FROM THE ARMY OF THE CUMBERLAND

(Correspondence of the Cincinnati Commercial.) CHATTANOOGA, April 24.—The recent order from Gen. Sherman...

That there will be wide-spread suffering and starvation in Tennessee this summer...

Yesterday I visited the 4th Army Corps for the first time since its departure from Knoxville...

Major-General Newton recently assigned to the command of the 2d Division...

A few days ago a General officer in the company of a number of ladies...

"General," said Mrs. V., "we are greatly pleased with the prospect of dissections in the North..."

"Well, Madam," was the reply, "you are welcome to all the comfort you derive from the course of the peace party..."

"Well, nevertheless, we like to see such declarations as those of Messrs. Harris and Long..."

Such clothes are sold at Bennett's Tower. The largest and best assortment of clothing in Philadelphia...
