AMATEUR THEATNICALS. The Soldiers' Reading Room, on Twentieth street, above Chestnut, was opened to a select audience last evening, for the first time since its renovation. Encouraged by the surveys of last Winter, the gentlemen in charge of the "Amuse, ments" to be given for the benefit of the Grea Central Fair, have had the Reading Roo. " completely refitted, and those who were so for, unate as to have secured tickets of admission for last evening found that it had been converted into o. 40 of the most charming and complete little theatres maginable. As it stands, it has cost almost nothing, as every one called upon has contributed materials or labor "without money and without price." The drop-curtain, painted by Mr. Russell Smith, is one of the nappiest efforts of that admirable artist, while the scenery contributed by him and Messrs. Wiser & Berger, will compare favorably with that of Rosedale." Three companies have been organized to appear at this heatre, and a series of entertainments will be given which will extend over several weeks. Last even ing Goldsmith's comedy of She Stoops to Conquer was produced. The performers are all well known in testionable life, and the personal interest attaching to their attempt was naturally great; but the

ARRIVAL OF UNION PRISONERS.

ARBIVAL OF UNION PRISONERS.

On Monday morning the United States transport steamers New York and Express reached Baltimore, with five hundred and fifty-five live Union prisoners from Belle Island and Richmond prisons. Eight others had left the latter place, but three of them died previous to reaching Fortress Monroe, and were there buried, while five more died on the passage up to this city. There were two cases of small-pox, one of them being left at Fortrest Monroe. They were all in a very destitute and emaciated condition, strongly exciting the sympathies of all who were spectators. The boats were moored at the Boston steamship wharf, where a large detachment of Captain Bruce's Battery, under command of Lieutenant C. Augustus Talbott, performed the humane task of conveying the sick and wounded who were unable to walk, one hundred and four in number, to West's Building Hospital, where they received the kind attentions of the Surgeons and others in attendance. A very large number were also conveyed in ambulances to Jarvis General Hospital, while the remainder, some two hundred, were sent to Patterson Park Hospital. Those taken to the West's Building Almost at a staving point. ANNIVERSARY OF THE GRAY RESERVES.—
Since its erection, the Academy of Music has not presented a more magnificent appearance than it did last night, when the third anniversary of the Ist Regiment of Gray Reserves was celebrated by a promenade concert and soirce. The parquette was flowered over even with the stage. The latter was set with the tented scene from "Joseph in Egypt." The balcony and upper tiers were decorated with red, white and blue bunting, and the narional shield was placed at regular intervals around the house. From the private boxes the National and State flags were displayed, and upon the large pillars beside the boxes the coat of arms of Pennsylvania were suspended. Birgfeld's celebrated band, largely augmented and in full uniform, was stationed upon a platform upon the Locust street side of the stage. The concert commenced at half-past eight o'clock, and shortly afterwards the stage presented a very brilliant scene. The number present was exceedingly large. About two-thirds of the gentlemen were in military dress. There were various uniforms, from that of Brigadier-General down to that of private, the members of the regiment wearing their new uniforms. Several members of the let. City Troop, in their dress uniforms and many officers of the regular and volunteer army were present. The ladies were largely in the majority, and all appeared in either ball or opera costume. At ten o'clock, when the concert concluded, a view of the stage from the balcony was really magnificent. Shortly after ten o'clock the dancing began, and was kept up until a very late hour. The company enjoyed themselves greatly aim this splendid scene, and the entire affair may be regarded as one of the most magnificent ever witnessed in Philadelphia.

A MERRY Scene at Walmut street Wharf.—The splendid packet-ship Tonawanda, of the Messrs. Cope's line, arrived in the river this meining and hauled in at her berth at Walmut street wharfabout noon. She had on board seven hundred and thirty-one passengers, mostly emigrants from both sides of the Irish channel. The frields of the new comers were present in swarms to welcome the emigrants, and there were the usual touching scenes when friends and relatives long separated met again upon a strange shore. Some of the persons who gathered at the wharf have been constant visitors there for days past. From morning andil night they might be seen straining their eyes to catch the first glimpse of the expected ship in the "offing." SOLDIER TO DE HUNG FOR MURDER.—One of the cases tried by the recent court-martial in this city, of which Lieut Col. H: A. Frink was President, and Capt. Chas. Percy Clarke was Judge Advocate, was that of Wm. H. Howe, a member of Co. A, 116th Regiment P. V. who was charged with desertion and the murder of an enrolling officer in Montgomery county. Howe was convicted and was sentenced to be hung. The proceedings of the court were forwarded to Major General Couch, commanding this Department and have just been approved. The sentence is directed to be carried into effect on the 24th of June next, at Fort Mifflin. Howe, it will be remembered, attempted to escape from Fort Mifflin, some weeks since.

