prospect of League Island being adopted for the Navy Yard, the city should be in a condition to comply with the offer selemnly made.
