

XXXIVTH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION. CLOSE OF YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, April 29.

SENATE.—Mr. Grimes presented the memorial of Alanson Penfield, Clerk in the Treasury Department, praying for the construction of reservoirs for supplying the Upper Mississippi with a medium stage of water for navigation...

Mr. Ramsey introduced a bill for the benefit and better management of the Indians, by which the President is authorized to locate permanent reservations for the Indians...

Mr. Doolittle presented a memorial of citizens of Wisconsin asking for the purchase of ten percent of the broken foreign gold. Referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Grimes, requesting the Secretary of War to transmit the report, was accepted by Mr. Henderson.

On motion of Mr. Lane (Kansas), the words "not incompatible with the public interests" were added.

An amendment of Mr. Grimes, requesting all information touching the subject or touching persons supposed to be implicated in the report, was adopted.

Messrs. Wilson, Fessenden and others thought the resolution had best not be adopted now.

Mr. Henderson said that information on the subject was desired now, as it would bear on bills now pending before this body, and this was the only authentic way to obtain it.

Mr. Wilson wanted to know if the Senator charged that the Red River expedition was undertaken for the mere purpose of gathering cotton.

Mr. Henderson had said no such thing. He merely wished to know what this brigade of cavalry wanted with 205 wagons unless it was to gather up the products of the country.

Mr. Henderson made no charge himself, but it was singular that disaster had followed the statements and predictions of the Secretary.

Committee's amendment, providing that taxes imposed on market value of shares by State authority, for State or other purposes, shall be in the State where the bank is situated.

Mr. Brooks resumed his remarks, but was again interrupted by Mr. Creswell (Md.).

did more hurt to try to cover up the faults of friends than to give the largest liberty to those who desire to investigate. If a man enough to be groundless charge, give him, rope enough, and he will hang himself. [Laughter.] He was not to be governed in his line of conduct by the gentleman from Pennsylvania.

den in their absence. As often as he (Mr. Dawson) as chairman, and the Democratic who offered such propositions, they had as often been ruled out of order, or defeated by the gentleman (Mr. Moorhead) and his friends.

Mr. Moorhead (Pa.) briefly replied. It was true he and his colleague were formerly political connected, but since they had parted company, he was sorry to say his colleague, while of political fabric was fighting with all associates among political men who were active in the rebellion.
