GOLD MEDAL GRAND, SQUARE, UPRIGHT PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe, as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862.

The principal reason why the Steinway Planos are superior to all others is, that the firm is composed of five practical pianoforte makers (father and four sons), who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured.

I AM CURED.

'I have taken six doses of Radway's Pills, of three pills each, in six days; they cured me of Constipation, Indigestion and Dyspepsia. I have taken B—th's, A—rs's, and many other pills for years, and could only obtain temporary relief. If I stopped the use of these pills for a week my old complaint would appear. Six doses of Radway's Pills cured me. STEPHEN BENNETT,

"I have suffered with Dyspepsia and Liver pills—they would give me temporary completed to take them all the time. I have used one box of Dr. Radway's Pills, I am cured, I have not taken a particle of medicine in six months. O. M CHILDS, Roxbury, Mass."

Dr. Radway's Pills always cure, no straining, tenesmus, false calls to the water closet. Follow their use—they purge freely and cure rapidly.

EVENING BULLETIN

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6, 1864.

THE PEOPLE AND THE ADMINISTRATION. An antique Gothic proverb says that in a fight the grip of a coward is fierce at the outset, but that it soon relaxes; while the wilder the fray in which a hero struggles the sterner and more inexorable his grasp and the stronger his blows. The loyal people of America now illustrate this proverb, by the grand and heroic way in which they stand by the Administration as the war progresses. Instead of flinching, cringing and electing opposition tickets, so as to hint to the rebels that they are sick of the war, the loyal voters march up to the ballot box and testify to their servants at Washington, to their brethren in the field, to the rebellious hordes, and to the whole civilized world, that the Union must be preserved, that liberty must triumph, and that nothing can impede the onward march of the great Republic, Here we see the old Roman spirit of our Revolutionary fathers appearing among their children. We see it among the White Mountains of New Hampshire, in the green valleys of Connecticut, among the lovely inland lakes and rivers of New York, and in the very homes of traitors like Vallandigham in Ohio. The manly determination of true Americans will not down's at the beck of armed or secret traitors. Like the great warrior of Carthage, they have registered a patriotic oath and they keep it sacred. We exult with our whole heart over such evidence of the courage of true Americans, and can listen with calm contempt to the Copperhead sneers at the army, their falsehoods about the President, their abuse of our generals, their clamor against "greenbacks" and Government bonds. Their venomous utterances pass like the idle wind, for we know that they can make no impression on a people so true and tried as those who uphold the pillars of the Union. And the reward of this long-suffering must come at last. This patient land, bearing its mighty burdens so steadfastly, so calmly, must soon rise up before the nations, freed from all forms of oppression, glorious in strength and beauty. Her beacon-light fully relumed once more, to cast its radiance to the darkest corners of the earth, will again be the central magne to draw all men towards it. Then too, as the poet tells us of the "inexorable past," on treasures will be returned in the glory and the

THE PASSENGER RAILWAY EXCHANGE SYSTEM. The Committee on City Passenger Railroads have agreed to report favorably to the berauty of their prime, and even of the rebel-

House at Harrisburg, a bill making all exchange tickets good until used, whatever statements may be made on the face of the little colored pieces of pasteboard issued by the different companies. Such a Legislative enactment has long been needed, and it is to be hoped that the members of both Houses will see the importance and propriety of adopt ing the views thus recommended. It has been estimated by persons who, from their connection with these corporations, must be considered good authority, that at least fifteen per cent. of the exchange tickets which are placed in circulation are never used, partly from the carelessness or forgetfulness of the purchaser, but more particularly from the regulation which compels him to use the ex-not in their pockets one or more of these reminders of money uselessly expended. The additional three cents asked for the exchange adds greatly to the profits of the companies, and they should have long since voluntarily relinquished the tempting per centage, resulting from the failure of their patrons to use the issue. Their failure to do so has made the interposition of the Legislature necessary, and to their own parsimony alone, must they change on the same day it is purchased. In-that there are but few of our citizens who have from such interference. On the sixth of May of last year an act "To prevent frauds upon travelers," in this case certainly a very appropriate title, was approved by the Governor, and for the information of the public, and also of the companies, some of which appear to have forgotten its provisions, we publish section five, which reads thus:

we publish section five, which reads thus:

'That it shall be the duty of the owner or owners of railroads, steamboats and other public conveniences, to provide for the redemption of the whole, or any parts, or coupous, of any ticket or tickets, as they may have sold, as the purchaser for any reason, has not used and does not desire to use, at a rate which shall be equal to the difference between the price paid for the whole ticket and the cost of a ticket between the points for which the proportion of said ticket was actually used; and the sale by any person of the unused portion of any ticket, otherwise than by the presentation of the same for redemption, as provided for in this section, shall be deemed to be a violation of the provisions of this act, and shall be punished, as is hereinbefore provided. Provided. That this act shall not prohibit any person who has purchased that itself the bona fide intention of travelling upon the same, from selling any part of the same to any ether person, it such person travels upon the same."

With such an explicit provision we cannot imagine why the corporations have persisted in imagine why the corporations have persisted in printing upon their tickets the absurd requirement that their exchange tickets must be used upon the day they are issued. One company has, we are informed, been always willing to accede to such a just arrangement, and there is no reason why it should not be unanimous,

EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS. We hope that the recent reports from Fortress Monroe are correct, and that the interview beeral Butler, has resulted in an arrangement for the exchange of prisoners. It cannot be believed that General Butler could be induced to make any but a fair agreement, for his acute ness and courage are of the quality which experience has tried, and as a negotiator he has but few equals. There are thousands of prisoners languishing in rebel dungeons who should have been rescued from the clutch of their persecutors long since, and we most earnestly hope that nothing will now interfere with that consummation. PORTRAIT OF THE PRESIDENT.—An elaborate engraving on steel, we are told, is in advanced progress by the accomplished hand of Mr. J. Sartain of this city, from the large portrait in oil painted some time back at the White House, by our townsman E. D. Marchant. This work, from its simplicity of design, dignity of air and expression, and great force of resemblance, has won the entire approval of original. We wish Mr. Sartain complete success in his desirable undertaking. MR. WOLFSOHN'S SOIREE

Last night was enjoyed by quive a large audience of music lovers in spite of the tempest out-doors. The Kreutzer Sonata by Besthoven, always a favorite, was rendered in a masterly manner by Wolfsohn and Thomas, who seemed to reveal new beauties in its composition. Wolfsohn's Transcription of Gounod's "Faust," brought out, as in a grand procession, all the leading airs of that remarkable opera and was played with striking effect on the Steinway grand.

The Tarantella of Schubert added increased prestige to Mr. Thomas's reputation as a solo vio-linist of the first rank. The Schumann Quintette, one of the most spirited of this composer's works, was vigorously performed by Mr. Wolfsohn and his talented assistants. Thomas's beautiful tone and fine execution gave sparkling brilliancy to his important part in the quintette.

MOLDED COLLARS Have now been refere the public for nearly a year. They are universally pronounced the neatest and best fitting collars extant.

The upper edge presents a perfect curve, free from the angles noticed in all other collars. The cravat causes ro puckers on the inside of the turn-down collar—they are AS SMOOTH IN-SIDE AS OUTSIDE—and therefore perfectly fre and easy to the neck.

The Garotte Ocliar has a smooth and evenly Lished edge on Both Sides. These Collars are not simply flat pieces of paper cut in the form of a Collar, but are MOLDED AND SHAPED TO FIT THE NECK.

They are made in "Novelty" (or turn-down style); in every half size from 12 to 17 inches and in . Eureka', (or Garotte,) from 13 to 17 inches; and packed in "solid sizes" in neathine cartons, containing 100 each; also in smaller ones of 10 eachthe latter a very hardy package for Travelers, Aimy and Navy Officers.
