

THE WAR FOR THE UNION

THE FORT PILLOW BUTCHERY--FURTHER DETAILS OF THE AFFAIR.

Camden, April 10.--No boats have been allowed to leave here since below Columbia since the first news of the Fort Pillow affair was received.

The attack on Paducah yesterday proved to be a mere raid for plunder, by a couple hundred of men, who were shelled out by the forts and gunboats. After capturing a portion of the city in squads for about an hour they left, taking away a number of horses and considerable plunder, and leaving behind half a dozen killed and wounded. No one was hurt on our side.

Several of the guns captured by Forrest at Fort Pillow were spiked before falling into his hands. The others were turned upon the gunboat No. 7, which, from exhaustion of ammunition, having fired some three hundred rounds, was compelled to withdraw. Although only tin-clad, she received but slight injury.

General Lee arrived and assumed the command at the beginning of the battle, previous to which Claiborne directed the movements. Forrest, with the main force, retired after the fight to Brownsville, taking with him the funds he had captured.

While the steamer Platte Valley lay under a flag of truce, taking on the wounded, the rebel officers, among the number being a general, and some of our officers showed them great deference, drinking with them, and showing other marks of courtesy. Prominent among them was said to be a certain officer of an Illinois Cavalry Regiment.

St. Louis, April 15.--A correspondent of the Union of this city, who was aboard the steamer Platte Valley, at Fort Pillow, gives an even more appalling description of the ferociousness of the rebels than our Cairo despatch.

Many of our men, who were shot in the hospital, and the remainder were driven out of the buildings, which were burned. After the battle the rebels went over the field and shot the negroes who had not died from the previous day's fighting.

Only four officers of the 13th Tennessee escaped death. The loss of the 13th Tennessee Regiment was five hundred killed and the remainder wounded or captured.

General Claiborne told the correspondent of the Union that although it was against the policy of his "Government" to spare the negro he ordered his officers to do so.
