SENATE -- Mr. Hale, from the Committee on faval Affairs, reported back the resolution in 'ro-need by Mr. Grimes yesterday to repeal the joint resolution for the transfer of seamen from the mill tary to the naval service, accompanied by a report, h was ordered to be printed

Mr. Hale also reported from the same committee on the bill to amend the act relative to certain offion the bill to amend the act relative to certain on-cers of the navy, with a report also on the bill in relation to supples, and adversely on the bill re-lative to paymastors' clerks, with amendments. He also reported in favor of passing the bill to amend the act to regulate the grade of line officers of the navy, and in favor of the resolution of thanks a definited porter and the resolution to com jento Admiral Porter, and the resolution to compen-sate the crew of the gunboat Baron de Kalb for loss, snd adversely to the pethodat ball of a variant olifers. Mr. Morrill off-red a resolution for printing one thousand copies of the report of the engineers of the Washington aqueduct for the use of the Inte-rior Department, which was referred to the Com-mittee on Printing. Trumbull, the following reso-untion was adopted:

On motion of Mr. Transbull, the following reso-lution was adopted: Resolved, That the Secretary of the Interior be directed to inform the Senate what am sunt of fees and emoluments of every kind and character ware received by the Attorney and Marsnal of the United States for the District of Columbia re-spectively, and by the clerks of the several Courts-for the said District during the year ending Do-cember 31, 1863, and what amount was allowed to each of the said officers for deputies, clerks, office rent, and othor incidental expenses during the same period. (Wr.) called an his marching in yent, and other incidental expenses during the same period. Mr. Bavis (Ky.) called up his resolution in-structing the Judiciary Committee to inquire and report whether or not Mr. Yosum, late of Gairo, is now confined in the Albany penitentiary, under éentence of court-martial, though having received a full pardon from the President. Mr. Grimes (Iowa) suggested an amendment, as follows:

Mr. Grimes (Iowa) suggested an amendment, as follows: "And that the committee report to the Senate the charges, &c., on which Yocum was tried." Mr. Invis accepted the amendment, and ex-plained the facts of the case, saying Yocum had had charge of the contrabands at Gairo, ard a loyal slaveholder of Kentucky having come there and taken steps in accordance with the fugitive slave act, carried off his runaway slaves-for al-lowing which Yocum was tried and committed to the Old Capitol here; but was subsequently fully pardoned by the President, the day after which he was sent by the Secretary of War to the Albany penilentlary.

pardoned by the President, the day after which he was sent by the Secretary of War to the Albany penitentiary. After further discussion the subject went over. The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the joint resolution amending the Constitution. Mr. Hendricks said he would not have been in. duced to say a word, but for the charge made by Mr. Hale, yestercay. that Mr. Buchanan's ad-ministration was responsible for this war. He claimed that the Democratic party at that time did all that it could to prevent hostilities, and if the Republicans had done as much as the Democrats the conflict might have been avoided. Every Democrat voted for the compromise measures, and every Republican against them. What does the Senator see to rejoice at in the prospect around him? He supposed the Senator was gratified when he con-templated the effect upon four millions of ne-groes. Toes he suppose this measure would ben-efit those who before had good musters to take care of them? When his labor came into contact with the free labor of the North, the calamities which must ensue would be frightful. He denied that the history of the last year afforded any ground for exuitation and joy. If these freed persons of color were to remain which must ensue would be frightful. He denied that the history of the last year afforded any ground for exultation and joy.

If these freed persons of color were to remain amongst us; it could never be on terms of equality, but as inferiors. As the Senator from Delaware well said, it was the work of God that this inieriority exists. He found nothing in the past history of the negroes to justify the belief that they would be elevated by contact with white men. He did not consider this the time to change our organic law. Three-fourths of the people must agree to this by their Legislatures. He asked the Senator in what condition were the p-ople of Kentucky, subject to invasion daily: of Maryland, in which there were no free elections; and Delaware, in which the elections were controlled by provations as well as New Hampshire? for Florida as well as Indiana? Without inquiring by whose fault the States were in rebellion, were the senators to allow that a State could take advantage of its own fault, three-fourths of the State must agree to the State must agree to all the state must as a well as New Hampshire? for Florida as well as Indiana? Without inquiring by whose fault the States were in rebellion, were the senators to allow that a State could take advantage of its own fault, three-fourths of the State must agree to this state must agree to the state must agree to the state of the state must agree to the state and the state must agree to the state must a ment before it becomes binding, Mr. Howard (Mich.) said an opportunity was offered to all the States to vote on this subject, but that treason prevented them from doing so Mr. Collamer (VL.) said that though the rebel-lious States who refused to vote would be enume-rated in the count, their refusal to vote would not operate if a three-fourths vote was secured in fa-vor of the measure.

