A NEW LEASE OF LIFE.

Dr. Radway's Pills have granted me a new lease of life. For fifteen years I have suffered with Dyspepsis, Costiveness, Indigestion. I have taken a cart-load of pills of different makes, but the rea cart-load of pills of different makes, but the rellef afforded by their operation was at the cost of severe suffering from Piles. If I stopped taking these pills one week, the old difficulty would trouble me. I at last struck a vein of gold, in Radway's Pills—the first dose acted so differently from all other pills, that I hoped for a cure—six boxes made a new man of me; I am completely cured.

EVENING BULLETIN MONDAY, APRIL 25, 1864.

STEAM BOILER EXPLOSIONS. We have to record to-day a steam boiler explosion in the city of a more than usually terrible character. Occurring as it did in an establishment where hundreds of hands were employed, it is surprising that the loss of life was not greater. But the accident was a new illustration of the terrific force of steam-explosions. The damage to property, all around the scene of disaster, was great, and the huge distance to which large portions of the boiler were hurled, carrying death and destruction along with them, was amazing.

As in the recent case of the explosion at the foundry of Merrick & Sons, no censure can attach to the proprietors of the establishment where the disaster of this morning occurred. It appears, so far as can now be ascertained, that it was the result of individual neglect, against which there can never be entire security. But there will, of course, be an investigation of the causes of the calamity, and we trust that scientific men will be consulted, so that the exact and immediate cause of the explosion may be discovered. Steam is certainly harmless when it is properly managed. But the experience of generations has not enabled us to ascertain all the minute details of care and precaution that are needed to ensure entire safety. Every explosion might be made to teach some important lesson, if it were only thoroughly investigated by expert and scientific men; and thus, in time, we agent under control.

GENERAL JOSEPH G. TOTTEN.

On Friday another Union General breathed his last. Although not actively engaged in the numerous scenes of strife incident to the rebellion, Brigadier-General Joseph Gilbert Totten occupied an exalted position in the military service of his country. Born in Connecticut, in 1788, he was, when fourteen years of age, appointed a cadet at West Second Lieutenant of Engineers. The following year he resigned, but two years later tion of all lovers of art. was reappointed to his original position. During the war of 1812 he greatly distinguished himself on the Lakes; was breveted Major for meritorious services, in June, 1813: and was breveted Lieut. Colonel for gallant conduct at the battle of Plattsburg. In Dragoni, a fine pianist, Mr. J. N. Pattison, and November, 1818, he was promoted to a Mr. H. Mollenhauer, the distinguished violinist. Majority, and six years later was breveted Colonel for ten years' faithful service. Between this date and the year 1838, he attained to the rank of Colonel of his corps, and during the progress of the siege of Vera Cruz, acted as Chief Engineer of General Scott's army, and for his services at that time was subsequently breveted as Brigadier-General. He was also one of the Commissioners at the capitulation of Vera Cruz. On the third of March, 1863, he was promoted to the rank of Brigadier-General, and within a few hours' of his death was confirmed by the Senate as Brevet Major-General. Thus is another veteran officer added to those of the Union service, who have gone to their graves full of years and CALLING OUT THE MILITIA. The Government has determined not to be caught napping this summer as it was last summer and the summer before. All the troops doing garrison duty in the forts are to be put into the field, and their places are to be supplied with militia organized under the State laws. This will give large and valuable reinforcements to our active armies, while in case of rebel raids into the loval States, there will be an organized and sufficient force ready to meet them and drive them back. We have not heard what arrangements have been made for furnishing the quota of Pennsylvania in this new militia force. But it is reported that 85,000 men have been offered by the Governors of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa, and it is probable that the other loval States will have to furnish an equal or a larger number. Our existing State militia laws are extremely defective. But there is a bill before the Legislature which is intended to effect a complete reform. We trust it will be passed without unnecessary delay, so that the militia force required for active duty this summer may be organized under its provisions. The regiments needed from New York are being rapidly prepared. Those from Ohio have already received their orders. Pennsylvania must not be behindhand, as her border is more exposed than that of any other State.

