THREE SONNETS BY MRS. KEMBLE. The Spirit of the Fair, published at the New York Sanitary Fair, contains three sonnets by Mrs. Frances Anne Kemble, which it prefaces as follows:

Lest any one, in reading the following noble sonnets, should have their pleasure marred, though but for a moment, by a misconception of their meaning, a word of explanation may not be out of place.

"The first poem is intended to speak for the "Conservative' aristocracies—those who caught up and echoed the jeering cry of the London Times, 'The Great Republic is no more!'

"The second is the wall of those true but the continuous and applications of the second is the wall of those true but the continuous and applications of the second is the wall of those true but the continuous inactions." faint hearts who, also accepting as inevitable the ruin of this country, see in her going down not a triumph, but the quenching of that star of redemption which they had prayed might one day shine over 'the whole earth,' bringing light into all its dark places.

"In the last, the writer, like another Miriam, takes her 'timbrel in her hand,' and answers both the sneer and the despair. "We need only add that Mrs. Kemble, in the letter enclosing her verses, says, that to rise to the occasion she should need the pen of both Milten and Wordsworth." FIRST SONNET.

She has gone dewn! They shout it from afar.

Kings, Nobles, Priests—all men of every race,

Whose lingering closs Time's switt relentless Dace.
She has gone down! Our evil boding star!
Rebellion, smitten with Part Rebellion, smitten with Rebellion's sword, Anarchy, done to death by slavery. Of ancient Right, arrogant enemy, neath a hideous cloud of civil war

Strife such as heathen slaughterers had ab horred.
The lawless band, who would call no man lord, The lawless band, who would call no man lord, Spurning all wholesome curb, and dreaming free Herrabble rule's licentious tyranny, In the flerce splendor of her insolent morn, She has gone down—the world's eternal scorn!

SECOND SONNET. She has gone down! Woe for the world! and all She has gone down! Woe for the world! and all Its weary workers looking from afar To the clear rising of that hopeful star, Star of redemption to each weeping thrail Of Pow'r decrepit, and of Rule outworn; Beautiful dawning of that blessed morn, Which was to bring leave for the poor to live, To work and eat, to labor and to thrive, And righteons room for all who nobly strive. She has gone down! Woe for the panting world Back on its path of progress sternly hurl'd. Land of sufficient harvests for all dearth, Home of all highest hopes—Time's richest birth; Woe for the promised land of the whole Earth!

THIBD SONNET. Triumph not, fools—and weep not, ye faint-hearted; Have ye believed that the divine decree Of Heav'n had giv'n this people o'er to perish? Have ye believed that God would cease to Have ye believed that God wound thereby thereby.

This great New World of Christian liberty? And that our light forever had departed?

Nay by the precious blood shed to redeem The nation from its selfishness and sin, By each true heart that burst in holy strite, Leaving its kindred hearts to break through? Leaving its kindred hearts to break through life;
By all the tears that will not cease to stream
For ever, every desolate home within,
We will return to our appointed place,
First in the vanguard of the human race!

AN APPEAL

TO LOYAL PENNSYLVANIANS.

The "GETTYSBURG BATTLE-FIELD ME. MORIAL ASSOCIATION' was instituted for the purpose of securing, ferever, the principal points ipon the great battle-field of the war, in the exact condition in which they were left in July, 1863, when the rebel hordes of the invader LEE were driven back from the free soil of Pennsylvania, and when the gallant soldiers of General Meads remained in possession of the field which they had won by their valor. The Association have already ecured the purchase of CEMETERY HILL, CULP's HILL, GRANITE SPUR and ROUND TOP, with the entrenchments thrown up just upon the eve of the great conflict which was the turning point in the career of the rebellion. The field, with its redoubts, wonderful stone defences, its timber breast-works, itsforest heights, with the trees torn by shells and countless bullets, and its long lines of earthwork defences, have all been preserved intact, and to so continue to preserve them, as to be a monument forever of the greatest of American Battle-fields, is the object of the formation of the Association. To enable a large number of persons to join in thi patriotic work, the projectors of the plan placed the subscriptions at ten dollars each. The payment of this sum makes bach subscriber a member OF THE ASSOCIATION, AND PART OWNER OF THE GLORIOUS FIELD OF GETTYSBURG.

What Loyal and Patriotic Citizen of Pennsylvania would not gladly embrace the privilege of recording his name upon this roll of honor, and of inking himself directly with the field where the lofty heroism of his countrymen vindicated the integrity of the Union and the principles of Freedom? And who would not desire to hand down a precious heir-loom to his children the evidence of his part in the good work, bearing, as the certificate will, a view of the field which will rank in history with Thermopyle, Marathon and Wa-

There are no salaried officers in this Association, nor are there any objects in view in its creation other than those aiready stated. The grounds were purchased from their original owners at the exac price to be paid for them by the Association, and the points selected, and the prices to be paid for them, met the unqualified approval of a committee of the HISTORICAL LOCIBTY OF PENNSYLVANIA. appointed for the purpose of visiting the field. SAMUEL J. BAYARD,

MASTER SEVEN DIRECT.—The Insoluble Company of the Messrs Hilton Brothers is certainly the best article of the kind ever invented. It should be kept in every manufactory, workshop and house, everywhere. By its use many dollars can be saved in the run of a year. This Coment cannot decompose or become corrupt, as its combination is on scientific principles, and underno circumstances or change of temperature will it emit any offensive smell. The various uses to which it can be successfully applied renders it invaluable to all classes. For particulars see advertisement

The United States Ohristian Commission has seized the present golden opportunity of rest for the Army to extend its work for the good of the Soldiers. Soldiers.
STATIONS have been multiplied, each with its chapel and store tents, free writing tables, and clothing, comforts and reading matter for gratuitous distribution.

tutious distribution.

VOLUNTARY DELEGATES, in numbers greater than ever before, have been sent to preach the Gospel at the stations and in regiments, batteries and camps without Chaplains, distribute reading matter and stores, and labor for the good of the Soldiers. teries and camps without Chaplains, distribute reading matter and stores, and labor for the good of the Soldiers.

A PERMANENT FIFLD AGENOY has been sufficiently extended to establish stations and superintend the work.

THE BLESSING OF GOD rests signally on all parts of the work. Many thousands have been cheered, benefited and saved. Still a large part of the Army remains unreached, and double the number, both of stations and delegates, are needed to meet the urgent demand for them.

The Christian Commission offers to the people a perfectly refiable and wonderfully economical channel to reach the entire army in all its various fields. The money given goes in full measure, in benefits for body and soul, directly to the Soldiers; and stores also, immediately from the hands of delegates from home, who add words and deeds of kindness to the gifts when bestowed.

Let the people give the Money and Stores, and the work will be don?.

The large corps of Delegates now in the field will serve as a grand corps of relief when the armies shall move and battles be fought, and the greater their number the more prompt and effective will be the relief they shall render.
