clothing, comforts and reading matter for gra-tuitous distribution. VOLUNTARY DELEGATES, in numbers greater than ever before, have been sent to preach the Gospel at the stations and in regiments, bat-teries and camps without Chaplains, distribute reading matter and stores, and labor for the good of the Soldiers. A PERMANENT FIELD AGENCY has been reading matter and stores, and labor for the good of the Soldiers. A PERMANENT FIELD AGENCY has been sufficiently extended to establish stations and superintend the work. THE BLESSING OF GOD rests signally on all parts of the work. Many thousands have been cheered, benefited and saved. Still a large part of the Army remains unreached, and double the number, both of stations and delegates, are needed to meet the urgent demand for them. The Christian Commission offers to the people a perfectly reliable and wonderfully economical channel to reach the entire army in all its varions fields. The money given goes in full measure, in benefits for body and soil, directly to the Soldiers; and stores also, immediately from the hands of delegates from home, who add words and deeds of kindness to the gifts when bestowed. Let the people give the Money and Stores, and the work will be dons. The large corps of Delegates now in the field will serve as a grand corps of relief when the armies shall move and battles be fought; and effec-tive will be the relief they shall render. Let not the present work languish. Wait not for the cry of the wounded and dying before pro-viding relief. Send moves to JOSEPH PATTERSON, Trea-

EMBROIDERIES. The undersigned have been appointed to repre-sent the constituencies of the above Department in the GREAT CENTRAL FAIR at Philadelphia, which will excel all preceding Fairs in the extent of its competitive displays of goods, and in the number of its prosperous visitors from the distri-buting and consuming classes. They appeal to merchante, to manufacturers, and others, at home and abroad, to send at once, to any of the members of the Committee here named, such donations of MONEY, or goods, as they shall deem syntable, in aid of the object of the Fair. There need be no fear that too much can be sent, as the Trade stand ready to purchase from the Ibe-pariment aby excess of goods, while no guarantee is needed for the humane employment of all the funds entrusted to that noble Commission the re-are carefully chronicled throughout the Christian world. CABINET DEPARTMENT OF THE GREAT CENTRAL FAIR FOR THE SANITARY COMMISSION, to be held in Phila-delphia, first week in June, 1531. The undersigned have been appointed a commit-tee to solicit, receive and arrange for sale, Cabinet Ware, of any and every description, which the liberality of manufacturers and venders may incline them to present in aid of the Fair. Any-thing, however simple, or of but little money value, will be acceptable, whilst, at the same time, the undersigned world most respectfully urge upon all to make as valuable contributions as it may be in their power to offer. The great, indeed, sole aim of the Fair. Is to do good to the sick and wounded of our gallant army, and though the feeling which will prompt all who contribute is that of gratitude to our soldiers, the occasion may be used, incidentally, to bring before the public eye, the varied manufactures of our country, and were, should make an effort to be properly repre-sented All contributions forwarded should be addressed

 The GREAT CENTRAL FAIR, TO be held in June next, respectfully ask the attention of the various Companies, and others interests in relation to the movement in aid of the Great Central Fair for the Sanitary Commission, to be held in June next, respectfully ask the attention of the various Companies, and others interested, to the following suggestions:
 First. It is proposed that the Fire Department place their enlire apparatus at the disposal of the Object Engineer, to afford protection to the Pair Buildings against accident from fire, the Chief Engineer, to afford protection to the Pair Buildings against accident from fire, the Chief Engineer to detail each day the necessary number of Companies to perform the duty required.
 Scond—That the companies appoint Committees to collect money and salable articles for the benefit of the Fair, all articles thus collected to be labeled with the names of the donor and the Company through whose agency they were presented. If Companies constructions of a day's tablishment or individuals, there is nothing in the rules governing the Fair to prohibit them from so doing.

Tablament of individuals, there is nothing in the rules governing the Fair to prohibit them from so doing.
 Third—To properly decorate the space to be allotted to the Fire Department in the Fair Bulldings, that Companies place at the disposal of this Committee their banners, flags, and other paraphernalia, the Committee pledging themselves to attend to their proper distribution at the Fair, and their safe return to the owners.
 Fourth—Officers of Companies are requested to communicate, in writing with the Ohief Engineer, as to whether or not they intend to take part in the movement. Time being limited, it is desirable that, where action had not aircady been taken, Companies call special meetings, and promptly advise this Committee of the result.
 Fifth—Should persons or associations not connected with the Fire Department desare to make donations, either of money or articles the same can be sent to either of the Department, or to the office of the chief Engineer, and Chairman of Committee, S. W. Corner OHESTNUT and FIFTH streets.

are carefully chronicled throughout the Christian world. Donations through this Committee will be duly acknowledged in those leading American journals most likely to be seen by the respective donors. Due credit for the items and the aggregate will be given in the records of the Fair, and it is er-pected that the comparison with the achievements of other interests will not be other than creditable to those represented by this Committee. To the credit of the trade, dealers in the above lines of goods should find no difficulty in arrang-ing for the transfer for the benefit of their own de-partment, of any engagements elsewhere, which should, however, be henceforth avoided. Ladies of this Committee will call for the good-will offerings of those citizens on whose humanity they rely for tokens of remembrance for the barve men who sacrifice health and limb to preserve the property and lives of their neighbors at home. Let contributors who are ready, notify any of the un-derigned to call or send for their gifts. Contributors who are individual and collect-ive donations to this cause are themselves, in ef-fect, good Samaritans at battle-field and hospital, relieving on prosinte foces as well as succoring the galiant defenders of our advanced civilization the galiant defenders of our advanced civilization woelfare of the conntry.
