FROM POINT LOOKOUT. [Correspondence of the Baltimore American ] POINT LOOKCUT, MD., April 25, 1561, —We have again to report a change in commanders at this post, Brigadier General Hinks being ordered to iake command of the 1st Brigade of Gen. Smith's army, at Yorktown. Golonel Diaper, of the 36th United States Colored Regiment, takes temporary command, it generally being understood that Major General John A. Peck will shortly assume the commard of this District, having been transferred here from the District of Wilmington previous to his departure on last Thursday.

commat dof this District, having been transferred here from the District of Wilmington previous to his departure on last Thursday. Gen. Hinks reviewed the troops of this District; ti e day could not have been fluer; the sun shone out brightly, and the clear atmosphere made the bright glistening bayouts of the passing regiments show out in marital splendor. The regiments that participated in the review were the 5th New-Hampshire Volunteers, Colonel Happgood; 1st United States Volunteers, Colonel Happgood; 1st United States Colored, Colonel Kelz: 36th United States Colored, Colonel Braper; 2d Wiscowsin Battery, Captain Shaltz, consisting of Fight guns. The 4th United States Colored Regiment were mostly raised in Baltimore, and among the men are a number well educated. We understand that the Colouel has received orders to move to York-town immediately, they only awaiting transporta-tion, which will be here on Monday. The 1st United States Yolunteers, Col. THE EXPLOSION-IDENTIFICATION OF THE DEAD.-Such a full and accurate account of the boiler explosion at Cornelius & Baker's establish-ment, on Cherry street, was published in the BUL-LETIN of yesterday that we have very little to add to-day. The three men who were killed upon the premises were identified yesterday afternoon. Thiy were Wm. M. Bartholomew, moulder, aged 41 years, residing at No. 1339 North Tenth street, and ——— Fry, residing in Mulberry alley, above Fifth street. The unknown man who was at the Hospital, mentioned yesterday, was recognized last evening as Tobas L. Snyder, the bricklayer, who was at work near the boiler and was supposed to be buried in theruins. He was so badly injured that he died at five o' clock this morning. Our list of the wounded yesterday was correct, and only requires the addition of the fol-lowing: George and Rudolph Reese, residing at No. 922 North Eleventh street, were considerably, injured. Rudolph is believed to be zerously kurt. Charles Weabler, residing at No. 233 Othester Taylor will commence an investigation of the dis-street, was badly injured about the head. A HOUSEHOLD TREASURE .--- Considering the A HOUSEHOLD TREASURE.—Gonsidering the hyph estimation placed on the wonderful Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines, they may properly be trmed household treasures. Indeed, in hundreds of instances, after ineffectual attempts to use other machines, this has been tried, and the ease with which it may be worked was at once apparent to the most inexperienced persons. Thousands of families unhesitatingly give their preference to this unequaled machine. The variety of work which it is capable of performing is considered, by com-petent judges, unsurpassed for beauty, strength, and elasticity. It moves with great swiftness and is almost noiseless when in operation. We would advise our lady friends, and families visiting the city to call at the elegant salesrooms of Wheeler & Wilson, 7:4 Chestnut street, and examine these popular machines.

AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS. THE WALNUT.—We have never enjoyed a dra-matic entertainment more than that given at the Walnut just evening, when Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Florence opened their engagement. Mr. Florence played Hardy Andy in a style different from that of John or Frank Drew, but with, we think, equal truth to nature, and he received most cordial applause and more than one call before the cur-tain. He also appeared in two comical parts in 'The Young Actress' and othe Returned Vol-unteer,'' and displayed equal powers of fun with-out the brogue or the shillelah accompanimen's. Mrs. Florence appeared in the protean farce of 'The Young Actress,'' and her dancing, singlur, gesturing and accent, as French, Irish, Scotch and Yankee, were most felicitous. Each song and dance in which she appeared was encored with the nimost spontaniety and heartiness. The audiences was one of the largest and most thoroughly enthu-silatic wel ave seen at the Walnut for a long time, and we venture to say that during their stay the Florences will have no cause to relax their efforts to plase the Philadelphia public. They repeat last night's bill this evening. "THE ARCE...-i-Bosedale,'' with its perential power to charm, will be given to-night."

THE CTERA HOUSE on Eleventh street will be crowded by the lovers of fine ballads, rich bur-lequies and scientific dances this evening, as the bill is an unusually good ore.

