THE 16TH PENNSYLVANIA. CAVALET. A private letter received in this city reads as follows: OART WAREING, Memphis, Tenn., April 5, 1664.—I have some news of importance to relate regarding a scout and a fight in which the 10th Ps. cavalry was engaged, commanded by Lieut.-Col. J. C. Hess, and Major Amos J. Holahaa, some 200 men of the Regiment started on the 30th inst. to find out the whereabouts of Gen. Forrest, and his rebel cavalry. The whole Grene Forrest, and his rebel cavalry. The whole supedition was under the command of Gen. Grier-son, other regiments being in the brigade. They were gone three days, when they returned. The following morning at daylight. (April 2d) they started in another direction to a place called Baleigh, Tenn., and scouted beyond that place thirteen miles, when on Sunday morning they on the selvance, and was two and a half hours' march ahead of the main column of our command. Our detachment was attacked by a force of some soo rebels, with a strong reserve of several reg-ment of revel cavalry. They tried to draw Col. Hess into an ambuscade, but he was too much on the alert for that. They then came rushing up yelling like so many demons. Our ooy's tood up to their work bravely, and with undaunated cour-age Col. Hess rode up and down the line in front, exposed to a galling fire from the enemy. Tow-ards the last they rather got the best of our small force, as at the time of the fight we only numbered about 150 men, the remainder being with the brigade. They then fanked us on the right and left and were trying to ceme up in the rest when our Colonel sent for a company of the 7th Indiana cavalry, who were in the reserve, to come up. They did so with a yell. Then was the hot time. The rebels were face to face with our men, yelling all the time. Col. Hess with his undaunted bravery attacked the fellow who was carrying the rebel fag, and would have captured him had it not been for some of the rebels with corder around him and kept him off. Several of the rebels were heard to exclaim, "Shoot t THE SECOND REBEL ATTACK ON PADUCAH.

THE SECOND KKEKL ATTACK ON PADUCAH, [Gerrespondence of the Cincinnat: Commercial.] PADUCAH; April 14, via OAIRO, April 15.—At one P. M. to-day the enemy appeared in consid-erable force on our pickets, and after some skir-mishing, succeeded in driving them into town. As soon as the people heard of the occurrence there was a general rush for the boats. An order was soon after received for the boats to steam to the lilinois shore. The wharf boat containing Govern-ment stores was also towed across. At half-past ment stores was also towed across. At half-past two o'clock General Buford U. S. A. sent in a flag of truce requesting the removal of women and of trace requesting the removal of women and children from the town. Meanwhile detachments of the enemy were prowling about town stealing. At the expiration of an hour, three regiments under Buford were drawn ap in line of battle as if ready to begin an attack. The fort opened on them and after a short fire the enemy withdrew into the woods. During the firing from the fort, our infantry were partly posted within the fort and the remainder in line of battle outside. The gunboats took an active part in shelling the woods. During the afternoon a re-giment of our infantry reconnoitered the town but found no enemy. Upon the driving in of the pick-ets, all the tort.

At 5 o'clock the firing ceased and a scouting party was sent out to see what had become of the enemy. They returned, reporting him falling back to Lovelaceville. At 6 o'clock the boats enemy. They returned, reporting min isling back to Lovelaceville. At 6 o'clock the boats were ordered back to town. The citizens have re-turned to their homes and everything is now quiet. Luring the disturbances the enemy succeded in taking a few horses. His loss in killed has been semething, though it is not known to us how ruch. Our shell could be seen bursting within effective distance. A rebel officer was killed in town, whither head strayed from his command. We have lost none killed. A citizen named Harris was killed by the bursting of a shell. At no time during the day did any force of the enemy get lato the business part of the town, and conse-quently plundered but little. Forrest was not with the troops to-day, his main force being en-eamped on Watchie Bottom, near Boilvar Ten-nessee. The enemy seems to be leaving with plar of his force towards the Tennessee river. Several gunboats are up the river on a zeconnoissance. No report from them up to this moment. One of the rt from them up to this moment. One of the boats is looked for hourly.

CONSTITUTION WATEB. We have learned not to be astonished at any. thing. Years of experience and a correspondence extending throughout all nationalities of the habitable globe have turned theories into facts and established a basis from which we need not err. We are not surprised at such facts as the following-although the persons who write them are. We know the persons and circumstances, hence feel at liberty to endorses their statement:

feel at liberty to endorses their statement: "NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 24, 1863. DEAR SIR-I have been afflicted many years with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. Phy-sicians and medicines failed to relieve me. While visiting some friends in New York who were using Plantation Bitters they prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wine glassful atter dinner. Feeling better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished to find the coldness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I have not done for years I feel like another being. My appetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plan-tation Bitters. Bespectfully. "JUDITH RUSSEL."

The disease known as FALLING OF THE WOMB, which is the result of a relaxation of the ligaments of that organ, and is known by a sense of heaviness and dragging pains in the back and sides, and at times accompanied by sharp, lanci-nating or shooting pains through the parts, will, in all cases, be cured by this medicine. There is another class of symptoms arising from IRBITATION OF THE WOMB, which physi-cians call nervousness, which word covers up much ignorance, and in nine cases out of ten the doctor does not really know whether the symptoms are the disease or the disease the symptoms. We can only enumerate them here. I speak more particularly of Cold Feet, Palpitation of the Heart, Impured Memory, Wakefulness, Flashes of Heat, Languor, Lassitude and Digness of Vision. I called a physician, who at-tended her three months, when he left her worse than he had found her. I then employed one of the best physicians I could find, who attended her for about nine months, and while she was_under is care she did not suffer quite as junch pain. He finally gave her up and said, her care was in-curable. "For," said he, "she has i such a combination of complaints, that medicine given for one operates against some other of her difficulties." About this time she commenced the wase the de-sired effect, and she kept on improving rapidly under its treatment, and now superintends entirely her domesticaffairs.