YOUNG BEGINNERS, -Before Alderman Beit-Young Beginners.—Before Alderman Beitler yesterday afternoon three boys about fourteen years of age were charged with the larceny of brass moulds and castings from the establishment of M. B. Dyett, corner of Second street and Carter's alley. The total value of articles stolen amounted to from $600 to $500. The boys admitted taking the castings and selling them to a man named John Mariner. They all had watches, which they had purchased with the money thus obtained. They were held in $1,000 bail to appear at Court. John Mariner, who purchased the castings, was held in $2,000 bail to answer the charge of receiving stolen goods. ing stolen goods.

Picking Pockers.—Two men, who gave the Picking Pockers.—Two men, who gave the names of George Eldridge and Wm. Smith, were before Alderman Dougherty, last evening; upon the charge of having picked the pocket of a woman in one of the Fourth Street cars. They got a pocket book and a diamond ring, but threw the articles behind them when discovered by a gentleman, a passenger in the car. The thleves were detained in the car until an officer was observed, and they were then handed over. After the hearing, they were committed. The prisoners are said to be old offenders, and are at the Central Station awaiting a hearing upon other charges.

THE PRICE OF BEER.—It is stated that the brewers threaten to advance the price of beer from $10 to $15 per barrel, and to compel the retail dealers to charge ten cents per glass for the beverage. The increase to five cents per glass seriously affected the sale of beer, but when it is advanced to en cents, there will be a much greater falling off n the number of consumers. ENLISTMENTS.—The recruiting business appears to fluctuate about as much as the gold market. One day there are but few recruits, and the next there is a very gratifying increase in the number. Yesterday, as already stated in the BULLETIN, warrants for the payment of the city bornty to 47 men were issued. To-day the number issued was only 27. ANOTHER PASSENGER RAILWAY ACCIDENT .-

[Correspondence of the Missouri Democrat.]

JEFFERSON CITT, Mo., April 15, 1864.—On last Tresday night, the 12th inst., the notorious bush whacking gang of Shumate and Clark went to the house of an industrious, hard working German iarmer named Kuntz, whe lives some twenty-five to thirty miles from the month of Osage river, and demanded his money. Kuntz had saved some money for the express purpose of sending for his family to come over from the old country to his new home. He stoully denied having any cash, but the fiends not believing him, or penhaps knowing that he did have some money, deliberately took down a wood saw, which was hanging up in the cabin, and cut his left leg three times. below and four, times above the knee, with the poor fellow insensible and he was unable to tell where the money was concealed. His mangled body was found next day, life extinct. A boy who lived with him, succeeded in making his escape terror-stricken, to give the alarm. After leaving Kuntz's the gang went to an adjoining American farmer, whose name I was unable to learn, and not succeeding in their demands for money they destroyed everything in and about the place, took the man out and literally cut his head off. All of this is youched for by the whole neighborhood. BUSHWHACKING IN MISSOURI.

COURTS.

District Court—Judge Hare.—Anna M. Smith vs. Lucas Hirst. This was an action to recover damages for loss, alleged to have been snifered through the wrongful conduct of defendant, as counsel for plaintiff. In 1860, the plaintiff held a judgment note for $600 which defendant represent d to be good, but which defendant subsequently recommended to be substituted for a better and more valuable security. He suggested a bond and mortgage, and Mrs. Smith, through her son as her agent, assented, and the mortgage was executed through one Charles B. Nudd and the judgment note was given as part of the consideration. At the time of the transaction, it is alleged that the defendant represented that he had made the proper searches and found that the property was unincumbered and that it was good marketable real estate. It is now alleged that the mortgage was worthless and valueless, and the mortgage had no right, title; interest, or estate in the lands and she now complains that through the representations of defendant she was a great loser.

The defence deny these allegations of misrepresents.

The defence deny these allegations of misrepresentation. It was averred that the judgment note which plaintiff represented as worth $600 was not worth anything; that it was known to be worthless, and that Mrs. Smith's son, the alleged real owner of the mortrage, was fully aware of the nature of the transfer and the value of the mortage. On trial.