During the past year one hundred and eighty-three prisoners were received, lone hundred and hinety-four were dis-charged, leaving three hundred and fifty-eight in the prison af the close of the year, of which two hundred and eighty-nine were white males and ninetten white females. The average number for forty-three less than in 1862. The cost per day for maintaining the convicts was twenty-two events, being ten per cent. m advance of preceding vents. It appears that out of 4, 271 prisoners who have been discharged since the opening of the Penitentiary, four hundred and five have been re-convicted, some of them several times, making four hundred and five have been re-convicted, SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—

BIETH OF A CAMEL IN MANCHESTER, On Wednesday se'nnight at eight o'clock, a double-humped Bactrian camel, in the collection of Messrs. Sanger, at the circus in Portland street, gave birth to a fine male calf. This is elieved to be only the second instance of the birth of a camel of this species in this country. The first occurred at the Zoological Gardens, Regent's Park, London; but the dam did not take kindly to her offspring, which could not be reared in consequence. In the present case the parent at first took little or no notice of the calf, except to make an attempt to bite it; but this arose, probably, from her own indisposi-tion. A little kindness and attention, however, altered her temper; and then she took kindly to the young camel and suckled it, having an abundant supply of milk. Soon after its birth the calf was measured and weighed. It was three feet six inches in height, and it weighed 58 lbs. Like the mother it is brown in color, except in the humps, which are black. In the calf, however, the humps are unformed; the parts where they will grow are only indicated by small patches of thin, loose skin, resembling oilskin, and in size bearing no proportion to the bulk attained by the humps in the full-grown

HALF A TON OF SILVER FOR A FAIR. - The Ter-riforial Enterprise, published at Washoe, is warmly interesting the inhabitants of Nevada Territory, in the Mississippi Valley Fur. The matter has been taken in hand by citizens of that place with the following result: "Almarn®B Paul. President of the Storey County Sanitary Fund Committee, will telegraph to-day that we have two hundred pounds of silver bullion on hand for the Missis-sippl Valley Fair. The bullion has collected upon the hands of the Treasurer of the Committee since the last contribution was made to the New York Sanitary Fund. We would like to see the Terri-tory wake up now, and increase the weight to half a ton. It is not much of an undertaking; Storey county has done such a thing by berself before now, on two weeks' notice. She would do it again under sufficient provocation; if the balance of the Territory were to step forward suddenly with a thousand pounds of bullion, you would probably see blood in her eyes! She would 'sall' that bet if it swamped her! Mr Paul will issue a circular, in a day or two, for distribution throughout the n a day or two, for distribution throughout the Ferritory, asking the several towns and counties to collect contributions and forward them to the Storey Committee, or to the Treasurer of the Mis-issippi Valley Fair."

A MURDER IN BOST ON. - Another horrible scen of blood was enacted in Boston on Sunday morn-ing. A few minutes before one o'clock, police officer William A. Ham, of the First Station, had his attention attracted by a noise and souffle. As he approached the spot he saw two men kicking a he approached the spot he saw two men kicking a third, who was down upon the ground. As he neared the place the two assailants started and rau, but the officer was too quick for them, and soon overtook them. Both were taken into custody. The victim of their attack was able to rise and walk a few staps into a doorway, and then expired almost immediately. He was found to have a deep wound on the right side of his neck, just below the coller bone, which had probably been inflicted with a dirk-knife. The decensed was a man o'-war's man, but his name is not known. He was about thirty years of age, five feet eight inches in height, of dark complexion, and wore a blue shirt, jacket and pantaloons.

The Sultan is having executed in Paris twenty-four figures of animals, lions, tigers, elks, horses and bulls to ornament the gates of his splendid new palace on the Sweet Waters. Large numbers of English tourists have focked to the sest of war in the Duchies, and their unnecessary exposure of themselves to shot and shell has excited the greatest surprise. among the combatants. A youth of seventeen perched himself on the top of a windmill at Dybbok "to see the fun," and could not be prevailed upon to descend till he saw all he wished in the way of bloodshed.

THE RAG-COLLECTING BRIGADE .- The waste which is made in a population of nearly three millions of people, would, if properly attended to, prove an enormous source of profit. Look, for instance, to the great loss which at the present time results from the waste of materials used for making paper, a matter of much consequence, for we are now obliged to buy enormous quantities of rags for paper making from abroad. For the purpose of preventing this, the Rag-Collecting Brigade, in connection with the London Ragged Schools, has been formed at Albion place, London-wall, where at the present time there are more than thirty boys and youths, who, with the trucks' to which we have before referred, collect a considerable quantity of rags. The advantage is great to poor boys, and produces also a national saving. For instance, although this Rag-collecting Brigade has been established but a very short time, there have been paid np to; last Christmas 4241. in wages to boys who, but. ast ourisings 424. In wages to boys who, but, for this institution, would have been dangerons: yagabonds upon the London streets. Besides, they have collected, by four trucks only, in nine months, 49,818 bottles; of paper, 38 tons. 19 cwt. 1 qr. 15 lb.; rags, mixed, 9 tons 18 cwt. 2 qr. 22 lb. There are also various rags and bones, carpet, cloth, fat, &c., metals, and rope, altogether making a weight of goods col-lected by these lads of 82 tons 8 qrs. 27lb. Besides this there have been about 70l. worth of stuff purchased which was not bought by weight, and the committee have good reason for believing that more than one-half of this material would never have found its way into the market but for the facilities which the brigade affords. The materials collected are of the most varied description; cocked hats. bearse trappings, old aquariums; in one bag a million of postage-stamps; and in a lot of rub-bish was found a Bank of England check-book, which was at once forwarded to the Bank; in another was found half-a-dozen pairs of new stockings, which were duly returned to tha owner .- London Exchange.
