ADVENTURES OF A UNION SPY.

Guite accidentally, yesterday, a lady friend called our attention to an invalid occupying a room at the Soldiers' Home. We called upon him this morning and found him philosophizing hope fully upca military movements and changes. A portion of his narrative was so interesting that we will endeavor to reproduce it for the entertainment

Will endeavor to reproduce it for the entertainment of our readers. "My name is Joshua W. Wood. I am twenty-four years of age, and a native of Philadelphia. I enlisted in the 13th Illinois Infautry, Col. John B. Wyman, in April, 1861. After participut ng, with my regiment, in the action at Camp Jackson, Mis-souri, and the battle of Pea Ridge, I entered the Secret service.

zentence, and gave me nye days to prepare for ex-ecution. "On October 13, 1262, the scaffold was in readi-mess in the State House yard. Nearly fifteen thou-sand citizens were collected to witness my dying agonies, and the military were formed in hollow square around my apparent death bed. I was so weak that I could not walk to the scaffold, and was accordingly conveyed thither upon a dray. I fancy I sat upon my cofin with the usual grace, for I preferred death to a dungeon. I was helped upon the scaffold, and the black cap adjusted over my eyes. Further proceedings would have been indefinitely postponed by my acceptance of the oath of allegiance; but I was always national, and preferred to die thus.

At this interesting period General Hindman <sup>14</sup>At this interesting period General Hindman appeared at the place of execution. He was ac-companied by General Joe Johnston, who had just arrived to take command of the department. "The latter was an old acquaintance of my fam-ily; and he at once recognized me. He asked my name and then informed me that I was from Philadelphia. He postponed the ceremonies for four days, and ordered that I be conveyed to his headquarters.

Meadquarters. "For nearly six hours we had an interesting in-terchange of opinion. He endenvored to ascertain if I were really a spy, but certain questions of his remained unanswered. He acknowledged that alavery was the direct cause of the war, and ap-peared to be doubtful of the success of the ra-bellion.

"I was ordered to the jail, where I was placed in an iron cage and very humanely treated. After an imprisonment of five days I was released upon parole, with the city limits for my prison walls. Notwithstanding this leniency, General Johnston privately stated that he believed me to be a spy. "Through the influence of the Provost Marshal at Little Rock, I was allowed to go to Arkansas Post for the benefit of my health—the finest oppor-tunity to obtain information I could have desired. On my return I was puroled and allowed to pro-ceed to Memphis. I was exchanged in January last, but my arduous labors have so impaired my health that I am yet unfit for duty."

health that I am yet unfit for duty." DESTRUCTIVE RAIN STORM IN VIRGINIA. [Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.] ALEXANDRIA, Va., April 10, 1954.—The rain storm yesterday and has night was the most de-structive to the railread of the seas on. The streams between this place and the Army of the Potomac, which were already very high, were swollen beyond all precedent. Old ditizens along the line of the road say that they never before saw such a flood. The railroad bridges are very badly damaged, and the communication with the army by rail has been broken, the train which left Brandy Station at fifteen minutes to eight o'clock yesterday being the last train that has arrived here. The bridge over Bull Run, near Union Mills, is entirely gone this morning. This structure was ene hundred and fifty feet long and some thirty. Five feet above the bed of the stream. The bridge was at best but a poor apology for one, it being of the famous, or rather infamous Houpt pattern. Its loss is a gain to the Government, as a new one is already framed and ready for raising as soon as. the water subsides. Colonel Wentz thinks he will be able to eross the stream with a train to-morrow. At Edsall's Sition twe or three treatiles noder