operate if a three-fourths vote was secured in fa-vor of the measure. Mr. Hendricks would have no objection to this measure if it was adopted by each State, for he believed slavery was the creature of local law. It was a grave question whether three fourths of the States could lay hands on an instantion of the other fourth without their consent, all being partes in the original genement, all being partes in the original greement, all he dd not intend here to discuss the moral question. With that he had nothing to do. Mr. Henderson said that as the author of the bill originally introduced on this subject, which provides not only for the extinguishment of slavery, but for a different mode hereafter of secaring amendments to the Constitution, he would have preferred its adoption in that form, but as a majority of the Judiciary Committee had thought differently he was prepared to yield to their judgment. The loyal owners of slaves in the slave States had made up their minds as to the course to pursue on this subject, without regard to what have been their opinions heretofore.
He proceeded to argue that slavery had been protected, and not warred on to the extent charged in the past, by the Northern people; and mentioned that an amendment hat once been proposed to the Constitution prohibiling any interference with slavery, but it was not supported by Southern men. At the time of the election in 1860 the project call to act as the slavery from the territories, it did not say a slave should not be a republican party was to exclude slavery from the territories, it did not say a slate should to take slavery aferwards if the people thought proper; and it was not supported by so made the anti-slavery prejudice as it was the corruptions of the Buchana Administration which sectores were in bondage, and finally asserting the mannet for the environes. At the sonies of the Buchana the provide of the mannet was the corruption of the more the constitution which sectores to a slave should not was the corruption. great conflict which was the turning point in the career of the rebellion. The field, with its redoubts, wonderful stone defences, its timber breast-works itsforest heights, with the trees torn by shells and countless builets, and its long lines of earthwork defences, have all been preserved intact, and to so continue to preserve them, as to be a monument forever of the greatest of American Battle-fields, is the object of the formation of the Association. To enable a large number of persons to join in this patriotic work, the projectors of the plan placed the subscriptions at ten dollars each. The payment of this sum MAKES BACH SUBSCRIBER A MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATION, AND PART OWNER OF THE GLOBIOUS FIELD OF GETTYSBURG.

What Loyal and Patriotic Citizen of Pennsylvania would not gladly embrace the privilege of recording his name upon this roll of honor, and of linking himself directly with the field where the lofty heroism of his countrymen vindicated the integrity of the Union and the principles of Free dom ? And who would not desire to hand down as a precious heir-loom to his children the evidence f his part in the good work, bearing, as the certificate will, a view of the field which will rank in history with THERMOPYLE, MARATHON and WA-TERLOO ?

There are no salaried officers in this Association. nor are there any objects in view in its creation other than those already stated. The grounds were purchased from their original owners at the exact price to be paid for them by the Association, and the points selected, and the prices to be paid for hem, met the unqualified approval of a committee of the HISTORICAL LOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA, appointed for the purpose of visiting the field. The following are the names of the general officers of the Association, and of the Local Committee in Philadelphia : OFFICERS.

of the Army remains unreached, and double the number, both of stations and delegates, are needed to meet the urgent demand for them. The Christian Commission offers to the people a perfectly reliable and wonderfully economical channel to reach the entire army in all its various fields. The money given goes in full measure, in benefits for body and soul, directly to the Soldiers; and stores also, immediately from the hands of delegates from home, who add words and deeds of kit dness to the gifts when bestowed. Let the people give the Money and Stores, and the work will be dong. The large corps of Delegates now in the field will serve as a grand. corps of relef when the armies shall move and battles be fought, and the greater their number the more prompt and effec-tive will be the relief they shall render. Let not the present work languish. Wait not for the cry of the wounded and dying before pro-viding relief. Send now and send soundantly both money and stores, and the soldiers' blessing shall be upon yon.
