George Thompson of England.—We are glad to learn that many prominent and influential citizens of Philadelphia have invited this distinguishes advocate of Free-speech and Democratic Institutions to address the people of this city. The compliment is due to this earnest champion for liberty. More than thiry years back he agitated in every corner of the three kingdoms in favor of immediate emancipation, and largely contributed to the growth of the public opinion which extinguished slavery forever in all the British dominions. His admiration for the principles and forms of American gover:ment are proverbial. It is not as well known as it should be, that in the darkest hour of our present trouble, when England, misguided by her haughty aristocracy, in alliance with our own Lords of the Lush, was about to stain her history by recognizing the South with all its diabolical institutions—when sympathy with rebellion and slavery had become fashionable and powerful in that country and throughout Europe, George Thompson again set out on a mission to the people to teach them the truths of universal emancipation; and the value to the world, of American Democratic Freedom. Co-operating with the illustrious Bright, Cooden and other influential statesmen, he contributes his powerful voice to revolutionize the public mind of England and to save her from disgrace and disaster. This fearless tribune will be with us this evening at the Academy of Music. We ought to give him such a welcome as his devotion to Freedom merits. We should greet him with such a demonstration as will gladden the hearts of the honest working men of his nature land at hearing that the sterling worth of their truest friend, is recognized and apprecisted in the United States.

Passage of Troops.—During Saturday night the 15th Regiment Connecticut Volunteers. Col-GEORGE THOMPSON OF ENGLAND.-We are in the United States.

PASSAGE OF TROOPS.—During Saturday night the 15th Regiment Connecticut Volunteers, Col. Charles L. Uphan; a battalion of the 12th Regiment Veteran Reserve Corps, Col. A. Farnsworth; and the 75th New York Regiment, Col. R. B. Merritt, passed through the city, and were entertained at the Volunteer Refreshment Saloons. The first named was from Newbern, N. C., and is on the way home. The others were going to Washington. The members of the 75th New York are veterans, and have served in the Department of the Gulf for twenty-eight months. The regiment lost heavily at Port Hudson, and at Sabine Pass had ninety men captured on the gunboats Sachem and Clifton; they having been detailed to act as sharpshooters. Out of 3:2 men left, 300 have re-relisted for the war. The regiment was raised in Cayuga county, N. Y., in 1861, and left Auburn 1,000 strong.

City Mortality—The number of interments

A DANGEROUS PLACE.—The attention of the proper authorities is called to the unsafe condition of the burned building at Nir th and Wallace streets, and the area in front of it. The latter is now without any guard around it; and on Saturday night a gentleman, in trying to avoid a runaway horse, fell a distance of eight feet to the bottom of the dark hole, among the debris of the partly fallen walls. He made a very narrow escape of his life. As it was he crawled out with a sprained ankle, The overhanging walls of the building are still unremoved, and it is inconceivable why they should be considered more safe now than during the fire, when, from their threatening appearance, ropes were stretched across the street to prevent passing. ENGINEER OF THE GAS WORKS .- The Trustees of the Philadelphia Gas Works made another unsuccessful attempt to elect a Chief Engineer on Saturday afternoon. After the adjournment of the Board the President appointed Thomas S. Stewart acting chief engineer. Mr. Stewart is the caucus nominee of the Democratic members. RUN OVER .- Peter Fagan was run over yes-

An Object of Beauty.—In a novel at a seaside library, this passage was marked and much thumbed. "There is no object so beautiful to me as a conscientious young man—I watch him as I do a star in heaven." "That is my view exactly," sighed Miss Josephine Hoops, as she laid down the volume. "In fact, I think there's nothing so so beautiful as a young man, even if he ain't conscientious," particularly if he has gumption enough to make an elegant appearance by getting his wearing apparent at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 663 and 665 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

CARD WARBURTON'S HATS _The card.—Wareuron's Hars.—The new shapes for Spring wear are now ready. Genulemen are respectfully invited to call and examine them. It is believed that the styles now being offered will prove very pleasing. The brims are made narrower than heretofore, conforming in this respect to the best fashions of London and Paris, and in compliance with the expressed wish of many who give attention to matters of dress in this city as well as in New York. Broader brims will be kept in stock, or made to order for those who desire them.

The prices of silk, as well as felt hats, have necessarily advanced. Nearly every article en-necessarily advanced. Nearly every article en-tering into their construction being either prepared or produced abroad, can consequently be bought only with gold or its equivalent. Such is the en-hanced cost of material and labor that the very lowest grade of silk hat (when made of new stock) lowest grade of silk hat (when made of new stock) cannot be retailed for less than five dollars. Every endeavor has been made to maintain the quality, and to keep near to the prices of the times preceding the rebellion.

Present prices for fine dress hats are now $6 and $7. For blocking or refinishing hats an increase of price is also made necessary.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE CHESTNUT.—At the matine at the Chestnut on Saturday "Fanchon" was handsomely brought out. This evening that superb spectacle and intense drama, "The Octoroon," will be repeated, with all its startling effects.

THE WALNUT.—Laura Keene's company repeated "Rachel the Reaper" and "The Soldier's Daughter" on Saturday night, and the pathos of the former and the fun of the latter play were never given with more charming effect by Miss Keene and her able coadjutors. This evening "She Stoops to Conquer" will be revived, with Miss Keene as Miss Hardcastle, Mr. Peters as Tony Lumpkin, Mr. Dyott as Mr. Hardcastle, Mr. Levick as Young Marlowe, and Mrs. Tyrill as Mrs. Hardcastle. The farce of "Away with Melancholly" closes the entertainment.

THE ARCH.—The fall strength of the star com-

cholly' closes the entertainment.

THE ARCH.—The full strength of the star company at the Arch will be in the cast of 'Rosedale' this evening, Mrs. John Drew reappearing and taking the part of the heroine. The other prominent parts will be taken by Barton Hill, Griffiths, Robson, Wallis, Mrs. M. Carr, and Miss J. Henry. The success of the piece at Wallack's. in New York, induces us to think that it will have a long and brilliant run at the Arch.

THE MINSTRELS.—This evening has been set apart by the members of the Carneross and Dixey Opera Troupe for a benefit to their courteous and efficient treasurer, Mr. R. F. Simpson. Much of the success which has attended the efforts of the company to please the public must be attributed to Mr. Simpson, who has been indefatigable in the performance of his numerous duties. The Opera House on Eleventh street is crowded nightly, but as the number must be immensely increased this evening, we would advise visitors to go early. The programme is one of unusual excellence.