THE SWORD CONTEST. But few sword-blades, unstained with blood, have been of so much use as that just awarded to Lieutenant-General Grant by over fifteen thousand majority, in a poll of nearly forty-five thousand votes, at the New York Sanitary Fair. Every dollar of the money will go towards the relief of the sufferings of sick and wounded soldiers, and the huge sum subscribed will carry comfort to every field where swords are drawn to defend liberty and the Union. It is curious that to induce this large subscription, a spirit of rivalry had to be evoked, and thus the very antagonism excited will be the means of blessing and saving those who are for the time thrown upon the sympathies of all parties, without distinction of prejudice or partisanship. However, the great end has been fairly gained, and we cannot but look upon the ingenious plan adopted by the managers of the Fair as one of the greatest successes of that most successful festival.

THE OHIO RIVER. The citizens of Louisville are again agitating the improvement of the navigation of the Ohio, and many petitions have been sent to Congress to that end. The Democrat savs:--"Should the navigation of the Ohio river be improved, making of itself a grand ship causl of nearly 1000 miles to Pittsburgh, capitalists would not be long in discovering that the very place for a ship canal from the West to the East is through Pennsylvania. A vast proportion of the products of the Western States, which now goes to the Lakes to find its way to tide-water through the New York canal, would drift towards the Ohio, (thus more than quadrupling the commerce of the river,) and find its way through Pennsylvania to Philadelphia. It is estimaated that ten millions will be required to improve the navigation of the Onio river by locks and dams, and that the tolls necessary to pay a dividend on the investment will not exceed on ordinary merchandise one mill per ton per mile, while the rates on coal boats, raits, &c., will be merely nominal. The toll would thus be only one cent and a half on a barrel of flour, from Louisville to Cincinnati, and two and a half cents on a keg of nails from Pittsburgh to Louisville. The boats would make more money than they now do, as they could run all the year, and always carry full frade."

Some more practical plan of improving the navigation than any yet suggested would have to be adopted, in order to realize the wishes of the dwellers along "the beautiful river;" but it would certainly be an immense benefit to the region from Pennsylvania to the Mississippi river if such a vast improvement could be made.

THE ACADEMY OF THE FINE ARTS. On Saturday evening the customary "private view" of the pictures at the Academy of the Fine Arts took place, preparatory to the opening of the 41st Annual Exhibition to-day. The attendance was very full, and from the feeling evinced, we can but conclude the exhibition of 1864 will rank with the most successful ever given. Among the most prominent works exhibited are two by Mr. Rothermel, one entitled "The Last Sigh of the Moor," which is characteristically full of fine effects, the other a "St. Agnes," which is most beautiful. might be able to keep the indispensable Mr. É. D. Lewis is represented by his splendid picture called "The Gates of the Susquehanna" and other fine landscapes. Mr. Schusselle contributes "Men of Progress," which will attract wide appreciation. There are also many fine pictures which we cannot now indicate in detail, by Sully, Hamilton, W. T.Richards, Russell Smith, J. R. and G.C. Lambdin, Boutelle, Wilcox, Waugh, Connarroe, Marchant, I. L. Williams, Moran and many other artists. The number exhibited is larger than usual, and the prospect is that the daily atten-Point, and in July, 1805, graduated as a dance will be very full, and that the Academy will obtain a firmer hold than ever on the affec-

No 411 WALNUT St. Philadelphia. GRAY'S PATENT MOLDED COLLARS

Have now been before the public for nearly a year. They are universally pronounced the neatest and best fitting collars extant. The upper edge presents a perfect curve, free from the angles noticed in all other collars.

The cravat causes no puckers on the inside of the turn-down collar—they are AS SMOOTH IN-SIDE AS OUTSIDE—and therefore perfectly free and easy to the neck.

The Garotte Cellar has a smooth and evenly fl. ished edge on Both sides. These Collars are not simply flat pieces of paper cut in the form of a Collar, but are MOLDED AND SHAPED TO PIT THE NECK. They are made in "Movelty" (er turn-down style); in every half size from 12 to 17 inches and in "Eureka", (or Garotte,) from 13 to 17 inches; and packed in "solid sizes" in neathine cartons, containing 100 each; also in smaller ones of 10 eachthe latter a very handy package for Travelers, Army and Navy Officers.

EVERY COLLAR is stamped 'Gray's Patent Molded Collar." Sold by all Dealers in Men's Furnishing Goods. The Trace supplied by