Colonel Wentz thinks he will be able to cross the stream with a train to-morrow. At Edsall's Station two or three trestles nnder the bridge over Cameron run were washed away, as were also several yards of embankment. Be-tween Edsall's and Burke's Stations several hen yy landslides occurred; but a large force of laborers cleared the track, so as to allow the repair train to pass this forenoon. The bridge over Broad run, at Bristoe Station, is but slightly injured, and will be easily repaired. The bridge over Kattle run, two miles west of Bristoe, has moved down stream about two feet. This structure is about sightly feet long and sixty feet high, and is an ugly customer The next damage done was at Cedar run, where the lower section of trestle was carried away. This bridge is a trestle-work, two stories run, where the lower section of trestle was carried away. This bridge is a trestle work, two stories high, and one of the best on the road. The Rappa-hannock bridge is safe as yet, though large quan-hannock bridge is safe as yet, though large has been slight, and the trains are running regularly, though a portion of the track at this end of the Long Bridge is under water. The flats on the Vir-ginia side of the Potemac are out of sight, and the river is slowly receding. The army will not be inconvenienced by these breaks, as sufficient sup-ples are on hand at the front to subsist it until the road can be repaired. Colonel Wentz and Major McCricket promise that the regular trains shall run on Tuesday next. run on Tuesday next.

A UNION ORGANIZATION IN TEXAS.

A UNION ORGANIZATION IN TEXAS. [Correspondence of the Missouri Democrat.] Fort SMITH, April 6.—A letter, written by an old gentleman in Texas to his con in the army here, among other items, gives an account of the organi-zation of the Union forces under Henry Boren. When Gen. Henry McCullough got wind of it he sent word to Boren to come out from his strong-hold- the Journegon Thicket-and join the rebel army. Boren told McO. he was doing very well where he was. McCullough sent another order to Boren to come out, or he would sen dQuantrell or Parsons after him. Boren told him to go to n-ll, and send Quantrell. He wished no better fun than to kill that great scoundrel. McCullough then and offered a compromise. He agreed with Boren to let him go to the frontier to fight the Indians, and not employ him against Federal troops. He was and farnish them with arms and ammunition at the expiration of the stipulated time. Such great Humbers of men Hocked to Moren the Work Weiter the to give all foren's men a inflorent for interior at and furnish them with arms and ammunition at the expiration of the stipulated time. Such great numbers of men flocked to Boren that McUullough began to be alarmed and sent troops out in every direction to intercept Boren's men, and all who were caught were pressed into the rebel army. Those who refused were imprisoned, heavily ironed, and not a few suffered death. Boren, how-ever, still has a strong force defying all attempts of the rebels to subdue him.

CANADIAN ELECTION. CANADIAN ELECTION. MONTREAL, April 10.—The Hon. George E. Oartier, Attorney. General for Canada East, and Hon. T. Darcy McGee, Commissioner of Agricul. ture, were elected to Parliament for Montreal Oliy to-day by acclamation. The Hon. A. T. Galt, Finance Commissioner, was elected by ac-clamation for the town of Sherbrooke.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION AT HARTFORD, CT HARTFORD, April 11. -- At an annual city olection to-day the Union party elected their candidates for Mayor, City Olerk, Auditor, City Marshal and Water Commissioner, and carried four wards out of the six making the city government strongly Union for the first time in elect y cars. Union for the arbi tino in organ years, .A

seized the present griden opportunity of rast to-the Army to extend its work for the good of the Soldiers. STATIONS have been multiplied, each with its chapel and store tents, free writing tables, and clothing, comforts and reading matter for gra-tuitous distribution. VOLUNTARY DELEGATES, in numbers greater than ever before, have been sont to preach the Gospel at the stations and in regiments, bat-teries and camps without Ohaplains, distribute reading matter and stores, and labor for the good of the Soldiers. A PERMANENT FIELD AGENCY has been sufficiently extended to establish stations and superintend the work. THE BLESSING OF GOD rests signally on all parts of the work. Many thousands have been to cheered, benefited and saved. Still a large part of the Army remains unreached, and double the number, both of stations and delegates, are needed to meet the urgent demand for them. The Christian Commission offers to the people a perfectly reliable and wonderfully economical channel to reach the entire army in all its varions fields. The money given goes in full measure, in benefits for body and soul, directly to the Soldiers; and stores also, immediately from the hands of delegates from homs, who add words and deeds of kit dness to the gifts when bestowed. The large corps of Delegates now in the field will serve as a grand corps of relief when the armies shall move and battles be fought, and the armies shall move and battles be fought, and the armies shall move and battles be fought, and the armies shall move and battles be fought, and the armies shall move and battles be fought, and the armies shall move and battles be fought, and the armies shall move and battles be fought, and the armies shall be vork languish.
