XXXVIIITH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION. CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

SENATE.—Mr. Grimes presented petitions of the wives, daughters and sisters of soldiers of the army, setting forth that the pay of the r husbands, fathers and brothers is inadequate, and praying an increase of their compensation.

Mr. Ramsey introduced a birl making Dacotah or Sioux half-breed land scrip assignable, which was referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

On motion of Mr. Ohandler, of the Committee on Commerce, the House bill for the prevent on find punishment of frauds in relation to the names of vessels was taken up, amended and passed. Also the House bill fixing certain rules and regulations for preventing collisions on the water. Also the House bill to regulate the measurement of tomage of ships and vessels of the United States. Also the House bill to provide for the collection of hospital dues on vessels of the United States sold or transferred in foreign ports, all of which were passed.

Mr. Wilson reported from the Military Committee a bill concerning the subsistence and pay of the sarmy, which makes the ration the same as it was at the beginning of the war, and pays to the noncommissioned officers and privates 2 per month, that being something more than the cost between the present ration and the old one. It will give $24 a year to the private in lieu of the company fund, which is of little benefit to the private soldiers.

Mr. Pomeroy moved to strike out the provision

Mr. Pomeroy moved to strike out the provision in the Senate committee's amendment, "that nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the market value of the shares in any of the said associations, held by any person or body corporate, from being included in the valuation of the personal property of such person or corporation in the assessment of all taxes imposed under State authority for State or other purposes, but not at a greater rate than is assessed upon other moneyed capital in the hands of individual citizens of such States, and all the remedies provided by State laws for the collection of such taxes shall be applicable thereto." and insert in lieu thereof, "provided that nothing is this act shall be construed as exempting the capital stock of an association beyond the amount invested in United States bonds and deposited with the Treasurer of the United States as part of its capital, or as security for its circulating notes from being subject to the same rate of State and municipal taxation as is imposed upon other personal property, in the State, city or town in which the association is located."

Mr. Pomeroy (Kansas) explained that the effect of the amendment would be to allow the States to tax all capital except that put into the Junited States as the capital of these banks. He said this was in keeping with the existing law.

Mr. Howe (Wis.) supported the amendment, urging that the States had no right to tax the government bonds.

hir. Collamer (Vt.) argued that by the terms of the United States loans, bonds are Mir. Collamer (Vt.) argued that by the terms of the United States loans, bonds are not to be taxed by the general Government; but there was no pledge as to the State taxation. The tax upon shareholders was not a tax upon the stock of the bank. He did not, however, see how the States were to get along with one tax after another put on them and monopolized to the general Government. This was not the principle on which the general Government set cut. The only exception in behalf of the Government was in regard to duties on imports—not as a revenue measure, but for the sake of unformity as the different States would have laid different duties; the sources of taxation should be in common To pass this amendment would be sequestering that amount of capital solely for the Government purposes. It was a question with him whether so great an amount could be withdrawn from State taxation without serious disturbance.

him whether so great an amount could be withdrawn from State taxation without serious disturbance.

Mr. Chandler supported Mr. Pomeroy's amendment, arguing hat the committee's proposition would kill the bill. He had authority for saying that we were not selling more than half enough of 10-40's to meet the daily expenses of the Government. What would be a greater inducement for investment in them than to say they should not be taxed? There were many persons eternally interposing constitutional objections to measures which were necessary to sustain the Government. He for one was not afflicted with the prevalent disease of "Constitution on the brain."

Mr. Johnson said that however he might wish to preserve the Government of the United States, he wished also to preserve those of the States. The latter had the power of taxation, and in the formation of the Constitution there was no concession of that power, save as indicated, by the Senator from Vermont. He did not know what Mr. Chandler meant by his being free from the disease of "Constitution on the brain." If he was entirely free from it he had released himself from his obligations assumed here, but if he only meant that he would give a liberal construction to the Constitution, they probably agreed in his opinion. The war was not at at end. Its results werein the Constitution, they probably agreed in his opinion. The war was not at an end. Its results were in the womb of time. No one could tell what was to be the extent of public debt. He opposed the amendment of Mr. Pomeroy because he believed it was impolitic at this time. The State as well as the national government were to be preserved, and their reputation untarnished.

Mr. Sumner cited the decision of Chief Justice Marshall in the case of McCoullough, in Maryland, declaring a State tax on the United States Bank to be yold.

deciaring a Sate tax on the United States Bank to be void.

Mr. Fessenden replied that that case had no application to this present bill.

The further consideration of the subject was made the special order for to-morrow.

The President was, on motion of Mr. Wilkinson, requested to communicate any information in his possission in reference to the territory of Nevada. On motion of Mr. Howard, the Pacific halload bill was made the special order for next Monday.

