THE NEW YORK STATE BANKS AND THE NATIONAL BANKS.
A letter from Albany in the N. Y. Tribune, dated April 1st, says: The established banks of this State have long regarded with extreme jealousy the advantages enjoyed by the banking institutions organized under the law of Congress in respect of taxa-The Assembly Committee on Banks, in which the State Bank interest is largely repre sented, suffered this feeling to lead them this morning to present to the Assembly a most unwise and unpatriotic report upon the question of authorizing the State banks and individual bankers to organize under the law of Congress. The report takes the most gloomy view pos sible of the financial prospects of the country, and abounds with those sembre auguries for the future which have hitherto found utterance only in the organs of secession which still exist among us. The reading of the report was commenced and proceeded with for some time, to the amazement of the House. Members who entered during the reading, asked their neighbors if it was the last editorial from The Argus that the clerk was reading. The dissatisfaction finally broke out openly: a motion was made that the further reading of the report be dispensed with, which was carried. Gen. Crooke in a manly and spirited speech then announced the doctrines of the report, and moved that the Committee on Printing, to whom it went under the rule, be instructed to whom it went under the rate of instructed to report against the printing of the document. A debate sprang up at once on this motion, the Democrats full of exultation that this potent weapon was placed in their hands by their adversaries, clamorously insisted upon the printing of the report, and would doubtless have been glad to vote to print 100,000 copies.

The motion of Gen. Crooke was not carried, it being thought best to leave the matter discretionary with the Committee, and the report went to the Committee, where it is safe to assume that it will remain, for it is not likely that two committees can be found in this house so infatuated as to engage in the business of furnishing campaign documents for the enemy.

with reference to this State, and will exhibit the details of the plan of management.

It is not necessary for me to commend this great and good work to the loyal people of Delaware. You have already given with a liberality and labored with a fidelity worthy of all praise. You have been willing and active; and what you have done is the best indication of what you can and will do. Let "every clergyman announce this humane undertaking to his people; let the press give it he widest publicity and the most earnest erc.uragement; let every factory, workshop and mi'l contribute a specimen of the best thing they can turn out; let all loyal men and women exercise their taste and industry." In this way the result may be an honor to our State, a great comfort to our suffering heroes, and an offering well pleasing to the Almighty, whose blessing and assistance I humbly invoke upon this work of Christian charity.

HILTON'S CEMENT.— The Insoluble

Gement of the Messrs Hilton Brothers is certainly the best article of the kind ever invented.

It should be kept in every manutactory, workshop
