XXXVIIITH CONGRESS-FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, April II. SENATE.—After a personal controversy between Messrs. Grimes (Iowa) and Hale (N. H.), Mr. Wade reported from the Committee on the conduct of the war the evidence in the recent Florida campaign, which was ordered to be printed. Mr. Wilson reported from the Mulitary Committee a bill authorizing the formation of a battalion of veteran engineers. The Senate proce

nate proceeded to the consideration of the House bill making appropriations for the Nava service, as reported with amendments to the Se nate. House, —On motion of Mr. Holman (Ind.) the Journal was corrected so as to make it accord with the fact that Mr. Harris, of Maryland, on Satur-day used the word 'subjugation' instead of 'subjection' of the South, in connection with the remarks for which he was 'severely consured.'' The Speaker laid before the House Gen. Grant's report of the battle of Ubattanooga and the reports of the sub-commanders, which were ordered to be printed.

Mr. Hooper (Mass.) introduced a National bank or correctly bill, the consideration of which was postponed till Saturday. Mr. Broomall (Pa.) offered a resolution instruct-ing the Committee on Naval Affairs to report a bill for the location of a navy yard and depot on the Delaware river. Debate arising, the resolution went over. went over.

went over. By unanimous consent on motion of Mr. Stevens it was resolved that when the House adjourns it be to Thursday, in order to enable members to attend the funeral of John C. Rives, late an officer of the House

Resolved, That it is the duty of the Government to listen to and consider any proposition for reconciliation that may be offered by the insur-gents, which does not involve the question of sepa-ration.

Resolved, That the thanks of the nation are due

Resolved, That the thanks of the nation are due and are hereby tendered to the officers and soldlers and seamen who have so gallantly borne our flag in the hour of peril to our country. The House proceeded to the consideration of the resolution heretoire offered by Mr. Finck (Ohio) reafirming the principles of the Crittendan resolu-tion, that the war was not waged for the purpose of conquest, but for the restoration of obedience to the Constitution, with the rights and equality of the states unimpaired, etc. On motion of Mr. Wilson, the resolution was tabled by a vote of Sl against 64.

Wison, the resolution was tabled by a vote of Mr. against 64. The House took up the consideration of Mr. Colfax's resolution to expel Mr. Long (Ohio.) Mr. Bliss (Ohio) did not concur in the views of only his own opinion and to prefer recognition of the Confederacy only as a choice between that and colfax in offering the resolution of expulsion was mistaken in his construction of Mr. Long's speech,

AN ELEVATED RIDE.—A couple of New York soldiers created quite an excitement yester-day afteraoon at Fairmeunt, by driving on the walks around the basin in a carriage.
