EVENING BULLETIN MONDAY, APRIL 11, 1864.

A WORD TO DEMOCRATS. Webster defines Democracy in the following words: "Government by the people; a form of Government in which the supreme power is lodged in the hands of the people collectively, or in which the people exercise the powers of legislation."

In the House of Representatives, at Washington, on Saturday, a scene occurred pending a motion, made by Mr. Colfax, the Speaker, to expel Mr. Long, of Ohio, for advocating the recognition of the Southern "Gonfederacy," of which the telegraph gives us a pithy report: "Mr. Harris (Md.) endorsed every sentiment uttered by Mr. Long yesterday, and he would stand by the latter for weal or for woe. If there was any honesty in any party they would rise like a hurricane and sweep away those who are preying on the vitals of the Republic. He (Mr. Harris) was not only in favor of recognizing the Southern Confederacy, but acquiesced in the doctrine of Sc cestion. "A scene of great excitement ensued, owing to the words of Mr. Harris, and for this he was compelled to take his seat.

"Mr. Fernando Wood (N.Y.) said the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. Long) had declared in his written speech that he would prefer the recognition of the Southern Confederacy as an alternative rather than the people of the South should be subjugated and exterminated, and he (Mr. Wood) endorsed this, and they could expel him for it."

Do the democracy stop to reflect that all the speeches made and votes cast to sustain this Copperhead Long, who professes to represent an overwhelmingly Union State, were from Democrats, or rather from men elected by the so-called democratic party? Do they reflect upon the principles actuating the rebellious faction which this traitor Long proposes to recognize? A section which has governed the nation, either directly or indirectly, fully fourfifths of the time that it has been a nation, enters into an election and failing to carry it according to its own wishes, refuses to abide by the result and makes war upon the majority. And this is done in the name of Democracy. The Democracy which believes in "a form of government in which the supreme power is lodged in the hands of the people collectively."

How far this rebellious section has carried ont in practice the democratic principles which it pretended to adhere to in theory, is illustrated, first, by the refusal to abide by the will of the people, lawfully expressed at the ballotbox; by the tyranny of the oligarchy at Richmond; by the persecution of all men in the slave States who have endeavored to maintain the Union; by the attempt to elevate Capital above Labor, through Slavery, and by utterly ignoring every principle of equality, justice, and fair play. This species of Democracy cost us Bull Run, Ball's Bluff, Big Bethel, the Cumberland and the Congress, scores of thousands of precious lives, wounds and mainings almost without number, grief and sorrow inexpressible, thousands of millions of dollars in treasure, devassation among our commerce upon the high seas, and now, as the last grand sacrifice, the patent Democracy of the day calls upon us to give up our nationality, to permit the Union that Washington, Adams and Jefferson formed, and Madison and Jackson sustained, to be destroyed, the nation dismembered and disgraced, its flag degraded, the name of the great republic rendered a by-word and reproach, and the hope of true Republican liberty and genuine Democracy put back for centuries. And all this to be done in the name of Democracy! Such Democracy as stole Government dollars, bonds and cannon; such Democracy as fired upon the stars and stripes at Fort Sumter, and such Democracy as made almost a St. Bartholomew of New York in July last, Messrs. Long, Cox, Harris and Wood are not quite so daring as the party which followed up the bold work commenced by the "Venerable Ruffin" at Charleston, nor so openly beastly as the brutes they instigated to rob, murder and burn in New York; but they are no less mischievous and dangerous.

Let the genuine but deluded Democracy ponder the truth, that such sentiments as those uttered by the Copperhead orators upon the floor of Congress, on Saturday, would not be tolerated by any other government under Heaven but our own; that from the time of the beginning of earthly powers down to the present period, such impudent treason would be rewarded with the Tarpeian rock, the bow-string, the guillotine, the Bastile, the stake, the block, the gallows, or exile, anywhere but in the loyal States of America. We are more merciful in our own country and in our own day and generation. Let the Democrats also remember that no country can exist long in a state of anarchy. Such sentiments as those uttered on Saturday must, if suffered to pass unrebuked, result in anarchy, and anarchy, ever since the world began, has inevitably given birth to arbitrary power. Madame Roland, when on her way to the guillotine, during the Reign of Terror, exclaimed "Ah! Liberty! what crimes are committed in thy name!" We might repeat the exclamation of the talented French woman, and say, "Oh! Democracy, what crimes are com. mitted in thy name !" When the name of Liberty is used and abused to sanction the worst of tyranny, and when Democracy is made the synonym for barbarism, despotism, and treachery, and when its creatures preach treason in the Capitol of the Nation, it is time for genuine Democrats to take the alarm, and for those who are deluded by a barren name to be admonished.

THE ORPHANS OF OUR HEROES. In his last annual message, Governor Curtin commended to the attention of the Legislature, the subject of the relief of the orphan children of our brave soldiers who have fallen victims of the rebellion, and expressed his opinion that their maintenance and education should be provided for by the State. This recommendation is in consonance numerous others equally noble, with which have emanated from our Chief Executive, and is one which demands the earnest prompt action of the members of the Legislature, relieving as it will the necessities of many destitute families of heroes who have given their lives to their country. To obtain the necessary facts as to the number of children who will probably become dependent upon the State's liberality, if the suggestion is carried out, that the members may vote understandingly in the matter, the Superintendent of Common Schools of the Commonwealth has sent to the School Directors of each district a series of questions, desiring information as the number of children whose fathers have been killed, or who have died in the military or naval service: if there are any institutions of learning in their county, that will undertake to provide for the maintenance and education of a number of such orphans, if security be given that all reasonable expenses shall be paid by the State; and how many children each school will be able to re-

The subject is one of such great importance that prompt answers should be made to the interrogatories, and when once all the facts are ascertained, there should be no unnecessary delay in the passage of an enactment which, while it brings joy and relief to thousands of homes, will be approved by every loyal citizen of Pennsylvania. The fathers of the little ones whom it is thus intended to benefit nobly gave up their lives in defence of the land of their nativity or adoption, and it is surely due to their unselfish patriotism, that their offspring, suddenly bereft of their usual support, should be adopted by the people of a Commonwealth which owes so much to its martial

We have upon more than one occasion referred to the subject, but as the Legislative session is drawing to a close and no definite action has been taken, we again carnestly call attention to its importance.

WILLIAM D. TICKNOR, Esc., of the firm of Ticknor & Fields, of Boston, died at the Continental Hotel in this city, yesterday morning, aged 53 years. He arrived here last Tuesday. in company with Nathaniel Hawthorne, who was advised by his physician to leave home on account of his health. Mr. Ticknor took a cold during a drive that day, which settled upon his lungs, and the disease made such rapid progress that his family did not arrive in time to be with him before his death. He received, however, every attention from Mr. Hawthorne, from the proprietors of the hotel and from various friends in this city. Mr. Ticknor was a gentleman of high character and excellent business qualities, and his sudden death will be sincerely deplored wherever he was known. LIFE OF PRESIDENT LINCOLN.—On next Wednesday Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers will publish a new life of President Lincoln, brought down to the latest dates. It gives a sketch of his early career, with a full account of his speeches, proclamations and services as President. It has been prepared with great care and may be relied on as accurate and impartial. It