The Senate then went into executive session, and adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Internal Tax bill.

The Committee made various amendments to the stamp duties section, including the following: Increasing the duties on bills of sale of vessels, where the consideration does not exceed five hun-

Conveyances of real estate, where the consideration does not exceed five hundred dollars, fifty cents; for every additional five hundred dollars or fractional part thereof, fifty cents.

On bonds and mortgages and on real estate the same duties as on conveyances.

Passage tickets to foreign ports, except to ports of British North America, where the price does not exceed thirty dollars, fifty ents; over thirty dollars and not exceeding fify dollars, one dollar, and over fifty dollars, and for every additional or fractional part thereof, one dollar

An amendment was adopted on warehouse receipts. For fifty barrels of flour stored in public or private warehouse or yard, five cents; over fifty and not exceeding one hundred, ten cents; every additional hundred, or fractional part, ten cents. Every fifty bushels of wheat are to be charged in the same proportions as the above.

Fifty barrels of beef, pork, or preserved meats, ten cents; over fifty and not exceeding a hundred, or iractional part, ten cents; fifty tierces of beef, bacon. or preserved meats, fifty cents; over fifty tierces and not exceeding one hundred, or iractional part, ten cents; fifty tierces of beef, bacon. or preserved meats, fifty cents; over fifty tierces and not exceeding one hundred, or over heat and the same proportions and part, ten cents; fifty tierces of beef, bacon. or preserved meats, fifty cents; over fifty tierces and not exceeding one hundred, one of the cents of the cents of the cents of the cents of the cents. On motion of Mr. Kassoa (Iows), a proviso of varia authorial minured of fractional part, fifty cents.

On motion of Mr. Kassoc (Iowa), a proviso was added to the drawback section, that there shall be an allowarce or drawback on refined coal oil when exported of one dollar and thirty cents per barrel of forty gallons.

He explained that this amount for o'l manufacturer for exportation would be equal to the tax o' a dollar per barrel already imposed on crude oil.

On motion of Mr. Fenton, no allowance or drawback shall be made for any amount claimed or due less than ten dollars.

of ice.
. Stevens, (Pa.), moved to strike out the Mr. Stevens, (Pa.), moved to strike out the direct tax section.

Mr. Morrill (Vt.), opposed the smendment, saying it would be conceded that we wanted money. This direct tax was imposed for two years, one of which has already expired. If we have a tax as a lien on tebel territory, it will enable the government to enforce with more efficiency the confiscation of estates. It is right that parties in the rebel States should pay this tax as well as loyal men.

live in the lower states and the loyal men.

Mir. Wilson (Iowa) advocated striking out the section. He did not complain of the amount of directiax, but of its inequality, which bore unfairly upon his own State.

Mr. Morrill replied it was a constitutional, just and proper tax. Mr. Morrill replied it was a constitutional, just and proper tax.

Mr. Dawes showed that the gentleman from Iowa had no reason to complain of inequality of times as much.

Mr. Holman offered the following, which Mr. Stevens accepted as a substitute for his own amendment:

Stevens accepted as a substitute for his own amendment:

That the 19th section of the act to provide internal revenue and pay interest on the public debt, approved July 1, 1862, shall remain full force.

Mr. Holman said the one hundred and nineteenth section suspended the collection of the direct tax for two years, or until the first of A pril, 1865, and it would be a breach of faith to repeal it. Property, and not persons, is the legitimate object of taxtion.

bear the same tax as fine-cut—namely, thirty-five cents per poond.

The committee then rose.
On motion of Mr. Morrill, the bill will be considered this evening.
Mr. Garfield (Ohio), from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported a joint resolution appropriating twenty millions of dollars to pay for are ing, equipping, clothing, and the subsistence; transportation and pay of western volunteers, for a term of service not less than one hundred days.
Mr. Kalbfleisch (M. Y.) said he had no objection to its passage as it was proposed, provided a direct tax were imposed to pay that amount.

Mr. Brooks (N. Y.) moved to refer the resolution to the Committee of Ways and Means.
Other gentlemen desired to discuss it in Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union.
The resolution was admitted by almost unanimous consent, and was passed, the House having refused to take the question by yeas and nays.
Mr. Brooks (N. Y.) exclaimed—What! twenty-five millions of dollars voted in three minutes!
The House then took a recess till seven o' clock.
Evening Sesson.—Mr. Fenton (N. Y.) from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported the Senate bill, which passed, authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury, in his discretion, to increase the compensation of inspectors of customs, not to exceed $\frac{3}{2}$ per day.

