THE WAR FOR THE UNION FROM CAIRO AND MEMPHIS.

CAIRO, April 4.—The reamer Constitution, from New Orleans on the 26th, arrived here to day with a cargo of sugar and molasses for Cincinnati and St. Louis. She also brought up 426 mules and 70 wagons, belonging to the army.

The 1st Indiana artiflery (veteran) regiment, 1,500 strong, arrived here to day, on their way for New Orleans. A portion of the 3d Minnesota also ar ived, on their way to Lit le Rock.

CAIRO, April 4.—The Memphis papers of the 2d inst., contain no news.

The Bulkin contains no news of importance. The cotton market is firm but quiet. There is considerably in jury, but little is offering. Rates had an upward tendency. The market closed on the 1st with an upward tendency, a 1 qualities having advanced from ½ to 1 per cent. above the previous quotations. naving navanced from % to 1 per cent. above the previous quotations.

The surplus during the pretiwenty-fours was 350 bales frem White river and 75 bales from the county. The shipments north since the last report were 200 bales of middling to strict at 59a60c ter good, and 55 for fair.

port were 200 bales of middling to strict at 59a60c for good, and 65 for fair.

MEMPHIS, April 2.—Forrest, at the last accounts, was at Jackson, Tenn. He was apparently arranging to travel south.

Chalmers is reported to have a considerable force at Grand Junction and Boilvar.

Grierson's cavalry are all out, and will give Forrest some trouble.

In a fight near Somerville, Tenn., Col. Hart, of the 64th Tennessee cavalry, reports a loss of three officers and seventy-five men killed, wounded and missing.

Advices from Vicksburg to the 29th, report al quiet at that point.

There is no news from the Red River expe Lee and Wirt Adams are reported to be near Canton, Miss., with their commands.

FROM WASHINGTON.

MOVEMENTS OF GENERAL GRANT.
WASHINGTON, April 4.—Lieutenant General
Hrant, accompanied by General Rawlins and Ool.
Comstock, arrived at noon to-day from Fertress Monroe. He will probably go to the Army of the Monroe. He will photosis go to the firm of the Potomac to-morrow.

The Senate having recently called on the Secretary of War for the order of Major-General Dix to Provost Marshal Dodge, relative to the Maryland election, the Secretary responds that no such document is known to the officers of his department, ument is known to the officers of his department, or is to be found in its archives.

From a letter of Attorney-General Bates, and legal and other papers accompanying it, which were communicated to the Senate to-day, relative to the bequest of Commander Levy of the homestead of Jefferson to the United States, it appears that the property includes Monticello, $200,000 in real estate in New York, and $100,000 in stocks It is bequeathed in trust for an agricultural school for the support and education of the children of warrant officers of the navy. The case having been taken to the New York Court of Appeals. Attorney-General Bates suspends any recommendation at present, but is disposed to look with little favor on the assumption of such trusts for merely charitable objects.

favor on the assumption of such trusts for merely charitable objects.

The United States Minister at Rome, General King, writes that the Americans in Rome have made liberal contributions to the Metropolitan Fair for the Sanitary Commission, about to be held in New York, and that the Pope and Cardinal Antonelli have joined in the contributions.

The Secretary of the Treasury has determined to issue to parties preferring them, ten-forty bonds bearing interest from date of subscription, thus avoiding the necessity of paying accrued interest from March let, as required under former instructions. This arrangement extends to all the agencies for the sale of this loan.

THE PIRATE ALABAMA.

NEW YORK, April 4.—The pirate Alabama was at the Cape of Good Hope on the 19th of February, with thirty of her crew sick with the yellow fever.

THE THIRD NEW JERSEY CAVALRY.
HAVRE DE GRACE, MD., April 4.—The 3d New Jersey Cavalry regiment arrived at Perryville,
Maryland, at three o'clock to-day, where steamers were waiting to convey them to Annapolis.
The regiment presented a fine appearance.

THE CONTINENTAL THEATRE TRAGEDY—CONCLUSION OF THE CORONER'S IN. QUEST.

Coroner Taylor yesterday afternoon resumed the inquest in the case of Margaret Baer, who was shot at the Continental Theatre on Saturday night last. Three or four witnesses were examine corroborated the previous testimony. The following evidence in regard to the pistol was taken: ing evidence in regard to the pisiol was taken:

Robert Hoadley, sworn—Live at 1129 Ellsworth street; was at the Continental Theatre on Saturday night, between eight and nine o'clock; went there for the purpose of seeing the performance; was not aware that the deceased was there when I went;
I had a pistol which the prisoner wanted to borrow from me for self-protection; he said Maggie was over in the box, and he was going there, but he was afraid that a man who was there might injure him; he promised to use it only in was over in the box, and he was going there, but he was afrad that a man who was there might injure him; he promised to use it only in self-protection; I gave it to him; he went down towards the box where she was, and the next thing I heard was the report of the pistol, and three shots fired in succession; did not know the girl was shot; he appeared to be somewhat under the influence of liquor; he drank with me in the bar; I saw him between three and four o'clock on Saturday afternoon, in the Red Robin; there was no quarreling there; he played a game of euchre with me and two other parties; did not see Maggie there; he said nothing whatever about Maggie while in the theatre; the pistol had three loads in it, which I placed in myself; can't say how he knew I had a pistol in my possession; he asked me if I had one, and I told him yes; the only way I can account for his knowing it is that he knew I had one some time previous, never heard him threaten her on any occasion, and I have seen him quarrel with her, but not threaten to do her any bodily injury.

Mr. Hoadley identified the pistol as the one he loaned the prisoner.

This witness was then handed over to an officer by authority of the Coroner.

The jury then retired, and after deliberating a few minutes rendered the following verdict: The said Margaret Baer came to her death by pistol shots fired on the evening of the second of April, about nine o'clock, at the Continental Theatre; said pistol shots having been fired by Wm. Maguire.

Subsequently the Coroner, jury and reporters visited the cell where the prisoner was confined. The Coroner asked him his name. He replied: "William Anderson Maguire. I am nearly twenty of age. Have been helping father lately in his blacksmith shop; was also engaged as fireman on a railroad."

The Coroner then told him of the verdict which had been rendered by the introvand asked him if he

The Coroner then told him of the verdict which had been rendered by the jury, and asked him if he had any statement to make.

The prisoner seemed greatly affected and replied that he had no statement to make.

GUARDIANS OF THE POOR.

The stated meeting of the Board was held yesterday afternoon.
