The new General is in appearance a fine looking man, and would, by most persons, b called handsome He is a well-tried officer, having participated in two important battles-namely, Antietam and Chancel-lorswille-in the former of which he received a severe wound in the abdomen, and in the latter a wound in the arm. He was at the former battle Colonel of the 19th Massachusetts Volunteers, who conducted themselves with honor in that engage-ment.

Goodwin, Assistant Quartermaster, he having taken the place of C pt. Godfrey, who has been ordered to report to Gen. Hooker. We understand that Gen. Marston on leaving here, did so at his own request, with the idea of getting a command that will enable him to participate in important one. It is understood that the rebel galvanized regiment will at once be armed and placed on duty at this place, the men being drilled daily. The Hammond General Hospital at this point is whole length of the telegraph being over one hun-dred miles. A large number of refugees arrived on Friday morning from the South; they came across the Potomac a few miles above here. They were six days out from Richmond, and were provided with passes by General Winder. They came direct from Richmond by the fords at the Unickahominy and Mattapony, and represent the times at the South ma most deplorable coudition. Several of the refugees were women, having with them their children. No man can get a pass to come North from General Winder, but he gives passes to all women that as for them. They report that every available man is now at, once placed in the ranks. Flour was eelling at Richmond on last Saturday at $300 a' barrel. Several of the ladies come from Atlanta and Satsanah, Georgia. Flour was, at Savannah, $350 a barrel—at Atlan-ta, $300.

Tho solves your attention to this appeal in benalf of our Sick and Wounded Soldiers. AN APPEAL

TO LOYAL PENNSYLVANIANS.

The "GETTYSBURG BATTLE-FIELD ME. MORIAL ASSOCIATION'' was instituted for the purpose of securing, forever, the principal points upon the great battle-field of the war, in the exact condition in which they were left in July, 1863, when the rebel hordes of the invader LEE were driven back from the free soil of Pennsylvania, and when the gallant soldiers of GENBRAL MEADE remained in possession of the field which they had won by their valor. The Association have already secured the purchase of CEMETERY HILL, CULP'S HILL, GRANITE SPUE and ROUND TOP, with the entrenchments thrown up just upon the eve of the great conflict which was the turning point in the career of the rebellion. The field, with its redoubts, wonderful stone defences, its timber breast-works, itsforest heights, with the trees torn by shells and countless bullets, and its long lines of earthwork defences, have all been preserved intact, and to so continue to preserve them, as to be a monument forever of the greatest of American Battle-fields, s the object of the formation of the Association. To evalue a large number of persons to join in thi patriotic work, the projectors of the plan placed the subscriptions at ten dollars each. The payment Of this sum MAKES EACH SUBSCRIBER A MENBER OF THE ASSOCIATION, AND PART OWNER OF THE

GLOBIOUS FIELD OF GETTYSBURG. What Loyal and Patriotic Citizen of Pennsylvania would not gladly embrace the privilege of recording his name upon this rol of houor, and of linking himself directly with the field where the Clot lofty heroism of his countrymen vindicated the integrity of the Union and the principles of Freedom ? And who would not desire to hand down as a precions heir-loom to his children the evidence of his part in the good work, bearing, as the certificate will, a view of the field which will rank in history with THERMOPYLE, MARATHON and WA-ΕX TERLOO ? There are no salaried officers in this Association,

Bor are there any objects in view in its creation other than those aiready stated. The grounds were purchased from their original owners at the exac price to be paid for them by the Association, and the points selected, and the prices to be paid for them, met the unqualified approval of a committee of the HISTOBICAL LOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA, appointed for the purpose of visiting the field. .The following are the names of the general officers of the Association, and of the Local Oommittee in Philadelphia : OFFICERS.

Hon. JOSEPH R. INGERSOLL, Chairman Provisional Committee. Rev. Dr. S. S. SCHMUCKER, Vice Chairman. Rev. J. ZIEGLER Vice Chairman. D. CARSON, Treasurer. MCCONAUGHY, Secretary.

service in December, 1861, since which date, until compelled to succumb to disease, he actively and ably fulfilled his duties as Surgeon. The Fortress Monroe correspondent of the Heraid, under date of 9th inst., writes: The con-manding officer at Yorktown, Briggadier-General J. J. Wistar, while on his way from Yorktown yesterday to visit Major-General Butler, was taken suddenly ill with cramps and fever, and suffered the most horrible pain. On arriving at the wharf Dr. Charles McGermick, Medical Di-rector of the Department, attended the General, and prescribed such medicines as relieved him greatip. Being unable to move he returned again to Yorktown, and accounts received from there to-day state that General Wistar is considerably better.

stratip. Being unable to move he returned again to Yorktown, and accounts received from there to day state that General Wistar is considerably better.
The papers record the death of Major John Symington, at the residence of his brother, in Harford county, Md., at the age of sixty odd years. Maj. Symington was born in Maryland, and at an early age entered the West Point Militizy Academy, where he graduated with distinguished honor. In March, 1542, he entered the regular army with the commission of Third Lieutenant, and was attatched to one of the artillery regiments. For several years he had chargeof the Allegheny Arsenal, Pittisburgh, Pa.
This understood that the Court of Inquiry Into Gen. Crittender's conduct at the battle of Chickamauga has fully exonerated him from all imptiation in that affair. He will scon be assigned to an important command.
The Department of Monongahela has been merged into that of the Susqueehann and Gen. Brooks, who commanded the former, has been assigned to duty under Gen. Builer.
The Chronice gives the following skitch of the fate John C. Rives: John O. Rives, Esq., the proprietor of the Globe newspaper and publisher of the debates in Congress, died at his residence, near Bladensburg, in Prince George's county, on Sunday morning, as we learn, of rheumatic gout. He was a native of Kentucky, and was about sity-nine fears of age. Mr. Rives seemed to be for some time mindful of his approaching dissolution, and had accordingly placed his business in the hands of his son, and made preparations for his burial. Nevertheless he had regularly attended to be for some time mindful of his approaching dissolution, and had accordingly placed his business in the faunds. Son, and made preparations for his burial. SERT TO THE HOSPITAL. -Mr. George Keating and his two daughters, Georgiana and Dorinda, were taken to the Maryland Hospital in Baltimore on Friday last. Mr. Keating and his daughters have been subject to fits of insanity for several years past, and their condition finally became so deplorable that the court at its last session ordered them sent to the hospital. Mr. Keating is a printer, and has published several newspapers in this town, and also one at Port Deposit--the old Cecil (Md.) Timet.

CAPTURE OF A BLOGKADE RUNNER. — Captain Wm. Hönly was taken to Baltimore on Sunday from Fortzess Monroe, and imprisoned.