The House, in Committee of the Whole, resumed the consideration of the Internal Tax bill.
Mr. Pendleton, from the Committee of Ways and Means, proposed a number of amendments, which were adopted, for the better and more speedy execution of the penalty sections of the bill. On motion of Mr. Hasson, the 16th section of the Sub-treasury actof 1846 was adopted as applicable to all offleers of internal revenue ch read with the cut to ty of public models.

to all officers of internal revenue charged with the cutody of public molets.

An amendment was adopted imposing a duty of 2½ per cent. ad valorem on the gross amount of the sales of sugar refiners, including all the products of their manufactories or remeries.

On motion of Mr. Morrill, 5 per cent. ad valorem was imposed on quicksilver produced from the ore.

One of the clauses was amended so that a day of One of the clauses was amended so that a dry of five per cent. should be imposed on gold and silver produced from quariz mines, from beds of rivers, from he earth, or in any other way or manner, provided that all such daties shall be member, provided that all such daties shall be payable in coin or bullion.

Mr. Higby (Cal.) moved an amendment that the duty-shall not be collected on any amount under $6.0. This principle, he said, was adopted as to others, and why should it not be extended to the miners.

under $6.0. This principle, he said, was adopted as to others, and why should it not be extended to the miners.

Nr. Stevens said these miners have been spoiled by indulgence, and now they show it, through then representative. They gather their me als on land belonging to the government, which now merely asks them for a small royalty.

Mr. Higby's amendment was rected.

Mr. Wilace, delegate from Idaho, moved to strike out the above proviso requiring payment in coir. It was, he said, in effect, a repudiation of government paper.

The amendment was stricken on.

The proviso relating to sales of gold and silver bullion, etc., was altered so as to read as follows:

"Any person, firm or company, not being licensed as a broker, who shall sell or offer to sell any gold and silver bullion, sterling exchange, uncurrent money, promissory notes, stocks, boads or other securiuses not bona fide at the time his own property, actually in hands shall be liable, in addition to all other penalties provided in such cases, to pay fifty per cent, in addition to the rates of duty (one-fifth of one per cent.) on sales or contracts for sales."

Mr. Morrill said the intention of the proviso was (one-fifth of one per cent.) on sales or contracts for sales.'

Mr. Morrill said the intention of the provice was to operate on the gold gamblers in New York.

Mr. Boutwell unsuccessfully moved to strike out the above proviso.

The committee, by a vote of 69 yeas against 24 mays, struck out the proviso that all railroadsteamboat, ferry boat and bridge corporations shall have the right to add the duty or tax imposed, to their rate of fare, whenever their liability thereto may commence; any limitations which may exist by law, or by agreement with any person or company, which may have paid or be liable to pay such fare, to the contrary notwithstanding.

These companies are now required to pay a duty These companies are now required to pay a duty of 22% per cent. on the gross receipts.

The committee rose, without disposing of the bill, and the House, at 10 40 P. M adjourned.

CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS. ELOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Mr. Latta moved to consider an act repealing the franchises of the Pittsburgh and Connells ville. Railroad south and east of Connells ville. Agreed to—yeas 23, nays 7. The bill was opposed by Speaker Penney, Mr. Graham, Mr. Hopkins and Mr. Clymer, but was passed to third reading and laid over.

An act incorporating the Southern Pennsylvania Railroad (with all the privileges of the old Pittsburgh and Connells ville road south and east of Connells ville) was considered, discussed and passed to third reading.

Afternoon Session.—The Senate was ergaged the whole afternoon in the consideration of the Appropriation bill.

Erening Setsion —The proposition made by the House to adjourn on the 5th of May was agreed to. The revenue bill was then taken up and discussed all the evening.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Notwithstanding the test vote on the removal of the capital, a series of resolutions on the same subject came up and were considered.

Mr. Smith (Philadelphia) said that the whole amonat required for the new buildings in Philadelphia would have been cheerfully provided for, even if the offer of a million dollars was insufficient. Mr. Musselman read a lengthy speech, in which he contended against the removal, sating that the Legislature was rioting away the time in discussing the subject of the removal, and in increasing salaries, at a time when the Government was recling. Seventy-one thousand dollars had been contributed by the appropriation bill to Philadelphia.

(Thindeplant), ag to whether Philadelphia did pay three-fifths of the taxes. The Philadelphians contended that she did.

Mr. Coleman said these projects had come up annually. The bills always had the wrong title. He believed from the effect they were evidently intended to have on the hotel keepers, that they should be styled acts to improve the character of beef steaks at the hotels of Harrisburg during the sessions of the Legislature.

On the passage of the resolutions the ayes were 20, the noes 71. So the resolutions were lost. The ayes were Messrs Barger, Boileau, Cochran, Foster, Hopkins, Josephs, Lee, McManus, O'Hara, Pancoast, Quigley, Reed, Smith of Chester, Smith of Philad. Sharpe, Sntph n, Watt, Watson, Weaver, and Kerns.
